On Rock or Sand? John Sentamu, 2015-01-15 The aim of this book is nothing less than to assess and reset the terms of the debate about the kind of nation we want to be It asks What are the essential values we need for building a just sustainable and compassionate society in which all can participate Chapters by expert economic political religious and social thinkers including contributions by Lord Adonis Sir Philip Mawer Oliver O Donovan Andrew Sentance Julia Unwin and Archbishop Justin Welby Addresses crucial questions about the moral principles that undergird the way Britain is governed Written for people of any or no religious background who are concerned about the values that influence our political attitudes and decisions Faced with a period of change as great as that of the 1930s the continued cohesion of our society is at risk as expectations of ever rising prosperity are challenged and many struggle to make ends meet It is within this context that the contributors to this book examine some fundamental questions How can we draw upon the wellsprings of social solidarity today What would a new social contract a new understanding about the respective rights and obligations of the individual citizen and the state look like today At a time when budgets and other resources are being reduced what are the principles we should adopt to distribute them In short what values can the Christian faith bring to the table to help address the problems we face today These and other core questions about the kind of society we seek lie at the heart of this book

Crowning Glory Charles Neilson Gattey, 2002 Focusing on their merits rather than their weaknesses this history and statement of support for monarchy chronicles the achievements of British rulers and figureheads from King Alfred to today Argued is the notion that particularly over the last two centuries the institution has exerted a powerful influence for good outside the world of politics Examples such as Prince Albert s Great Exhibition of 1851 and Edward VII s reputation as a peacemaker are cited

Kilcrease, 2013-03-20 In The Self Donation of God Jack Kilcrease argues that the speech act of promise is always an act of self donation A person who unilaterally promises to another is bound to take a particular series of actions to fulfill that promise Being that creation is grounded in God s promising speech the divine human relationship is fundamentally one of divine self donation and human receptivity Sin disrupts this relationship and therefore redemption is constituted by a reassertion of divine promise of salvation in the face of the condemnation of the law Gen 3 15 As a new and effective word of grace the promise of a savior begins the process of redemption within which God speaks forth a new narrative of creation In this new narrative God gives himself in an even deeper manner to humanity By donating himself through a promise first to the protological humanity and then to Israel he binds himself to them At the end of this history of self binding God in Christ enters into the condemnation of the law neutralizes it in the cross and brings about a new creation through his omnipotent word of promise actualized in the resurrection AS Law for OCR Jimmy O'Riordan, 2002 Written specifically for the OCR exam this book s refreshing design and accessible language will appeal to your students It has all the essential information your students need for the exam
