The Four Fundamental Concepts of Psycho-Analysis Jacques Lacan, 2018-05-08 The author's writings and especially the seminars for which he has become famous have provoked intense controversies in French analytic circles requiring as they do a radical reappraisal of the legacy bequeathed by Freud This volume is based on a year's seminar which is of particular importance because he was addressing a larger less specialist audience than ever before amongst whom he could not assume familiarity with his work For his listeners then and for his readers now he wanted to introduce a certain coherence into the major concepts on which psycho analysis is based namely the unconscious repetition the transference and the drive In re defining these four concepts he explores the question that as he puts it moves from Is psycho analysis a science to What is a science that includes psycho analysis

Dickstein,2020-03-23 This book provides 18 lively commentaries on Lacan's Seminar VIII Transference 1960-61 that explore its theoretical and philosophical consequences in the clinic the classroom and society Including contributions from clinicians as well as scholars working in philosophy literature and culture studies the commentaries presented here represent a wide range of disciplinary perspectives on the concept of transference Some chapters closely follow the structure of the seminar's sessions while others take up thematic concerns or related sessions such as the commentary on sessions 19 to 22 which deal with Lacan's discussion of Claudel's Co fontaine trilogy This book is not a compendium to Lacan's seminar Instead it attempts to capture through shorter contributions a spectrum of voices debating deliberating and learning with Lacan's concept In doing so it can be seen to engage with transference conceptually in a manner that matches the spirit of Lacan's seminar itself The book will provide an invaluable new resource for Lacan scholars working across the fields of psychoanalytic theory clinical psychology philosophy and cultural studies     Reading Seminars I and II Richard Feldstein,Bruce Fink,Maire

Lacanian scholars and students as well as psychoanalytic therapists and analysts interested in Lacan's early work Desire and its Interpretation Jacques Lacan, 2019-07-22 What does Lacan show us He shows us that desire is not a biological function that it is not correlated with a natural object and that its object is fantasized Because of this desire is extravagant It cannot be grasped by those who might try to master it It plays tricks on them Yet if it is not recognized it produces symptoms In psychoanalysis the goal is to interpret that is to read the message regarding desire that is harbored within the symptom Although desire upsets us it also inspires us to invent artifices that can serve us as a compass An animal species has a single natural compass Human beings on the other hand have multiple compasses signifying montages and discourses They tell you what to do how to think how to enjoy and how to reproduce Yet each person's fantasy remains irreducible to shared ideals Up until recently all of our compasses no matter how varied pointed in the same direction toward the Father We considered the patriarch to be an anthropological invariant His decline accelerated owing to increasing equality the growth of capitalism and the ever greater domination of technology We have reached the end of the Father Age Another discourse is in the process of taking the former's place It champions innovation over tradition networks over hierarchies the draw of the future over the weight of the past femininity over virility Where there had previously been a fixed order transformational flows constantly push back any and all limits Freud was a product of the Father Age He did a great deal to save it The Catholic Church finally realized this Lacan followed the way paved by Freud but it led him to posit that the father is a symptom He demonstrates that here using Hamlet as an example What people have latched onto about Lacan's work his formalization of the Oedipus complex and his emphasis on the Name of the Father was merely his point of departure Seminar VI already revises this the Oedipus complex is not the only solution to desire it is merely a normalized form thereof it is moreover a pathogenic form it does not exhaustively explain desire's course Hence the eulogy of perversion with which this seminar ends Lacan views perversion here as a rebellion against the identifications that assure the maintenance of social routines This Seminar predicted the revamping of formally established conformisms and even their explosion We have reached that point Lacan is talking about us Seminar Of Jacques Lacan Book XVII Other Side Of Psychoanalysis Jacques Lacan, 2007-11-27 Revolutionary and innovative Lacan's work lies at the epicenter of modern thought about otherness subjectivity sexual difference and enjoyment This new translation of Jacques Lacan's deliberation on psychoanalysis and contemporary social order offers welcome readable access to the brilliant author's seminal thinking on Freud Marx and Hegel patterns of social and sexual behavior and the nature and function of science and knowledge in the contemporary world On Feminine Sexuality the Limits of Love and Knowledge Jacques Lacan, 1999-11-23 In his psycholinguistic exploration of the relationship between the desire for love and the attainment of knowledge Jacques Lacan leads into a new way of interpreting the two most fundamental human drives ...or Worse Jacques Lacan, 2018-08-20 A chance meeting of a sewing machine and an umbrella The impossible face off between a whale and a polar bear One was devised by Lautr'amt

BISWAS, 2024-08-20 The Major Literary Seminars of Jacques Lacan considers the three key phases of Lacan's interest in literary topics Santanu Biswas first examines the seminars given between 1955 and 1961 in which Lacan spoke on Edgar Allan Poe's short story The Purloined Letter Hamlet Sophocles Antigone and Paul Claudel's The Co fontaine Trilogie and where literature is related to meaning This is followed by an exploration of Lacan's seminar on Lituraterre in 1971 in which Lacan elaborates on the different ways in which literature appeared to turn towards lituraterre Finally Biswas considers Lacan's 1975-1976 seminar on James Joyce who created literature out of litter and was concerned with jouissance rather than with meaning The Major Literary Seminars of Jacques Lacan will be of great interest to Lacanian psychoanalysts academics and students of Lacanian studies literature and psychoanalysis and other practitioners interested in the teachings of Lacan
