Congress, 1997 No detailed description available for Semiotics around the World Synthesis in Diversity The Semiotics of Law in Legal Education Jan M. Broekman, Francis J. Mootz III, 2011-07-06 This book offers educational experiences including reflections and the resulting essays from the Roberta Kelson Seminar on Law and Semiotics held during 2008 2011 at Penn State University s Dickinson School of Law The texts address educational aspects of law that require attention and that also are issues in traditional jurisprudence and legal theory The book introduces education in legal semiotics as it evolves in a legal curriculum Specific semiotic concepts such as sign symbol or legal language demonstrate how a lawyer s professionally important tasks of name giving and meaning giving are seldom completely understood by lawyers or laypeople These concepts require analyses of considerable depth to understand the expressiveness of these legal names and meanings and to understand how lawyers can say the law or urge such a saying correctly and effectively in the context of a natural language that is understandable to all of us The book brings together the structure of the Seminar its foundational philosophical problems the specifics of legal history and the semiotics of the legal system with specific themes such as gender family law and business law African Semiotics in the United States Simon P. X. Battestini, 1989 Decoding International Law Susan Tiefenbrun, 2010-05-06 Violations of international law and human rights laws are the plague of the 20th and 21st centuries People s inhumanity to people escalates as wars proliferate and respect for human rights and the laws of war diminish Decoding International Law analyses international law as represented artfully in the humanities Semiotics Semiotic Society of America. COVID Semiotics Mark Allen Peterson, Colleen Cotter, 2024-11-22 This book examines how people around the world have articulated and shaped their experiences of COVID 19 through a sociolinguistic phenomenon known as magical thinking Using case studies from throughout the world China Egypt Europe Jordan Thailand East Jerusalem the UK and the US this volume looks at how people managed ambiguity and uncertainty risk and social isolation by viewing their experiences of the pandemic as other than or alongside those presented by voices and images representing scientifically derived knowledge Each chapter in the volume introduces the reader to a core semiotic concept and shows how it can be used to analyze and unpack a specific signifying practice In the conclusion the several concepts from the chapters ideological positioning entextualization and recontextualization double voicing discursive grafting imaging and contagion are revisited and synthesized in order to demonstrate that semiotics is useful not only in ethnographic studies of various others and of various crises but also in explaining the quotidian experiences of everyday life Ultimately this book reveals that COVID related magical thinking practices are often as contagious as the virus they reimagine spreading through social media and resulting in such social phenomena as viral videos promoting and rejecting public health practices the first lockdown stockpiling of toilet paper and hand sanitizer resistance to public health recommendations anti vax rhetoric and competing interpretations of emerging public health data This book not only represents cutting edge research in the field but it also provides students of anthropology linguistics media and communication with the vocabulary and conceptual framework to understand the human experience of the COVID 19 pandemic
