Sense Nonsense In The Office:

The True Priesthood of Christ Stated and Defended; Or, Christ a Priest, when He was on Earth, Etc. Being an Answer to a Discourse Concerning the Priesthood of Jesus Christ. In which the Socinian Abominations, on that Head, are Exploded, Etc Rev. David MILLAR (A.M.),1749 Taming the System Samuel Walker,1993-05-20

It is a truism that the administration of criminal justice consists of a series of discretionary decisions by police prosecutors judges and other officials Taming the System is a history of the forty year effort to control the discretion It examines the discretion problem from the initial discovery of the phenomenon by the American Bar Foundation in the 1950s through to the most recent evaluation research on reform measures Of enormous value to scholars reformers and criminal justice professionals this book approaches the discretion problem through a detailed examination of four decision points policing bail setting plea bargaining and sentencing In a field which largely produces short ranged evaluation research this study in taking a wider approach distinguishes between the role of administrative bodies the police and evaluates the longer term trends and the successful reforms in criminal justice history

Telephone Directory ,1975 A Cultural History of the Senses in the Modern Age David Howes,2014-10-23 In the 20th century many aspects of life became a matter of perception in the wake of the multiplication of media stylistic experimentation and the rise of multiculturalism Life sped up as a result of new modes of transportation automobiles and airplanes and communication telephones and personal computers which emphasized the rapid movement of people and ideas The proliferation of synthetic products and simulated experiences from artificial flavors to video games in turn created heady virtual worlds of sensation This progressive mediation and acceleration of sensation along with the sensory and environmental pollution it often spawned also sparked various countertrends such as the back to nature movement the craft movement slow food and alternative medicine This volume shows how attending to the sensory dynamics of the modern age yields many fresh insights into the intertwined processes which gave the 20th century its particular feel of technological prowess and gaudy artificiality A Cultural History of the Senses in the Modern Age presents essays on the following topics the social life of the senses urban sensations the senses in the marketplace the senses in religion the senses in philosophy and science medicine and the senses the senses in literature art and the senses and sensory media Sense and Nonsense in the Office Lucy Kellaway,2000 Rule 1 Management is one of the most difficult jobs going and is harder now than ever because the challenges are greater Rule 2 Most people are bad at managing some are very bad Hardly anyone can do it well Rule 3 Good managers need to be both hard and soft decent and ruthless good at the big picture and at the small detail Rule 4 In view of the above the market for management consultants trainers gurus business schools and business books is expanding apparently without limit Rule 5 While most of the management help industry is of dubious value managers do need the experience and advice of wise outsiders But to follow that advice blindly as many companies do is of course idiotic Rule 6 Any new management technique that comes with a catchphrase is suspect It almost certainly will not suit the company in question and even if it does the management will probably fail to apply it properly Rule 7 It is hard to teach a middle aged dog new tricks People who are rotten communicators do not become better by virtue of having been on a course or having read a book Improving and changing is a long painful slog Rule 8 People like security They like to be told what to do Empowerment and flat structures are over rated Rule 9 All work is tedious for much of the time If everyone accepts this then so much the better Report of Cases Decided in the Supreme Court of the State of Georgia Georgia.
