Sense Of Honor:

Parents and Their Problems: Methods and materials for training Mary Harmon Weeks,1914 Occasional Papers University of Washington,1908 Consists of reprints of articles by University of Washington faculty from various reputable periodicals Elementary Education John Alexander Hull Keith,1905 Honor and Revenge: A Theory of Punishment Whitley R.P. Kaufman,2012-08-28 This book addresses the problem of justifying the institution of criminal punishment It examines the paradox of retribution the fact that we cannot seem to reject the intuition that punishment is morally required and yet we cannot even after two thousand years of philosophical debate find a morally legitimate basis for inflicting harm on wrongdoers The book comes at a time when a new abolitionist movement has arisen a movement that argues that we should give up the search for justification and accept that punishment is morally unjustifiable and should be discontinued immediately This book however proposes a new approach to the retributive theory of punishment arguing that it should be understood in its traditional formulation that has been long forgotten or dismissed that punishment is essentially a defense of the honor of the victim Properly understood this can give us the possibility of a legitimate moral justification for the institution of punishment Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine ... ,1896 The Atlantic Monthly ,1896
