Seoul Stirring 5 Korean Directors:

Seoul Stirring, 1994 Seoul Stirring Tony Rayns, 1995-06 This catalogue based on a festival held at the ICA in 1994 provides a survey of contemporary Korean cinema and offers background information and material on 5 key Korean directors Im Kwon Taek Jang Sun Woo Kim Ui Seok Lee Myung Se and Park Kwang Su The Changing Face of Korean Cinema Brian Yecies, Aegyung Shim, 2015-12-22 The rapid development of Korean cinema during the decades of the 1960s and 2000s reveals a dynamic cinematic history which runs parallel to the nation's political, social, economic and cultural transformation during these formative periods. This book examines the ways in which South Korean cinema has undergone a transformation from an antiquated local industry in the 1960s into a thriving international cinema in the 21st century. It investigates the circumstances that allowed these two eras to emerge as creative watersheds and demonstrates the forces behind Korea's positioning of itself as an important contributor to regional and global culture and especially its interplay with Japan, Greater China and the United States. Beginning with an explanation of the understudied operations of the film industry during its 1960s take-off, it then offers insight into the challenges that producers, directors and policy makers faced in the 1970s and 1980s during the most volatile part of Park Chung-hee's authoritarian rule and the subsequent Chun Doo-hwan military government. It moves on to explore the film industry's professionalization in the 1990s and subsequent international expansion in the 2000s. In doing so, it explores the nexus and tensions between film policy, producing, directing, genre and the internationalization of Korean cinema over half a century. By highlighting the recent transnational turn in national cinemas, this book underscores the impact of developments pioneered by Korean cinema on the transformation of Planet Hollywood. It will be of particular interest to students and scholars of Korean Studies and Film Studies. Im Kwon-taek David E. James, Kyung Hyun Kim, 2002 This collection of ten essays written about Im Kwon Taek, better known as the father of New Korean cinema, takes a critical look at the situations of filmmakers in South Korea. South Korean Film Hyon Joo Yoo, 2021-01-01 South Korean Film: Critical and Primary Sources is an essential three-volume reference collection representing three distinct phases in the development of South Korean national cinema, foregrounding how epochal characteristics inform the way in which the national cinema represents the penetrating thematic concern of auteurship, genre, spectatorship, gender and nation, as well as the way in which these themes find expression in distinct visual styles and forms. The South Korean Film Industry Sangjoon Lee, Dal Yong Jin, Junhyung Cho, 2024-08-08 As shown by the success of Squid Game and Parasite, South Korea's film industry is producing films and original series for streaming services, film studios and television stations worldwide. South Korea is now arguably considered one of the few countries outside the United States to have captivated the world's hearts and minds through pop music, TV dramas and film. Similarly, the exponential growth in the South Korean film industry has been mirrored by a growing body of industry and film policy forums and academic conferences in both the East and the West. The South Korean Film Industry is the first detailed scholarly overview of the South Korean film industry The thirteen chapters discuss topics from short films to popular television series that have engaged global audiences Contributors explore the major changes in South Korean film making marketing and in the international growth and popularity of South Korean films By bringing together a wide range of academic specialists The South Korean Film Industry situates the current scholarship on South Korean cinema within the ongoing theoretical debates in contemporary global film studies This volume will be widely read in undergraduate and graduate classes related to Korean and East Asian studies cinema and media studies cultural studies and communication studies Moreover many institutions offer dedicated modules on South Korean cinema media and popular culture for which The South Korean Film Industry will be ideal

Seoul Searching Frances Gateward, 2012-02-01 Seoul Searching is a collection of fourteen provocative essays about contemporary South Korean cinema the most productive and dynamic cinema in Asia Examining the three dominant genres that have led Korean film to international acclaim melodramas big budget action blockbusters and youth films the contributors look at Korean cinema as industry art form and cultural product and engage cinema's role in the formation of Korean identities Committed to approaching Korean cinema within its cultural contexts the contributors analyze feature length films and documentaries as well as industry structures and governmental policies in relation to transnational reception marketing modes of production aesthetics and other forms of popular culture An interdisciplinary text Seoul Searching provides an original contribution to film studies and expands the developing area of Korean studies

Rediscovering Korean Cinema Sangjoon Lee, 2019-12-12 South Korean cinema is a striking example of non Western contemporary cinematic success Thanks to the increasing numbers of moviegoers and domestic films produced South Korea has become one of the world's major film markets In 2001 the South Korean film industry became the first in recent history to reclaim its domestic market from Hollywood and continues to maintain around a 50 percent market share today High quality South Korean films are increasingly entering global film markets and connecting with international audiences in commercial cinemas and art theatres and at major international film festivals Despite this growing recognition of the films themselves Korean cinema's rich heritage has not heretofore received significant scholarly attention in English language publications This groundbreaking collection of thirty five essays by a wide range of academic specialists situates current scholarship on Korean cinema within the ongoing theoretical debates in contemporary global film studies Chapters explore key films of Korean cinema from Sweet Dream Madame Freedom The Housemaid and The March of Fools to Oldboy The Host and Train to Busan as well as major directors such as Shin Sang ok Kim Ki young Im Kwon taek Bong Joon ho Hong Sang soo Park Chan wook and Lee Chang dong While the chapters provide in depth analyses of particular films together they cohere into a detailed and multidimensional presentation of Korean cinema's cumulative history and broader significance With its historical and critical scope abundance of new research and detailed discussion of important individual films Rediscovering Korean Cinema is at once an accessible classroom text and a deeply informative compendium for scholars of Korean and East Asian studies cinema and media studies and communications It will also be an essential resource for film industry professionals and anyone interested in international cinema Korean Film Eungjun Min, Jinsook Joo, Han Ju Kwak, 2003-04-30 Despite its rise in the global market recent political progress and a surging interest worldwide Korean films are relatively unknown and rarely studied This new work begins by investigating the history industry structure and trends of filmmaking in Korea going on to examine how Hollywood films have affected both Korean mainstream and nonmainstream film industries in terms of both means of production and narrative Moreover the authors analyze the ways in which Korean films of recent years have represented the modernization process in Korea itself as well as the ideological implications that arise from the cinematic constructions of Korean imagination More than a mere chronological account of Korean cinematic history Korean Film R attempts to consider the films as a popular cultural form that have a life beyond their theatrical runs stars genres and key movies become part of any culture s identity and in their narratives and meanings can be located evidence of the ways in which a culture makes sense of itself Korea has never before been given such an extensive treatment of this central idea and here for the first time the nation s culture and cinema are merged into one discussion that both reflects and shapes our understanding of it New Korean Cinema Chi-Yun Shin, Julian Stringer, 2005 A wide ranging analysis of modern South Korean cinema The Pusan International Film Festival, South Korean Cinema and Globalization SooJeong Ahn 2011-11-01 This book provides a political and cultural exploration of the Pusan International Film Festival in South Korea since its inception in 1996 By paying a particular attention to the organizers use of an Asian regionalization strategy SooJeong Ahn reveals how the festival staked out a unique and influential position within a rapidly changing global landscape Very little primary empirical research has been conducted to date on non Western film festivals though PIFF and Tokyo and Hong Kong have swiftly grown more exciting and influential as testing grounds for global cinema innovations The initiation development and growth of PIFF should be understood as resulting from productive tensions in the festival s efforts to serve local regional and national constituencies The book also reflects the complexities of rapid transformation in the South Korean film industry as it has reached out to the global market since the late 1990s SooJeong Ahn worked for the Pusan International Film Festival between 1998 and 2002 and has completed a Ph D on film festivals at the University of Nottingham Her recent publications include Re imagining the Past Programming South Korean Retrospectives at PIFF in Film International Vol 6 2008 Placing South Korean Cinema into Pusan International Film Festival Programming Strategy in the Global Local Context in What a Difference a Region Makes Cultural Studies and Cultural Industries in North East Asia 2009 Re mapping Asian Cinema The Tenth Anniversary of PIFF in 2005 in Cinemas Identities and Beyond 2010 The Korean Wave Y. Kuwahara, 2014-02-20 The rise in popularity of South Korean entertainment and culture began and is promoted as an official policy of the Korean government to revive the country s economy This study examines cultural production and consumption glocalization the West versus Asia global race consciousness and changing views of masculinity and femininity Korean Horror Cinema Alison Peirse, 2013-03-14 As the first detailed English language book on the subject Korean Horror Cinema introduces the cultural specificity of the genre to an international audience from the iconic monsters of gothic horror such as the wonhon vengeful female ghost and the gumiho shapeshifting fox to the avenging killers of Oldboy and Death Bell Beginning in the 1960s with The Housemaid it traces a path through the history of Korean horror offering new interpretations of classic films demarcating the shifting patterns of production and consumption across the decades and introducing readers to films rarely seen and discussed outside of Korea It explores the importance of folklore and myth on horror film narratives the impact of political and social change upon the genre and accounts for the transnational triumph of some of Korea's contemporary horror films While covering some of the most successful recent films such as Thirst A Tale of Two Sisters and Phone the collection also explores the obscure the arcane and the little known outside Korea including detailed analyses of The Devil's Stairway Woman's Wail and The Fox With Nine Tails Its exploration and definition of the canon makes it an engaging and essential read for students and scholars in horror film studies and Korean Studies alike The South Korean Film Renaissance Jinhee Choi, 2011-07-21 For the past decade the Korean film industry has enjoyed a renaissance With innovative storytelling and visceral effects Korean films not only have been commercially viable in the domestic and regional markets but also have appealed to cinephiles everywhere on the international festival circuit This book provides both an industrial and an aesthetic account of how the Korean film industry managed to turn an economic crisis triggered in part by globalizing processes in the world film industry into a fiscal and cultural boom Jinhee Choi examines the ways in which Korean film production companies backed by affluent corporations and venture capitalists concocted a variety of winning production trends Through close analyses of key films Choi demonstrates how contemporary Korean cinema portrays issues immediate to its own Korean audiences while incorporating the transnational aesthetics of Hollywood and other national cinemas such as Hong Kong and Japan Appendices include data on box office rankings numbers of films produced and released market shares and film festival showings Hallyuwood Bastian Meiresonne, 2025-01-14 Ride the Korean wave Hallyu of cinema and explore the most exciting and captivating films in the world today From smash hits like Parasite to cult favorites Oldboy The Handmaiden and Train to Busan Korean cinema has revolutionized the film industry Hallyuwood is a comprehensive cultural dive into Korean cinema from 1900 to the present highlighting more than 100 major films from Golden Age classics to intriguing indies Asian film expert and writer Bastian Meiresonne explores how Korean cinema found its roots and the cultural historical and political forces that have shaped the industry over the last 125 years With vibrant film stills and original movies posters throughout Hallyuwood is a celebration of the past present and future of Korean cinema and a gateway to everything you need to know about these unique and thrilling movies Extreme Asia Daniel Martin, 2015-06-24 From Japanese horror to South Korean revenge thrillers and from the new Hong Kong crime film to Thailand's boundary breaking ghost stories Western audiences have been stunned by a boom in challenging cult cinema from East Asia over the last decade But how did this cycle of Extreme Asian films gain such notoriety How did distribution companies journalists critics and censors contribute to the rise of a new genre of forbidden foreign cinema Extreme Asia The Rise of Cult Cinema from the Far East charts the history of the recent cult Asian film invasion covering a five year period and focusing on the activities of the distribution company Tartan Films and their incredibly influential Asia Extreme brand Through a series of case studies of individual releases and other exhibition events this book examines strategies of film promotion and consumption in the context of differing theories about horror cinema movie marketing reception studies and Orientalism Covering the rise and fall of the Asia Extreme label and the enduring legacy of an unforgettable wave of cult cinema this is a comprehensive study of a film movement that has provoked passion and outrage in equal measure Film - An International Bibliography Malte Hagener, Michael Töteberg, 2016-12-16
