Confronting Patriarchy Mary Boufis Filou, 2009 Confronting Patriarchy

Psychoanalytic Theory in the Prose of Cristina Peri Rossi examines three works of the contemporary Uruguayan author who lives in exile as she dialogues with the psychoanalytic discourse endemic to patriarchal society Peri Rossi's prose structured like unconscious productions that give free expression to desire and passion as emanating from the forbidden recesses of the psyche powerfully reveals the message as a treatment for an ill society The language in the three works studied facilitates and reveals the male protagonist's interaction with the desired female object as a regression to a semiotic pre oedipal state in a type of return of the repressed of consuming desire that has been written out of mainstream patriarchy and that serves to challenge its rational symbolic order It is from this vantage point that the author attempts to re write the conclusions obtained through Lacanian and patriarchal discourse so that woman can emerge as a subject in her own right

Felicity Rash, Christophe Declercq, 2018-07-02 This book addresses the many avenues that are still left unexplored when it comes to our understanding of the First World War in the Low Countries With the ongoing the centenary of the Great War many events have been organized in the United Kingdom to commemorate its military events its socio political consequences and its cultural legacy Of these events very few have paid attention to the fates of Belgium or the Netherlands even though it was the invasion of Belgium in August 1914 that was the catalyst for Great Britain declaring war The occupation of Belgium had long term consequences for its people but much of the military and social history of the Western Front concentrates on northern France and the Netherlands is largely forgotten as a nation affected by the First World War By opening the field beyond the military and beyond the front this collection explores the interdisciplinary and international nature of the Great War
