

God,
Grant me
the Serenity
to accept
the things
I cannot change, the Courage to change the things I can and the Wisdom to know the difference.

Amen

Sparrows in a Hurricane Christina Dalpiaz, 2010-11-20 Sparrows in a Hurricane: One Family's Courage to Weather the Storm of Addiction and Mental Illness is a compelling and insightful memoir that demonstrates how children growing up with addicted and mentally ill parents can overcome obstacles and live productive and functional lives as adults. This story involves six Appalachian children who band together to survive and support one another through their parents' addiction and mental illness. The book illustrates how some of them escape the legacy of these diseases while others succumb to its grip.

What's Eating Us Cole Kazdin, 2023-03-07 One of my parenting fears is passing on my messed-up 1980s food issues to my children. Reading about Cole's journey and how she thinks about reframing and repairing those issues is both calming and helpful.

Emily Oster, New York Times bestselling author of Expecting Better, blending personal narrative and investigative reporting. Emmy Award-winning journalist Cole Kazdin reveals that disordered eating is an epidemic crisis killing millions of women. Women of all ages struggle with disordered eating, preoccupation with food and body anxiety. Journalist Cole Kazdin was one such woman, and she set out to discover why her own full recovery from an eating disorder felt so impossible. Interviewing women across the country as well as the world's most renowned researchers, she discovered that most people with eating disorders never receive treatment. The fact that she did made her one of the lucky ones. Kazdin takes us to the doorstep of the diet industry and research community, exposing the flawed systems that claim to be helping us and revealing disordered eating for the crisis that it is a mental illness with the second highest mortality rate after opioid related deaths that no one wants to talk about Along the way she identifies new treatments not yet available to the general public grass roots movements to correct racial disparities in care and strategies for navigating true health while still living in a dysfunctional world What would it feel like to be free To feel gorgeous in your body not ruminate about food feel ease at meals exercise with no regard for calories burned To never making a disparaging comment about your body again even silently to yourself Who can help us with this We can What s Eating Us is an urgent battle cry coupled with stories and strategies about what works and how to finally heal for real
