Profiles in Canadian Literature 8 Jeffrey M. Heath, 1991-01-01 Profiles in Canadian Literature is a wide ranging series of essays on Canadian authors Each profile acquaints the reader with the writer s work providing insight into themes techniques and special characteristics as well as a chronology of the author s life Finally there is a bibliography of primary works and criticism that suggests avenues for further study I know of no better introduction to these writers and the studies in question are full of basic information not readily obtainable elsewhere U of T Quarterly The Arts in Canada William J. Keith, Ben-Z. Shek, 1980-12-15 In this volume a baker s dozen of creative Canadians make personal responses to the state of the arts in Canada Northrop Frye and Guy Rocher write on general cultural trends Hugh MacLennan and Gerald Bessette on fiction Ralph Gustafson and Michèle Lalonde on poetry Robertson Davies and Gratien Gelinas on drama George Woodcock and Jacques Allard on non fiction prose Godfrey Ridout on music and Aba Bayefsky and Humphrey N Milnes on art The essays were written to mark the fiftieth anniversary of the University of Toronto Quarterly The contributors were invited to discuss the changes problems challenges and achievements in the arts in the last fifty years Since all the authors had personal experience of at least a large section of the period surveyed the editors welcomed personal reminiscence as well as description and assessment The result is a varied group of essays in each of which the character of the individual artist is clearly evident together they provide a complex many faceted lively and living discussion of the cultural development of Canada This anniversary collection of essays is a valuable and provocative source for courses in Canadian studies and for anyone interested in the development of the arts and humanities in Canada Serge D'entre Les Morts Gilbert LaRocque, 1976 Francophone Literatures Belinda Jack, 1996-09-05 The canon of French literature has been the subject of much debate and now increasingly francophone literatures are demanding more attention in student French literature courses The first study in English of francophone literatures this book introduces the diverse bodies of texts in French from the numerous French speaking areas around the world with separate sections covering Africa French Canada the Creole Islands and Europe and will provide students at both undergraduate and A level with a comprehensive introductory survey of the subject Francophone literatures emerge from rich bi and multi lingual cultures in part as colonial legacies They also challenge the monopoly of the French literary tradition This introductory survey celebrates the linguistic difference of such texts and the creative possibilities offered by deviance from an established tradition demanding new critical approaches The texts studied here cast a new light upon French literature in terms of their diverse perspectives upon writing history politics and culture their violent rewritings subversive versions and parodies sometimes forming an elaborate pastiche of celebrated French texts Guides to further reading a select bibliography and an extensive index combine to make the book an extremely readable introductory overview of a hitherto little explored area The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole

Postmodernism and the Quebec Novel Janet M. Paterson, 1994 In her study of postmodernism in recent Quebec fiction Janet Paterson attempts to answer three main questions Is there a postmodern Quebec novel What are its forms What are its sites of interrogation The book looks at the works of Hubert Aquin Madeleine Ouellette Michalska Gerard Bessette Yolande Villemaire and Jacques Godbout and a new chapter explores the writing of Nicole Brossard This study is representative rather than exhaustive as it analyses postmodern textual strategies in terms of discourse intertextuality the representation of the writer in fiction the process of history and feminist expression Paterson believes that in order to view a novel from a postmodernist perspective it is necessary to see it as a temporal phenomenon subject to the ambient culture
