Sergeant Majors Daughter:

The Sergeant Major's Daughter Sheila Walsh, 1981 Allen's Indian mail and register of intelligence for British and foreign India, 1880 Highland Light Infantry Chronicle, Our Army, 1938 A Daughter's Tale Mary Soames, 2012-07-24 In this charming and intimate memoir the youngest daughter of Winston Churchill shares stories from her remarkable life and tells of the unbreakable bond she forged with her father through some of the most tumultuous years in British history Through a combination of personal reminiscences and never before published diary entries Mary Soames the youngest daughter of Clementine and Winston Churchill describes what it was like growing up as the scion of one of the lions of twentieth century statecraft Warm memories of a childhood spent roaming the grounds of the family's country estate tending to a small menagerie of pets evoke the idyllic mood of England between the wars As she matures into one of her father's most trusted companions we are given rare glimpses inside the glittering social milieu through which the Churchills moved as well as the rough and tumble world of British politics With fly on the wall immediacy Mary describes the momentous debate in Parliament where Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain was driven from office paving the way for Winston Churchill's ascension and the grueling crucible of World War II During the war Mary served as a gunner in the women's auxiliary helping to shoot down the German V 1 rockets then bedeviling London Styling herself as Private M Churchill to avoid publicity she led a unique double life that comes vividly alive again in the retelling Splitting her time between luncheons at Chequers where she spent time with the likes of Lord Mountbatten and the turret of an anti aircraft battery she was never far from the center of the action Hitler even reportedly hatched a plan never consummated to hire spies to seduce her in order to gain access to secret British war plans She attended the Potsdam Conference as her father's aide de camp arranging a memorable dinner with Harry Truman and Josef Stalin whom she acidly remembers as small dapper and rather twinkly And when British voters overwhelmingly turned on Winston Churchill in the 1945 election it is left to Mary to recount the pain and devastation her father could never publicly express The mutual love and affection between Mary Soames and her parents pours forth from every page of this elegantly written memoir A Daughter's Tale is both a moving personal history and a source of untold insight into one of the enduring icons of British national life Women, Families and the British Army, 1700-1880 Vol 4 Jennine Hurl-Eamon, Lynn MacKay, 2020-03-10 This series concentrates on women and the soldiers in the ranks whose lives they shared assembling a wide body of evidence of their romantic entanglements and domestic concerns The new military history of recent decades has demanded a broadening of the source base beyond elite accounts or those that concentrate solely on battlefield experiences Armies did not operate in isolation and men's family ties influenced the course of events in a variety of ways Campfollowing women and children occupied a liminal space in campaign life Those who travelled on the strength of the army received rations in return for providing services such as laundry and nursing but they could also be grouped with prostitutes and condemned as a burden by officers Parents wives and offspring left behind at home remained in soldiers thoughts despite an army culture aimed at replacing kin with regimental ties Soldiers families suffering both on the march and back in Britain attracted public attention at key points in this period as well This series provides for the first time in one place a wide body of texts relating to common soldiers personal lives the women with whom they became involved their children and the families who cared for them It brings hitherto unpublished material into print for the first time and resurrects accounts that have not been in wide circulation since the nineteenth century The collection combines the observations of officers government officials and others with memoirs and letters from men in the ranks and from the women themselves It draws extensively on press accounts especially in the nineteenth century It also demonstrates the value of using literary depictions alongside the letters diaries memoirs and war office papers that form the traditional source base of military historians This fourth volume covers the period from the Treaty of Paris to the Declaration of War in 1854 The Indian News and Chronicle of Eastern Affairs ,1849 BECOMING

AND BEING John O'Loughlin,2022-03-06 This project is quite unusual in that it combines in separate parts autobiographical writings with biographical sketches of some of the writers who have influenced John O Loughlin most including Jean Paul Sartre Albert Camus Aldous Huxley Arthur Koestler Henry Miller Hermann Hesse and Lawrence Durrell At the end Mr O Loughlin has appended a list of books borrowed from his local library during a twelve year period coinciding in part with the composition of this text so that one can compare his reading material and what he thought of it with the original material of this project as a guide to how becoming eventually turned for him into being Total Empire A. J. Tata,2023-03-21 General Garrett Sinclair undertakes a rogue mission in the Sahara Desert to thwart an international nuclear threat in Total Empire an explosive thriller from A J Tata When Sergeant Major Sylvester Sly Morgan is killed on a mission his daughter Zoey tells General Garrett Sinclair that her father s death wasn t random Morgan had recorded a high level meeting between Chinese American and French diplomats as they spoke about a plan for a new global government The Chinese U S Partnership or CUSP intends to combine the world s two largest economies and militaries to usher in a new era of partnership and leadership But China s offer has a deadline and penalties for noncompliance As a safeguard China has five high tech hypersonic glide vehicles armed with nuclear weapons orbiting the earth ready to strike When Zoey disappears in Africa seemingly while in pursuit of her father s killer Sinclair and Dagger Team are caught off guard as they scramble to catch up Without authorization or support from his government Sinclair takes his team into the maw of the Saharan death pit the Eye of Africa In what will prove to be his most dangerous mission yet Sinclair must overcome tremendous odds with the threat of nuclear Armageddon hanging in the balance The Dash for Khartoum George Alfred Henty,183? The Monkey's Paw and Other Tales W.W. Jacobs, 2014-11-01 Eighteen humorous tales of the macabre and supernatural from W W Jacobs including his classic The Monkey's Paw Considered one of the foremost humorists in England at the turn of the century W W Jacobs 1863 1943 is best known for his masterpiece of horror The Monkey's Paw He was the author of thirteen volumes of short stories all of which were commercially successful and eighteen of these are included together for the first time in this gripping collection of macabre fiction This book features Gothic narratives stories of the macabre and supernatural tales But they are also infused with shrewd and sardonic humor for which Jacobs was justifiably famous They demonstrate vividly his masterful instinct for weaving terror and suspense into scenes of ordinary life His boyhood memories of South Devon Wharf lend authenticity to the many stories with nautical backgrounds or that feature seamen as protagonists Because of its immense popularity The Monkey's Paw has tended to overshadow a good deal of Jacobs other work and it is undoubtedly the most readily recognized and by far the most anthologized story in the collection But readers will be delighted to know that Jacobs craftsmanship is abundantly apparent in many of his other tales as they will discover in this volume Horror and mystery aficionados will be intrigued and delighted by his range of skillful and witty prose and they will at last come to appreciate a writer whose other work has been for so long lost to the general public Eighteen of Jacobs admirably rich stories are gathered in this collection which shows off to advantage his absolute mastery of the form Obvious in his stories is a vein of humor regardless of whether they are conventional mysteries or tales of the macabre or the supernatural These stories will be at home in the hands of any admirer of the form
