Living Vertically John Neal Brittain, 2000 During the season of Lent and especially around Easter many people think about the life and times of Jesus thanks partly to the glut of biblical epics on television But the truth is that many of us bracket the biblical narrative off from our everyday life If I had lived in Bible times if I had seen the miracles We make the Thomas mistake of imagining that seeing is believing The Holy Spirit enables us no it compels us to see as Jesus saw and do as Jesus did Believing is seeing the gift of the Holy Spirit allows us to really comprehend what is going on around us and understand the positive role God wants us to play from Easter 2 sermon Believing Is Seeing Through fascinating anecdotes and stories drawn from his experience as a campus minister John Brittain applies the gospel readings from the Revised Common Lectionary to contemporary life His powerful and insightful messages proclaim the good news in everyday situations they'll hold listeners attention from beginning to end Titles include And Now the News Luke 13 1-9 A Tale of Two Crosses Luke 22 14-23 56 Believing Is Seeing John 20 19-31 How Can They Do That John 14 23-29 Christo centric or Ego centric John 17 20-26 John N Brittain is the Chaplain at the University of Evansville in Evansville Indiana A magna cum laude graduate of Brown University he has also earned degrees from Methodist Theological School in Delaware Ohio M Div and St Mary's Seminary and University in Baltimore Maryland D Min Brittain has worked with generations of young adults during 20 years in campus ministry as well as on many mission projects in the urban U S Mexico Central and South America the Caribbean Russia and Africa He is the author of The Backside Of God CSS

Sermons for Lent and the Easter Season Bernard of Clairvaux, 2013-04-25. This volume contains Saint Bernard's sermons for the liturgical seasons of Lent and Easter. Included are sermons for the Purification, Septuagesima, the feast of Saint Benedict, and the feast of the Annunciation, all of which are interpreted by Bernard in light of the paschal mystery. The Lord Is Risen! He Is Risen Indeed! He Really Is Richard Sheffield, 1998. Richard Sheffield's preaching is stimulating and unique. Whenever I am burdened or under pressure, his pithy insights into the Gospel of our Lord refresh my spirit. They sometimes also sting my soul to pay attention to more significant things in life than preoccupying problems. He is also a courageous preacher when he says things we all think or doubt and dare not to express. He handles life's misgivings kindly and cleanly so that listening to him is a religious experience. This comes about because he came to the temple of religion through the corridors of commerce and knows the real world of his laymen. Under his gentle manner, there is the fire of Peter Thomas and St. Paul, all of whom also preached with integrity and conviction. Bryant Kirkland, Minister Emeritus, Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York, New York. At first glance, the Easter title may seem out of place for a book half full of sermons for Lent. But Richard Sheffield argues and preaches that the sermon for Easter Day is really the sermon for every day in the life of a Christian. The Lord Is Risen is really the only sermon we have or need to have. How we live out our lives in response to that central fact of our faith fills the sermons in Lent as well as Easter with hope. Hope in the here and now as well as in the hereafter. Rev. Sheffield has little patience with those who would turn the good news about God into the bad news about us, and it shows. He writes: Belief is more than just ascertaining the facts and figures of faith. Or figuring out the best way to keep God happy long enough to get into heaven. Belief is living life now, certain of the love of God in Jesus Christ for you and me. Living life unafraid, even of death itself. Richard L. Sheffield is senior pastor of Market Street Presbyterian Church, Lima, Ohio. He holds a Master of Divinity degree from Princeton Theological Seminary and an M.B.A. degree from the University of Chicago. He is a candidate for the Doctor of Ministry degree at Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary.
