is not a trip you will want to miss nor is it one that you will soon forget The Serpent's Gift Jeffrey J. Kripal, 2008-09-15
Because thou hast done this thou art cursed above all cattle and above every beast of the field With those words in Genesis God condemns the serpent for tempting Adam and Eve and the serpent has shouldered the blame ever since But how would the study of religion change if we looked at the Fall from the snake's point of view Would he appear as a bringer of wisdom more generous than the God who wishes to keep his creation ignorant Inspired by the early Gnostics who took that startling view Jeffrey J Kripal uses the serpent as a starting point for a groundbreaking reconsideration of religious studies and its methods In a series of related essays he moves beyond both rational and faith based approaches to religion exploring the erotics of the gospels and the sexualities of Jesus John and Mary Magdalene He considers Feuerbach's Gnosticism the untapped mystical potential of comparative religion and even the modern mythology of the X Men Ultimately The Serpent's Gift is a provocative call for a complete reorientation of religious studies aimed at a larger understanding of the world the self and the divine Architectural Energetics in Archaeology Leah McCurdy, Elliot M. Abrams, 2019-01-25

Archaeologists and the public at large have long been fascinated by monumental architecture built by past societies Whether considering the earthworks in the Ohio Valley or the grandest pyramids in Egypt and Mexico people have been curious as to how pre modern societies with limited technology were capable of constructing monuments of such outstanding scale and quality Architectural energetics is a methodology within archaeology that generates estimates of the amount of labor and time allocated to construct these past monuments This methodology allows for detailed analyses of architecture and especially the analysis of the social power underlying such projects Architectural Energetics in Archaeology assembles an international array of scholars who have analyzed architecture from archaeological and historic societies using architectural energetics It is the first such volume of its kind In addition to applying architectural energetics to a global range of architectural works it outlines in detail the estimates of costs that can be used in future architectural analyses This volume will serve archaeology and classics researchers and lecturers teaching undergraduate and graduate courses related to social power and architecture It also will interest architects examining past construction and engineering projects Studies in the New Testament J. Duncan M. Derrett, 1977 This volume develops the theme that the gospels especially John and Paul cannot be grasped without intimate and detailed knowledge of Jewish sources amongst which the Bible is neglected
