Serpent Sleeping:

Forming Sleep Nancy L. Simpson-Younger, Margaret Simon, 2020-04-13 Forming Sleep asks how biocultural and literary dynamics act together to shape conceptions of sleep states in the early modern period Engaging with poetry drama and prose largely written in English between 1580 and 1670 the essays in this collection highlight period discussions about how seemingly insentient states might actually enable self formation Looking at literary representations of sleep through formalism biopolitics Marxist theory trauma theory and affect theory this volume envisions sleep states as a means of defining the human condition both literally and metaphorically The contributors examine a range of archival sources including texts in early modern faculty psychology printed and manuscript medical treatises and physicians notes and printed ephemera on pathological sleep through the lenses of both classical and contemporary philosophy Essays apply these frameworks to genres such as drama secular lyric prose treatise epic and religious verse Taken together these essays demonstrate how early modern depictions of sleep shape and are shaped by the philosophical medical political and above all formal discourses through which they are articulated With this in mind the question of form merges considerations of the physical and the poetic with the spiritual and the secular highlighting the pervasiveness of sleep states as a means by which to reflect on the human condition In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume include Brian Chalk Jennifer Lewin Cassie Miura Benjamin Parris Giulio Pertile N Amos Rothschild Garret A Sullivan Jr and Timothy A Turner The Psychology Of The Esoteric Osho, 2022-03-30 There are two types of evolution collective evolution and individual conscious evolution Evolution implies unconscious collective progress so it would be better to use the word revolution in talking about man With man revolution becomes possible Revolution as I am using the word here means a conscious individual effort toward evolution It is bringing individual responsibility to a peak Only you are responsible for your own evolution One Thousand One Papua New Guinean Nights: Tales from 1972-1985 Thomas H.
