Offstein,2006-08-30 West Point is the ideal laboratory for studying the dynamics of character honor and leadership first it operates a comprehensive honor education and enforcement program that has been subjected to rigorous Congressional scrutiny second it builds all of its academic athletic and military programs on this bedrock of honor As a result West Point invests heavily in mentoring training and evaluation to ensure the leadership and character development of its 4 000 cadets From Civil War General Robert E Lee to astronaut Edwin E Buzz Aldrin to basketball coach Mike Krzyzewski West Point has groomed leaders whose contributions far exceed the successful management of their immediate charges By illuminating the principles by which West Point teaches leadership Stand Your Ground not only provides a unique tour behind the scenes at this revered institution but more generally imparts lessons of honor and character building that can be adopted by any aspiring leader Management professor and West Point graduate Evan Offstein approached leaders at the U S Military Academy and the Department of the Army with two primary questions 1 How does West Point develop its leaders 2 Can other individuals and organizations apply these methods effectively Two years later after conducting extensive on site research at West Point and with business leaders in a variety of industries he offers unprecedented access to the process of leadership development at West Point and practical insights that can indeed be applied in any type of organization that strives to operate on the principle of integrity AB Bookman's Weekly ,1999 Legend of the Slain Lamb & Other Stories Richard Prakash, Legend of the slain lamb is a story about Lamberto a kindhearted lion who is not happy with the killing of innocent animals by predators He wants the killings to stop but has no clue as to how that can be done until he hears about the Lake of Wonders He uses the powers of the lake to transfigure himself into a lamb But though that does stop the killing of animals it also opens the way for the Snake Anacondia to kill Lamberto the lamb Then something really bizarre happens wherein Lamberto emerges as the Victor in the ongoing tussle AI in Literary Education and Language Learning Asrifan, Andi,2025-07-31 Artificial intelligence AI is transforming the ways we teach learn and engage with language and literature opening new possibilities for personalized learning creative exploration and cross cultural communication As AI becomes more integrated into educational environments it raises urgent questions about authorship interpretation and the role of human agency in traditionally subjective fields These shifts demand careful consideration of ethical implications and the development of thoughtful practices that ensure that technological adoption supports rather than undermines human centered learning The intersection of AI with literary and language education challenges educators and institutions to rethink pedagogy in ways that are both innovative and inclusive AI in Literary Education and Language Learning explores how AI tools are reshaping both the practice and pedagogy of literature and language education It addresses the challenges and ethical dilemmas that come with the increasing reliance on machine intelligence in domains traditionally rooted in human creativity and subjectivity Covering topics such as education assessment literary materials and storytelling this book is an excellent resource for educators researchers administrators policymakers researchers and more They Wished They Were Honest Michael F. Armstrong,2012 The author describes his time as chief counsel to the Knapp Commission which investigated police corruption in New York City SPIN ,1986-08 From the concert stage to the dressing room from the recording studio to the digital realm SPIN surveys the modern musical landscape and the culture around it with authoritative reporting provocative interviews and a discerning critical ear With dynamic photography bold graphic design and informed irreverence the pages of SPIN pulsate with the energy of today s most innovative sounds Whether covering what s new or what s next SPIN is your monthly VIP pass to all that rocks Egypt in the Eastern Mediterranean During the Old Kingdom Karin Sowada,2009 This study presents a revised view of Egyptian foreign relations in the eastern Mediterranean during the Old Kingdom 3rd 6th Dynasties based on an extensive analysis of old and new archaeological data and its relationship to the well known textual sources The material demonstrates that while Egypt s most important relationships were with Byblos and the Lebanese coast generally it was an active participant in the geo political and economic affairs of the Levant throughout much of the third millennium BCE The archaeological data shows that the foundation of these relationships was established at the beginning of the Early Dynastic Period and essentially continued until the end of the 6th Dynasty with ebbs flows and changes of geographical and political emphasis It is argued that despite the paucity of textual data the 4th Dynasty represents the apogee of Egypt s engagement in the region a time when the centralised state was at the height of its power and control of human and economic capital More broadly this study shows that Egyptian interaction in the eastern Mediterranean fits the pattern of state to state contact between ruling elites which was underpinned by official expeditions engaged in gift and commodity exchange diplomatic endeavours and military incursions
