Servant And Other Screenplays:

The Servant and Other Screenplays Harold Pinter, 1991-01-01 The Servant Amy Sargeant, 2020-10-01 Amy Sargeant's compelling and meticulous study of Joseph Losey's The Servant 1963 sets the film in the context of a long tradition of fictional depictions of the master servant relationship from Shakespeare to Cervantes Henry James Dorothy L Sayers and P G Wodehouse Sargeant points out that while many of these relationships are played for comic effect that of the young master Tony James Fox and his manservant Barrett Dirk Bogarde unfolds in a far more sinister manner with Barrett coming to dominate and humiliate the hapless Tony Sargeant's reading pays particular attention to the contribution not only of Losey and Harold Pinter who adapted the screenplay from Robin Maugham's novella but also of the cinematographer Douglas Slocombe designer Richard Macdonald and costume designer Beatrice Bumble Dawson She analyses the performances of Sarah Miles as Barrett's lover Vera and Wendy Craig as Tony's fiancée Susan as well as those of Fox and Bogarde and gives careful consideration to how the film uses architectural form interior design and decoration and clothing to establish character and relationships In the context of the collapse of the British Empire and a beleaguered Establishment beset by spy and sex scandals the film can be read Sargeant argues as a metaphor for the state of the nation in the early 1960s Finally Sargeant considers the film's critical and commercial reception in Britain Europe and the United States its release how it was received as one of a number of emigre films and Losey's surprising denial of a homoerotic intent in the Tony Barrett relationship In her new foreword to this edition Amy Sargeant considers contemporary resonances of the film's depiction of a twisted master servant relationship in recent TV and cinema including The Crown Downton Abbey and The Trial of Christine Keeler

Pinter's World William Baker, 2018-09-15 Pinter's World Pinter and Company is not a full scale biography but a series of illuminating chapters about Pinter's life character and thought employing new information found in his Appointment Diaries recent biographical sources such as Simon Gray's memoirs and Henry Woolf's reminiscences in addition to personal discussions with several in Pinter's world This book provides a fresh illumination of Pinter's life and art his friendships obsessions and concerns Material is arranged around themes key concerns Pinter's activities Pinter's meetings and endeavors for instance with whom he met and when when he wrote what and when and his perspective at the time are documented This work explores Pinter's writing drama poetry prose journalism and letters which are here regarded as part of his aesthetic achievement Pinter's World Pinter and Company presents a pointillist portrait of him through examining central concerns in his life These encompass an obsession with the theater and games delight in restaurants demonstrating that Pinter is far removed from the socially awkward isolated figures populating his early work and the women in Pinter's world Other areas examined include Pinter's political engagement from his adolescence to his last years and the literary and other creative influences upon him This work draws upon consultation of his papers at the British Library including letters to others especially close friends with whom he kept close contact for over half a century These letters should be regarded on par with his other creative accomplishments Pinter was a fascinating letter writer whose letters reveal thoughts at the time of writing often in abrupt most colorful idiomatic language His Appointment Diaries cannot reveal what actually occurred during his meetings but they do provide a guide to what he did on a daily basis and whom he met Memories from his friends his professional colleagues cricket players and his second wife Antonia Fraser illuminate Pinter s personality and actions Pinter s first literary love was poetry and unlike most other Pinter studies this one gives attention to his neglected poetic output that often reveals the real Pinter and the enigma that is at the heart of every great artist political activist Harold Pinter has consistently cast light on the hypocrisy of power and those who would defend the status quo for the sake of their own security and comfort Awarded the Wilfred Owen Prize in 2004 for his poetry condemning US military intervention in Iraq Mr Pinter has succeeded in combining his artistry with his political activism Death etc brings together Pinter's most poignant and especially relevant writings in response to war From chilling psychological portraits of those who commit atrocities in the name of a higher power to essays on the state sponsored terrorism of present day regimes to solemn hymns commemorating the faceless masses that perish unrecognized Mr Pinter's writings are as essential to the preservation of open debate as to our awareness of personal involvement in the fate of our global community Moonlight Harold Pinter,1994 In a drama set in two bedrooms and a dark space a man on his deathbed reviews his life loves and betrayals with his wife while his two conspiratorial and emotionless sons sit in the shadows rationalizing their love hate relationship with their now dying father and their inability to take steps to end the estrangement Harold Pinter William Baker,2008-11-08 A succinct examination of Nobel prize winner Harold Pinter's creative output providing introduction to drama including theatre film TV and radio and Pinter's letters prose and journalism The Cambridge Companion to Harold Pinter Peter Raby,2009-03-19 Harold Pinter was one of the world's leading and most controversial writers and his impact and influence continues to grow This Companion examines the wide range of Pinter's work his writing for theatre radio television and screen and also his highly successful work as a director and actor Substantially updated and revised this second edition covers the many developments in Pinter's career since the publication of the first edition including his Nobel Prize for Literature win in 2005 his appearance in Samuel Beckett's play Krapp's Last Tape and recent productions of his plays Containing essays written by both academics and leading practitioners the volume places Pinter's writing within the critical and theatrical context of his time and considers its reception worldwide Including three new essays new production photographs five updated and revised chapters and an extended chronology the Companion provides fresh perspectives on Pinter's work Celebration Harold Pinter,1999 Jack Kroll in Newsweek has called Harold Pinter the most fascinating enigmatic and accomplished dramatist in the English language Since his first full length play The Birthday Party 1958 and continuing with The Homecoming 1965 Pinter has trained a sharp eye on the strange dynamics of modern family life In his newest play Celebration he continues to examine the darker places of relationships Celebration is an acerbic portrait of a sated culture choking on its own material success Startling full of black humor and wicked satire Celebration displays a vivid zest for life Also included in this volume is Pinter's classic play The Room Both plays are invested with the elements that make Pinter's work unique the disturbingly familiar dialogue subtle characterization and abrupt mood and power shifts among characters which can be by turns terrifying moving and wildly funny Party Time ; And, The New World Order Harold Pinter,1993 Born in London in 1930 Harold Pinter holds an undisputed place in the front ranks of contemporary playwrights These two plays Party Time and The New World Order work in chilling tandem each demonstrating the inevitable brutality that comes with a total conviction of right Party Time is a terrifying portrait of the culpable indifference of a privileged class of the cruelty engendered in its members by political disruption and of their merciless extinction of dissent At an elegant cocktail party a stylish bourgeoisie discusses country clubs and summer homes while below in the streets a sinister military presence protects them from the unmentionable horrors of poverty vulgarity squalor In The New World Order two interrogators harass a man whom they condemn for his questioning of received ideas and whom we know only as threat to their closed vision of democracy Narratives of the Servant Regina Schulte, 2001 Sharp Cut Steven H. Gale, 2021-02-16 While best known as one of the most important playwrights of the twentieth century Harold Pinter 1930-2008 had an equally successful career writing screenplays His collaborations with director Joseph Losey garnered great attention and esteem and two of his screenplays earned Academy Award nominations The French Lieutenant's Woman 1981 and Betrayal 1983 He is also credited for writing an unproduced script to remake Stanley Kubrick's 1962 adaptation of Lolita Much scholarship has been dedicated to the subject of Pinter as playwright but the rich landscape of his work in film has been left largely undisturbed In Sharp Cut: Harold Pinter's Screenplays and the Artistic Process Steven H. Gale the world's foremost Pinter scholar analyzes Pinter's creative process from initial conception to finished film Gale makes careful point by point comparisons of each stage in the screenplay's creation the source material the adaptations themselves and the films made from the scripts in order to reveal the meaning behind each film script and to explain the cinematic techniques used to express that meaning Unlike most Pinter scholars who focus almost solely on the written word Gale devotes discussion to the cinematic interpretation of the scripts through camera angles and movement cutting and other techniques Pinter does not merely convert his stage scripts to screenplays he adapts the works to succeed in the other medium avoiding elements of the live play that do not work onscreen and using the camera's focusing operations in ways that are not possible on the stage As Pinter's career progressed and his writing evolved screenplays became for him an increasingly vital means of creative expression Sharp Cut is the first study to fully explore this important component of the Pinter canon The Servant, and Other Screen Plays, 1991 The Essential Pinter Harold Pinter, 2006 Presents selections of the work of playwright Harold Pinter Includes key plays poetry and the 2005 Nobel Prize in Literature lecture Three More Screenplays by Preston Sturges Preston Sturges, 1998-08-29 Preston Sturges 1898-1959 was a member of Hollywood's gifted royalty producing a remarkable number of films In this third volume of scripts by one of Hollywood's wisest and wittiest filmmakers the focus is on screenplays written but not directed by Sturges This volume will be the perfect accompaniment to the re-release of Sturges films on home video 8 illustrations The Pinter Ethic Penelope Prentice, 2002-05-03 The only comprehensive guide to the plays of one of the world's greatest yet most puzzling contemporary dramatists The Pinter Ethic penetrates the mystery of Harold Pinter's work with compelling and authoritative insights that locate and disclose the primal power of his drama in his characters' powerplay for dominance With remarkable clarity Penelope Prentice's close reading of Pinter's work untangles the multiple ambiguities complex conflicts and contradictory actions which continue to baffle bewilder and confound critics and audiences She reveals that Pinter s plays reflect not a vision of postmodern hopelessness in a world threatening to self destruct but provoke unguessed choice and action that enlarge the concept of love and link it to justice Offering a definitive analysis of Pinter s work from his early poetry fiction interviews essays and novel The Dwarfs to his most recent play Celebration Prentice demonstrates why Pinter s work can only be communicated through drama where attitude and intention may count for little but where action is all
