Lord Mountbatten Pro Series:

Indian Information Series, 1948 Lord Mountbatten Charles Smith, 1980 , Eden D R Thorpe, 2011-05-31

Anthony Eden who served as both Foreign Secretary and Prime Minister was one of the central political figures of the twentieth century. He had good looks, charm, a Military Cross from the Great War, an Oxford first, and a secure parliamentary constituency from his mid twenties. He was Foreign Secretary at the age of 38 and the first British statesman to meet Hitler, Mussolini, and Stalin. Eden's dramatic resignation from Neville Chamberlain's Cabinet in 1938, outlined here in the fullest detail yet, made an international impact. This ground breaking book examines his controversial life and tells the inside story of the Munich crisis 1938, the Geneva Conference 1954, Eden's battles with Churchill over the modernisation of the post war Conservative Party, and his rivalry with Butler and Macmillan in the early 1950s, culminating in a fascinating analysis of the Suez crisis.

Great Warrior Leaders/thinkers, 1989 Great War on the Small Screen Emma Hanna, 2009-10-20. In Britain since the 1960s, television has been the most influential medium of popular culture. Television is also the site where the Western Front of popular culture clashes with the Western Front of history. This book examines the ways in which those involved in the production of historical documentaries for this most influential media have struggled to communicate the stories of the First World War to British audiences. Documents in the BBC Written Archives Centre at Caversham, Berkshire, the Imperial War Museum, and the Liddell Hart Centre for Military Archives all inform the analysis. Interviews and correspondence with television producers, scriptwriters, and production crew, as well as two First World War veterans who appeared in several recent documentaries, provide new insights for the reader. Emma Hanna takes the reader behind the scenes of the making of the most influential documentaries from the landmark epic series The Great War BBC 1964, up to more recent controversial productions such as The Trench BBC 2002 and Not Forgotten: The Men Who Wouldn't Fight BBC 2008. By examining the production, broadcast, and reception of a number of British television documentaries, this book examines the difficult relationship between the war's history and its popular memory.

more vulnerable than the lack of Chinese demand for return and the success of Hong Kong s economic transformations might have suggested Its vulnerability stemmed as much from Britain s imperial decline and America s Cold War requirements as from a Chinese threat It culminated in the little known 1957 Question a year when the British position in Hong Kong appeared more uncertain than any time since 1949 This is the first scholarly study that places Hong Kong at the heart of the Anglo American relationship in the wider context of the Cold War in Asia Unlike existing works which tend to treat British and US policies in isolation this book explores their dynamic interactions how the two allies perceived responded to and attempted to influence each other s policies and actions It also provides a major reinterpretation of Hong Kong s involvement in the containment of China Dr Mark argues that concerned about possible Chinese retaliation the British insisted and the Americans accepted that Hong Kong s role should be as discreet and non confrontational in nature as possible Above all top decision makers in Washington evaluated Hong Kong s significance not in its own right but in the context of the Anglo American relationship Hong Kong was seen primarily as a bargaining chip to obtain British support for US policy elsewhere in Asia By using a variety of British and US archival material as well as Chinese sources Dr Mark examines how the British and US government discussed debated and disagreed over Hong Kong s role in the Cold War and reveals the dynamics of the Anglo American alliance and the dilemmas of small allies in a global conflict The Best in Packaging ,1991
