Muehlig, Nancy Rich, 2000 This newest volume in Hudson Hills Press's acclaimed series about leading collections of master drawings presents sixty-eight great sheets all reproduced in full color including many versos from one of the finest college museums in America Paperbound Books in Print, 1984 Paperbound Books In Print, Fall 1981 Bowker Editorial Staff, 1981-11 The Unfinished Exhibition Susanna Gold, 2016-12-08 The Unfinished Exhibition the first comprehensive examination of American art at the Centennial explains the critical role of visual culture in negotiating memories of the nation's past that conflicted with the optimism that Exhibition officials promoted Supporting novel iconographical interpretations with myriad primary source material author Susanna W Gold demonstrates how the art galleries and the audiences who visited them addressed the lingering traumas of battle the uneasy reunification of North and South and the persisting racial tensions in the post Emancipation era Old Women and Art in the Early Modern Italian Domestic Interior Erin J. Campbell, 2016-03-09 Though portraits of old women mediate cultural preoccupations just as effectively as those of younger women the scant published research on images of older women belies their significance within early modern Italy This study examines the remarkable flowering largely overlooked in portraiture scholarship to date of portraits of old women in Northern Italy and especially Bologna during the second half of the sixteenth century when as a result of religious reform the lives of women and the family came under increasing scrutiny Old Women and Art in the Early Modern Italian Domestic Interior draws on a wide range of primary visual sources including portraits religious images architectural views prints and drawings as well as extant palazzi and case furnishings and domestic objects created by the leading artists in Bologna including Lavinia Fontana Bartolomeo Passerotti Denys Calvaert and the Carracci The study also draws on an array of historical sources including sixteenth century theories of portraiture prescriptive writings on women and the family philosophical and practical treatises on the home economy sumptuary legislation books of secrets prescriptive writings on old age and household inventories to provide new historical perspectives on the domestic life of the propertied classes in Bologna during the period Author Erin Campbell contends that these images of unidentified women are not only crucial to our understanding of the cultural operations of art within the early modern world but also by working from the margins to revise the center provide an opportunity to present new conceptual frameworks and question our assumptions about old age portraiture and the domestic interior The Drawings of Filippino Lippi and His Circle George R. Goldner, Filippino Lippi, Carmen Bambach, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1997 Energetic incisive spontaneous and expressive the drawings of Filippino Lippi 1457-58-1504 are among the most original and creative of the Italian Renaissance Many Heads, Arms, and Eyes Doris Srinivasan, 1997 One of the first things that strike the Western viewer of Indian art is the multiplicity of heads arms and eyes This convention grows out of imagery conceived by Vedic sages to explain creation This book for the first time investigates into the meaning of this convention The author concentrates on its origins in Hindu art and on preceding textual references to the phenomenon of multiplicity The first part establishes a general definition for the convention Examination of all Brahmanical literature up to and sometimes beyond the 1st 3rd century A D adds more information to this basic definition The second part applies this literary information mainly to icons of the Yaksha iva V sudeva Krishna and the Goddess and indicates how Brahmanical cultural norms exemplified in Mathur can transmit textual symbols Both Part I and Part II provide iconic modules and a methodology to generate interpretations for icons with this remarkable feature through the Gupta age
