Bernardino de Sahagún commissioned Nahuas to collect and record in their own language accounts of the conquest of Mexico; he then added a parallel Spanish account that is part summary part elaboration of the Nahuatl. Now for the first time the Nahuatl and Spanish texts are together in one volume with on face English translations and reproductions of the copious illustrations from the Codex. Also included are five other Nahua conquest texts. Lockhart's introduction discusses each one individually placing the narratives in context.
