Politics, Propaganda and the Press Louise A. Clare, 2023-03-20 This book examines British and Argentine media output in the prelude to and during the 1982 Falklands Malvinas Conflict and acknowledges the aftermath and legacies of the media response Yards of ink have been spilt reinforcing the view that the Argentine Junta's action on 2nd April 1982 was a diversion from domestic tensions This view coupled with the paucity of any thorough in depth analysis afforded to Argentine media aspects of the War particularly the press necessitates this volume's copious international study of the Conflict Uniquely US media output is also analysed alongside Britain's and Argentina's all drawing upon Cold War historiography and media theory with a view to contesting the traditional consensus that media outlets merely reflected government opinion during the Crisis providing almost no effective dissent. Asserting media and culture influenced the climatic decision making process of key actors in the Conflict, this book's triangulated approach explores the integral influencing role played therein by culture and how it was not only instrumental to government actions but also to Argentine, British and US media output. This book's revisionist approach makes it a reference point for any nascent research on Falklands/Malvinas media reporting and Argentine and international approaches, particularly the US to the 1982 Conflict. Essays in Air Law A. Kean, 2024-11-25 Beyond the Windswept Dunes

Elizabeth B. Sherman, 2003. The first book to document the maritime history of the port city of Muskegon, combining historical detail and good storytelling. Beyond the Windswept Dunes takes the reader into a world of maritime adventure as it was experienced by the sailors, passengers, rescue workers, shipping magnates, industrialists and many other people whose livelihoods revolved around Michigan's port city of Muskegon. At one time the leading edge of westward expansion, Muskegon was a place where lumbering and lakery merged and where rails met decks, a place situated midway along the coast of a great and sometimes stormy inland sea. Here Elizabeth Sherman offers both a shipping history and a portrait of the city. The events covered range from the visit by the British sloop H M S Felicity in 1779 through Muskegon's boom years as Lumber Queen of the World, from the city's revitalization with the opening of the St Lawrence Seaway to its recent establishment of a floating museum complex for historic naval vessels. The book's focus is on the ships themselves, such as the Lyman M Davis, Salvor Highway 16 and Milwaukee Clipper vessels that were noteworthy for being the first of their kind or for their popularity, unusual and distinctive careers or tragic losses. A number of ships were lost in Lake Michigan near Muskegon Harbor and the stories of some of the most notable wrecks and rescue missions appear in this book, including the psychic intervention that led the William Nelson to the exciting rescue of the crew aboard the sinking Our Son. The book offers many first-hand statements of shipwreck survivors and other witnesses, lending an authentic voice to the accounts. The Cap and Gown, 1912
