Women's Letters as Life Writing 1840-1885 Catherine Delafield,2019-12-16 Examining letter collections published in the second half of the nineteenth century Catherine Delafield rereads the life writing of Frances Burney Charlotte Bront Mary Delany Catherine Winkworth Jane Austen and George Eliot situating these women in their epistolary culture and in relation to one another as exemplary women of the period She traces the role of their editors in the publishing process and considers how a model of representation in letters emerged from the publication of Burney s Diary and Letters and Elizabeth Gaskell s Life of Bront Delafield contends that new correspondences emerge between editors biographers and their biographical subjects and that the original epistolary pact was remade in collaboration with family memorials in private and with reviewers in public Women s Letters as Life Writing addresses issues of survival and choice when an archive passes into family hands tracing the means by which women s lives came to be written and rewritten in letters in the nineteenth century

The Letters of Sarah Scott Vol 1 Nicole Pohl,2024-08-01 Sarah Robinson Scott was a writer translator and social reformer While Scott s legacy presents her as a committed Anglican philanthropist the letters she wrote reveal her to have been a witty even savage commentator on eighteenth century life This is the first edition of Scott s letters to be published and presents all extant copies The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 4, The Eighteenth Century H. B. Nisbet,Claude Rawson,2005-12-08 This is a comprehensive 1997 account of the history of literary criticism in Britain and Europe between 1660 and 1800 Unlike previous histories it is not just a chronological survey of critical writing but a multidisciplinary investigation of how the understanding of literature and its various genres was transformed at the start of the modern era by developments in philosophy psychology the natural sciences linguistics and other disciplines as well as in society at large In the process modern literary theory at first often implicit in literary texts themselves emancipated itself from classical poetics and rhetoric and literary criticism emerged as a full time professional activity catering for an expanding literate public The volume is international both in coverage and in authorship Extensive bibliographies provide guidance for further specialised study The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 4, The Eighteenth Century George Alexander Kennedy,1989 This comprehensive 1997 account of eighteenth century literary criticism is now available in paperback Elizabeth Barrett Browning Dorothy Mermin,1989-06-15 Elizabeth Barrett Browning 1806 61 was the first major woman poet in the English literary tradition Her significance has been obscured in this century by her erasure from most literary histories and her exclusion from academic anthologies Dorothy Mermin s critical and biographical study argues for Barrett Browning s originative role in both the Victorian poetic tradition and the development of women s literature Barrett Browning s place at the wellhead of a new female tradition remains the single most important fact about her in terms of literary history and it was central to her self consciousness as a poet Mermin s study shows that Barrett

Browning's anomalous situation was constantly present to her imagination and that questions of gender shaped almost everything she wrote Mermin argues that Barrett Browning's poetry covertly inspects and dismantles the barriers set in her path by gender and that in her major works Sonnets from the Portuguese Aurora Leigh her best political poems A Musical Instrument difficulty is turned into triumph incorporating the author's femininity her situation as a woman poet and her increasingly substantial fame Mermin skillfully interweaves biography and close readings of the poems to show precisely how Barrett Browning's life as a woman writer is a part of the essential meaning of her art Both her personal and her literary achievements are exceptionally well documented especially for her formative years Mermin makes extensive use of the poet's early essays a diary covering most of her twenty-sixth year and the enormous number of letters that have survived Ranging from her earliest ambitions through her long periods of discouragement and illness to her happy married life with Robert Browning this comprehensive study of Elizabeth Barrett Browning is essential reading for students of the Victorian period English literature and women's studies

Mail-Orders Sunka Simon, 2002-03-21 Explores contemporary uses of letters and letter writing including electronic mail in literature film and art

Epistolary Selves Rebecca Earle, 2016-12-05 This volume of ten essays discusses the pivotal role that letters have played in social economic and political history from the seventeenth to the twentieth century The recent scholarly interest in the history of reading has as yet yielded few studies which consider letters as a category of readable material The contributors to this book seek to redress this oversight viewing letters as texts which can reveal information not only about their writers and readers but about the wider historical context in which they were written Topics covered include the mercantile letter diplomatic correspondence and what these epistolary forms suggest about the rise of a polite literate culture in the eighteenth century the experience of immigration from Europe to America during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the relationship through the letter and the working of gender in the epistolary form Rebecca Earle provides an overview of how the study of letter writing can open up new avenues of historical as well as literary investigation This together with contributions from leading international scholars makes Epistolary Selves an essential text for those researching the letter genre

The Works of Elizabeth Gaskell, Part I Vol 1 Joanne Shattock, Angus Easson, Josie Billington, Deirdre d'Albortis, Linda K Hughes, Elisabeth Jay, Charlotte Mitchell, Linda H Peterson, Marion Shaw, Alan Shelston, Joanne Wilkes, 2017-09-29 A selection of texts by Elizabeth Gaskell accompanied by annotations It brings together Gaskell academics to provide readers with scholarship on her work and seeks to bring the crusading spirit and genius of the writer into the 21st century to take her place as a major Victorian writer

Mothering Across Cultures Angelita Dianne Reyes, 2002

Epistolary Practices William Merrill Decker, 2000-11-09 Letters have long been read as primary sources for biography and history but their performative fictive and textual dimensions have only recently attracted serious notice In this book William Merrill Decker examines the place of the personal letter in American popular and literary culture from the colonial to the postmodern period After offering an overview of the genre Decker explores epistolary practices that coincide with American experiences of space settlement separation and reunion He discusses letters written by such well known and well educated persons as John Winthrop Benjamin Franklin Thomas Jefferson Abigail and John Adams Nathaniel Hawthorne Margaret Fuller Henry David Thoreau Samuel Clemens Henry James and Alice James but also letters by persons who except in their correspondence were not writers at all indentured servants New England factory workers slaves soldiers and Western pioneers Individual chapters explore the letter writing of Ralph Waldo Emerson Emily Dickinson and Henry Adams three of America s most ambitious accomplished and theoretically astute letter writers Finally Decker considers the ongoing transformation of letter writing in the electronic age Utopia's

Garden E. C. Spary,2010-12-15 The royal Parisian botanical garden the Jardin du Roi was a jewel in the crown of the French Old Regime praised by both rulers and scientific practitioners Yet unlike many such institutions the Jardin not only survived the French Revolution but by 1800 had become the world s leading public establishment of natural history the Mus um d Histoire Naturelle E C Spary traces the scientific administrative and political strategies that enabled the foundation of the Mus um arguing that agriculture and animal breeding rank alongside classification and collections in explaining why natural history was important for French rulers But the Mus um s success was also a consequence of its employees Revolutionary rhetoric by displaying the natural order they suggested the institution could assist in fashioning a self educating self policing Republican people Natural history was presented as an indispensable source of national prosperity and individual virtue Spary s fascinating account opens a new chapter in the history of France science and the Enlightenment Encyclopedia

O. Beebe,1999-03-28 This book explores epistolary fiction as a major phenomenon across Europe from the Renaissance to the nineteenth century Divergent Visions, Contested Spaces Jeffrey Hotz,2021-04-29 This multicultural project examines fictional and non fictional accounts of travel in the Early Republic and antebellum periods Connecting literary representations of geographic spaces within and outside of U S borders to evolving definitions of national American identity the book explores divergent visions of contested spaces Through an examination of depictions of the land and travel in fiction and non fiction the study uncovers the spatial and legal conceptions of national identity The study argues that imagined geographies in American literature dramatize a linguistic contest among dominant and marginal voices Blending interpretations of canonical authors such as James Fenimore Cooper Frederick Douglass Richard Henry Dana Jr and Herman

Melville with readings of less well known writers like Gilbert Imlay Elizabeth House Trist Sauk Chief Black Hawk William Grimes and Moses Roper the book interprets diverse authors impressions of significant spaces migrations The movements and regions covered include the Anglo American migration to the Trans Appalachian Valley after the Revolutionary War the 1803 Louisiana Purchase and Anglo American travel west of the Mississippi the Underground Railroad as depicted in the fugitive slave narrative and novel and the extension of American interests in maritime endeavors off the California coast and in the South Pacific

Walter Scott and Fame Robert Mayer,2017-03-01 Walter Scott and Fame is a study of correspondences between Scott and socially and culturally diverse readers of his work in the English speaking world in the early nineteenth century Examining authorship reading and fame the book is based on extensive archival research especially in the collection of letters to Scott in the National Library of Scotland Robert Mayer demonstrates that in Scott s literary correspondence constructions of authorship reading strategies and versions of fame are posited even theorized Scott s reader correspondents invest him with power but they also attempt to tap into or appropriate some of his authority Scott s version of authorship sets him apart from important contemporaries like Wordsworth and Byron who adhered at least as Scott viewed the matter to a rarefied conception of the writer as someone possessed of extraordinary power The idea of the author put in place by Scott in dialogue with his readers establishes him as a powerful figure who is nevertheless subject to the will of his audience Scott s literary correspondence also demonstrates that the reader can be a very powerful figure and that we should regard reading not just as the reception of texts but also as the apprehension of an author function Thus Scott s correspondence makes it clear that the relationship between authors and readers is a dynamic often fraught connection which needs to be understood in terms of the new culture of celebrity that emerged during Scott s working life Along with Byron the study shows Scott was at the centre of this transformation
