"Moving" with Mattie Lou O'Kelley Barbara R. Luck,1995 Georgia artist Mattie Lou O Kelley compellingly captured the comfort security companionship and nurturing love provided by close family relationships in her 24 Moving pictures which she created in 1987 1989 to illustrate her children s book Moving to Town The strong recurring autobiographical aspects of these paintings suggest that the facts of the artist s life are integral to her works O Kelley s words and pictures tell the tale of a family who abandon their farm for life in the city then return to their country home less than a year later

Moving-With & Moving-Through Homelands, Languages & Memory ,2017-01-01 This book is a work of walkography its central source is the use of walking as a mode of inquiry which is shared through the ography of an account or portrayal that is written visual performed The walk of this walkography is an embodied movement through space as well as a performance drawing of experience and encounter This method of inquiry resonates with the fundamental premise of this work that of migration and diaspora In 2015 an unprecedented number of migrants and refugees reached Europe The resultant crisis was the biggest in history with most migrants entering Europe by sea Although under different circumstances and different times this event has synergies with post War migration described through the lens of Arts based research in Displacement Identity and Belonging An Arts based Auto Biographical Portrayal of Ethnicity however it is also a development and a complete work in and of itself both embedded in and transcendent of the first book The books can operate both in tandem and individually as stand alone works The layering of stories photography and poetry build upon each other in an engaging and accessible reading that appeals to a multitude of audiences and purposes This work can be used as a core reading in a range of courses in education teacher education ethnicity studies cultural studies sociology psychology history and communication or read simply for pleasure The book makes significant contributions to the literature on qualitative research arts based research and walking research Stunning simply stunning Alexandra Lasczik Cutcher has created a breathtaking work of scholarship that is evocative and provocative poetic and artistic and perhaps most of all captivating and challenging She calls us into her walkography and we are spellbound walking with her through her homelands memories and languages The interruptions of poems and images give pause as we take a breath to linger in our own stories before we venture forward again to breathe in again the images and histories past and present The entire book is an event an encounter a walking with and walking through as we come to understand what it means to come home to a place we've never lived before Stunning simply stunning Rita L Irwin Professor Art Education Distinguished University Scholar The University of British Columbia Dr Alexandra Lasczik Cutcher is a multi award winning academic at Southern Cross University Australia Her research focuses on what the Arts can be and do educationally expressively as research method language catharsis reflective instrument and documented form These understandings inform Alexandra's teaching and her spirited advocacy for Arts education
