The Mozambican Woman in the Revolution, 1977

The Mozambican Woman in the Revolution Central Committee, 1972

Women and Revolution in Africa, Asia, and the New World Mary Ann Tétreault, 1994 The contributors use a variety of theoretical approaches to analyze how women as a class have experienced specific twentieth century revolutions They identify the issues that prompted women to participate in the struggles the roles they played the contributions they made and their hopes for better lives for themselves as women in the post revolutionary society

Women's Lived Landscapes of War and Liberation in Mozambique Jonna Katto, 2019-11-11 This book tells the history of the changing gendered landscapes of northern Mozambique from the perspective of women who fought in the armed struggle for national independence diverting from the often told narrative of women in nationalist wars that emphasizes a linear plot of liberation Taking a novel approach in focusing on the body senses and landscape Jonna Katto through a study of the women ex combatants lived landscapes shows how their life trajectories unfold as nonlinear spatial histories This brings into focus the women s shifting and multilayered negotiations for personal space and belonging This book explores the life memories of the now aging female ex combatants in the province of Niassa in northern Mozambique looking at how the female ex combatants experiences of living in these northern landscapes have shaped their sense of socio spatial belonging and attachment It builds on the premise that individual embodied memory cannot be separated from social memory personal lives are culturally shaped Thus the book does not only tell the history of a small and rather unique group of women but also speaks about wider cultural histories of body landscape relations in northern Mozambique and especially changes in those relations Enriching our understanding of the gendered history of the liberation struggle in Mozambique and informing broader discussions on gender and nationalism this book will be of interest to students and scholars of African history especially the colonial and postcolonial history of Lusophone Africa as well as gender women s history and peace and conflict studies

The Mozambican Women in the Revolution LSM (Liberation Support Movement) Information Center, 1974

Cinemas of the Mozambican Revolution Ros Gray, 2020 As one of the first cultural acts after independence in 1975 Frelimo s new socialist government of Mozambique set up a National Institute of Cinema the INC In a country with little experience of cinema the INC was tasked to deliver to the people an image of the people A unique culture of revolutionary cinema emerged building on films made during the armed struggle

Women's Activism and Feminist Agency in Mozambique and Nicaragua Jennifer Leigh Disney, 2008 In Women s Activism and Feminist Agency in Mozambique and Nicaragua Jennifer Leigh Disney investigates the contours of women s emancipation outside the framework of liberal democracy and a market economy She interviews 146 women and men in the two countries to explore the comparative contribution of women s participation in subsistence and informal economies political parties and civil society organizations She also discusses military struggles against colonialism and imperialism in fostering feminist agency to provide a fascinating look at how each movement evolved and how it changed in a post revolutionary climate      Revolutionary Guerrilla Warfare Sam C. Sarkesian, 2017-09-04 Revolution is a word that causes fear in some exhilaration in others and confusion in most Originally used to describe a restoration it eventually came to mean a sweeping sudden attack on an existing order Human history has borne witness to a variety of national and social revolutions population revolution revolution of ideas technological revolution and revolution in education Simultaneously there has been a proliferation of literature on revolution armed struggle and violence aimed at unseating policies and leadership of governments and societies Revolutionary struggles are more than simply armed internal conflict they involve the essence of the political system The desire to make such phenomena understandable often leads to oversimplification Attempts to encompass their multi dimensional nature on the other hand can become immersed in complexities ambiguities and misinterpretations The perspective of this classic volume available in paperback for the first time is that revolution is here to stay Guerrilla warfare according to Sarkesian is a particularly useful strategy for the weak the frustrated the alienated and seekers of power against existing regimes The collected works in this volume examine the social roots of revolution development of strategy and tactics practice in city and countryside dilemmas of attackers and defenders The actors and thinkers collected and analyzed here range from leading political analysts anthropologists sociologists historians and officials as well as practitioners of guerrilla warfare This core text with primary sources in the area of war revolution and insurgence develops an understanding of revolution traces the growth of guerilla doctrine and studies the specifics of revolutionary and counterrevolutionary guerilla warfare      Third World, Second Sex (Volume 1) Miranda Davies, 1983 Third World Second Sex brings together women s organizations from over 20 Third World countries giving voice to their own experiences and perspectives This important book reflects as a result the accelerating pace of women s struggles in countries as diverse as India and El Salvador Oman and Mauritius Chile and Zimbabwe The issues these women face include their role in national liberation movements and armed struggles the need or otherwise for an autonomous women s movement in Third World Countries and the changing position of women after a revolutionary transition They also give accounts of specific feminist campaigns against malviolence against company exploitation and in the area of women and health This book reveals how Third World women are confronting traditional male dominated structures with courage and initiative The experiences of this new generation of women s movements can contribute to an understanding among other Third World women of their problems and how to analyse and solve them It also adds a rich new dimension to women s perspectives elsewhere in the world A useful listing of women s organizations worldwide is also included      Nationalism and Territoriality in Barue and Mozambique André Van Dokkum, 2020-05-06 Nationalism as an ideology coupling self conscious peoples to fixed territories is often seen as emerging from European historical developments also in postcolonial countries outside Europe Andr van Dokkum s Nationalism and Territoriality in Barue and Mozambique shows that this view is not universally true The precolonial Kingdom of Barue in what is now Mozambique showed characteristics generally associated with nationalism giving the country great resilience against colonial encroachment Postcolonial Mozambique on the other hand has so far not succeeded in creating national coherence The former anti colonial organization and now party in power Frelimo has always stressed national unity but only under its own guidance paradoxically producing disunity Historical Dictionary of Mozambique Colin Darch,2018-12-15 The new edition of Historical Dictionary of Mozambique covers the Bantu expansion the arrival of the Portuguese navigators and their str competition with local African power centers and coastal Arab Swahili trading towns the trade cycles of gold ivory and slaves the establishment of the semi Africanized prazos along the Zambezi Valley pacification campaigns and the period of Portuguese weakness in the late 19th and early 20th centuries when vast tracts of land were rented to concessionary companies In the late colonial period the Salazar dictatorship tried to reassert Portuguese power but after ten years of armed struggle for national liberation Mozambique gained its independence in 1975 The book contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Mozambique Gender and Social Movements Bahati M. Kuumba,2001-09-05 Do men and women experience participation in social movements differently Are gender roles reproduced or undermined during a struggle for liberation In this brief text examining gender roles in social movements M Bahati Kuumba shows how liberation struggles are viewed through women s eyes and how gender affects women s mobilization strategies and outcomes in social movement organizations Using two well known examples the American civil rights movement and the South African national liberation movement Kuumba documents the circumscribed roles of women the unheralded role of movement leaders such as Ella Baker and Frances Baard and how gender affected movement activities and results Gender and Social Movements is the ideal text to introduce a sophisticated view of race and gender into social movement courses Mozambique Samora Machel,1981 Violence and Gender in Africa's Iberian Colonies Andreas Stucki,2019-05-18 This book examines how and why Portugal and Spain increasingly engaged with women in their African colonies in the crucial period from the 1950s to the 1970s It explores the rhetoric of benevolent Iberian colonialism gendered Westernization and development for African women as well as actual imperial practices from forced resettlement to sexual exploitation to promoting domestic skills Focusing on Angola Mozambique Western Sahara and Equatorial Guinea the author mines newly available and neglected documents including sources from Portuguese and Spanish women s organizations overseas They offer insights into how African women perceived and responded to their assigned roles within an elite that was meant to preserve the empires and stabilize Afro Iberian ties The book also retraces parallels and differences between imperial strategies regarding women and the notions of African anticolonial movements about what women should contribute to the struggle for independence and the creation of new nation states Children and Youth on the Front Line Jo

Boyden, Joanna de Berry, 2005 This series reflects the multidisciplinary nature of the field and includes within its scope international law anthropology medicine geopolitics social psychology and economics

Women, Gender Equality, and Post-Conflict Transformation Joyce P. Kaufman, Kristen P. Williams, 2016-10-04 The end of formal hostilities in any given conflict provides an opportunity to transform society in order to secure a stable peace This book builds on the existing feminist international relations literature as well as lessons of past cases that reinforce the importance of including women in the post conflict transition process and are important to our general understanding of gender relations in the conflict and post conflict periods Post conflict transformation processes including disarmament demobilization and reintegration DDR programs transitional justice mechanisms reconciliation measures and legal and political reforms which emerge after the formal hostilities end demonstrate that war and peace impact and are impacted by women and men differently By drawing on a strong theoretical framework and a number of cases this volume provides important insight into questions pertaining to the end of conflict and the challenges inherent in the post conflict transition period that are relevant to students and practitioners alike

Challenge To Imperialism Carol B. Thompson, 2019-08-27 Challenge to Imperialism is the first comprehensive analysis of the Zimbabwean struggle for independence in its international context Based on extensive research in the southern African region and on interviews with the ZANU and ZAPU leaders in exile during the war this study is an analysis of the crucial support given to the Zimbabwean nationalists by the five Frontline States Angola Botswana Mozambique Tanzania and Zambia The book begins with a summary of the variable relations among the Frontline States and between those states and the Zimbabwean nationalists More than once Frontline governments put Zimbabwean nationalists in their own jails as tensions arose over leadership conduct of the war and terms for peace Yet the Frontline States maintained their support in spite of the extremely high cost to their own economic development How could these weak and economically dependent states confront the dominant interests in the region Was Lancaster House simply a capitulation to imperialist interests a constitution forced on the nationalists by the beleaguered Frontline States This theoretical analysis addresses the complexity of these questions and suggests lessons for the current struggles in Namibia and in South Africa Further Dr Thompson discusses the formation of the Southern African Development Coordination Conference SADC as an attempt to transform the Zimbabwean political victory into regional economic cooperation This study of the political and economic background of Zimbabwean independence is important not only to those concerned about Zimbabwe and southern Africa but also to those interested in the nature of liberation struggles and in the role of the state in developing countries

Women and Politics around the World Joyce Gelb, Marian Lief Palley, 2009-03-30 A unique two volume examination of the progress women have made in achieving political equality Women and Politics around the World addresses both transnational and gender related issues as well as specific conditions in more than 20 countries Women and Politics around the World A Comparative History and Survey is an exploration of the role of women in political systems worldwide as well as an examination of how government actions in various countries have an impact on the lives of the female population Women and Politics around the World divides its coverage into two volumes The first looks at such crucial issues facing women today as health policy civil rights and education comparing conditions around the world The second volume profiles 22 different countries representing a broad range of governments economies and cultures Each profile looks at the history and current state of women's political and economic participation in a particular country and includes an in depth look at a representative policy The result is a resource unlike any other one that gives students researchers and other interested readers a fresh new way of investigating a truly global issue Mozambique University of Edinburgh. Centre of African Studies,1979

Contesting Archives Nupur Chaudhuri,Sherry J. Katz,Mary Elizabeth Perry,2010 Contesting Archives makes vivid and concrete the way historians must proceed when faced with partial or contradictory sources Historians and anyone interested in how historians work will appreciate the authors strategies for and cautions about unearthing information about women from documents inside and outside the archive Margaret Strobel coeditor of Expanding the Borders of Women's History
