MR. GREX OF MONTE CARLO E. PHILLIPS. OPPENHEIM, 2018

Mr. Grex of Monte Carlo Edward Phillips Oppenheim, 2020-11-29 The eyes of the man who had looked in upon a scene inordinately fantastically brilliant underwent after those first few moments of comparative indifference a curious transformation He was contemplating one of the sights of the world Crowded around the two roulette tables promenading or lounging on the heavily cushioned divans against the wall he took note of a conglomeration of people representing perhaps every grade of society every nationality of importance yet with a curious common likeness by reason of their tribute paid to fashion He glanced unmoved at a beautiful Englishwoman who was a duchess but looked otherwise at an equally beautiful Frenchwoman who looked like a duchess but was otherwise On every side of him were women gowned by the great artists of the day women like flowers all perfume and softness and colour His eyes passed them over almost carelessly A little tired with many weeks travel in countries where the luxuries of life were few his senses were dulled to the magnificence of the scene his pulses as yet had not responded to its charm and wonder And then the change came He saw a woman standing almost exactly opposite to him at the nearest roulette table and he gave a noticeable start For a moment his pale expressionless face was transformed his secret was at any one's mercy That however was the affair of an instant only He was used to shocks and he survived this one He moved a little on one side from his prominent place in the centre of the wide flung doorway He stood by one of the divans and watched

Mr. Grex of Monte Carlo (Classic Reprint) E. Phillips Oppenheim, 2017-09-17 Excerpt from Mr Grex of Monte Carlo Violet here The man murmured under his breath Violet There was tragedy in the whisper a gleam of something like tragedy too in the look which passed between the man and the woman a few moments later With her hands full of plaques which she had just won she raised her eyes at last from the board The smile upon her lips was the delighted smile of a girl And then as she was in the act of sweeping her winnings into her gold bag she saw the man opposite The smile seemed to die from her lips it appeared indeed to pass with all else of expression from her face The plaques dropped one by one through her fingers into the satchel Her eyes remained fixed upon him as though she were looking upon a ghost The seconds seemed drawn out into a grim hiatus of time The croupier's voice the muttered imprecation of a loser by her side the necessity of making some slight movement in order to allow the passage of an arm from some one in search of change some such tri e at last brought her back from the shadows Her expression became at once more normal She did not remove her eyes but she very slightly inclined her head towards the man He in return bowed very gravely and without a smile The table in front of her was cleared now People were beginning to consider their next coup The voice of the croupier with his parrot like cry travelled down the board About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Mr. Grex of Monte Carlo Edward Phillips Oppenheim, 2018-03-02 He fenced with her question Perhaps he resented the slightly ironical note in her tone Perhaps there were other reasons Why should I not come to Monte Carlo he enquired Parliament is not particularly amusing when one is in opposition and I do not hunt The whole world amuses itself here But not you she replied quickly I know you better than that my dear Henry There is nothing here or in this atmosphere which could possibly attract you for long There is no work for you to do work the very breath of your body work the one thing you live for and were made for work you man of sawdust and red tape We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience

Mr. Grex of Monte Carlo. 5.ed E. Phillips Oppenheim, 1918

Mr. Grex of Monte Carlo E. Phillips Oppenheim, 2019-12-16 In Mr Grex of Monte Carlo E Phillips Oppenheim masterfully weaves a thrilling narrative set against the opulent backdrop of Monte Carlo The novel rich in atmospheric detail and characterized by its sharp dialogue epitomizes the genre of early 20th century mystery and suspense Through a series of intricate plots and an exploration of the moral ambiguities of wealth and desire Oppenheim delves into themes of betrayal romance and the elusive nature of identity inviting readers into a world where the stakes are steep and betrayal lurks at every corner E Phillips Oppenheim often regarded as the Prince of Storytellers was a prolific author whose extensive oeuvre reflects his fascination with the glamorous and sometimes perilous world of high society Born in 1866 Oppenheim's literary career flourished during a time when the allure of European resorts captivated the public imagination His firsthand experiences with the complexities of social status and human interactions in elite circles provided a rich foundation for the world building evident in Mr Grex of Monte Carlo This novel is a compelling read for anyone interested in the intricate interplay of human desires and moral dilemmas Oppenheim's keen insights into character psychology and society's undercurrents make it a pulse quickening adventure that resonates with contemporary themes of ambition and deceit Highly recommended for fans of classic crime fiction and those intrigued by the elegance of historical settings
