Mr Hartys Grand Tour:

Mr Harty's Grand Tour Russell Harty, 1988 Mr Harty's Grand Tour Russell Harty, 1988 Lord Gnome's Literary Companion Francis Wheen, 1994 His review has got to be in by mid day tomorrow at about 9 pm his mind will grow relatively clear and until the small hours he will sit skipping expertly through one book after another and laying each one down with the comment God what tripe Then suddenly he will snap into it All the stale old phrases a book that no one should miss something memorable on every page jump into their places like iron filings obeying the magnet Thus did George Orwell writing forty years ago in Confessions of a Book Reviewer describe the labours of a typical literary hack Precious little has changed over the intervening decades the servility of the satirical magazine Private Eye Lord Gnome's Literary Companion assembles in thematic order the best of these columns to present an astringent rude and funny survey of publishers and the published For the Time Being Dirk Bogarde, 2012-01-15 Such a companionable writer you just don't want to let him go The Times First published in 1998 For the Time Being brings together Dirk Bogarde's published work outside of his novels and autobiographies In 1988 Dirk Bogarde returned from two idyllic decades in France to live in England due to his partner's serious illness Shortly afterwards the then literary editor of the Daily Telegraph admiring the lucid frankness of Bogarde's memoirs invited him to review some books for the newspaper This collection includes the famous article A Short Walk from Harrods which Bogarde wrote for the Independent on Sunday soon after returning to London In it he describes what it feels like to walk among familiar ghosts and to dine with those he considers the living dead A momentous review of three Holocaust books is accompanied by an article in which he describes the extraordinary postbag he received from its readers In another piece which had a profound impact he gives forceful vent to his support for euthanasia It stands as a testimony to a wonderfully varied life a wide range of interests and sympathies and a remarkable gift for writing Gay Identity, New Storytelling and The Media C. Pullen, 2015-12-11 This critical introduction to gay and lesbian identity within the media explores the concept of new storytelling The case studies look at film television and online media focussing on the narrative potential of individual storytellers who as producers writers and performers challenge identity concerns and offer new expressions of liberty Dirk Bogarde John Coldstream, 2011-09-08 Biographies only tend to be definitive until the next one comes along but there's no danger of Coldstream's erudite moving analysis ever being superseded INDEPENDENT ON SUNDAY As an actor Dirk Bogarde was a Rank contract artist and matinee idol who became a giant of the intellectual cinema working on films such as Death in Venice The Servant and Providence Fiercely protective of his privacy and that of his partner of 40 years he left England in the 1960s to live abroad where he carved a second career for himself as a bestselling author Although Bogarde destroyed many of his papers John Coldstream has had unique access to his personal archives and to friends and family who knew him well The result is a fascinating biography of a complex and intriguing personality Gay Identity, New Storytelling and The Media P. Demory, Christopher
