Hornung,1907 Mr. Justice Raffles Illustrated and Annotated E. W. Hornung,2019-12-04 About Author Ernest

William Hornung (7 June 1866 – 22 March 1921) was an English author and poet known for writing the A J Raffles series of stories about a gentleman thief in late 19th century London. Hornung was educated at Uppingham School; as a result of poor health he left the school in December 1883 to travel to Sydney where he stayed for two years. He drew on his Australian experiences as a background when he began writing initially short stories and later novels. In 1898 he wrote In the Chains of Crime which introduced Raffles and his sidekick Bunny Manders; the characters were based partly on his friends Oscar Wilde and his lover Lord Alfred Douglas and also on the characters of Sherlock Holmes and Dr Watson created by his brother-in-law Arthur Conan Doyle. The series of Raffles short stories were collected for sale in book form in 1899 and two further books of Raffles short stories followed as well as a poorly received novel. Aside from his Raffles stories, Hornung was a prodigious writer of fiction, publishing numerous books from 1890 with A Bride from the Bush to his 1914 novel The Crime Doctor. The First World War brought an end to Hornung's fictional output. His son Oscar was killed at the Second Battle of Ypres in July 1915. Hornung joined the YMCA initially in England then in France where he helped run a canteen and library. He published two collections of poetry during the war and then afterwards one further volume of verse and an account of his time spent in France, Notes of a Camp Follower on the Western Front. Hornung's fragile constitution was further weakened by the stress of his war work. To aid his recuperation he and his wife visited the south of France in 1921. He fell ill from influenza on the journey and died on 22 March 1921, aged 54. Although much of Hornung's work has fallen into obscurity, his Raffles stories continued to be popular and have formed numerous film and television adaptations. Hornung's stories dealt with a wider range of themes than crime; he examined scientific and medical developments, guilt, class and the unequal role played by women in society. Two threads that run through a sizeable proportion of his books are Australia and cricket; the latter was also a lifelong passion.

Product Description Mr Justice Raffles is a 1909 novel written by E W Hornung. It featured his popular character A J Raffles, a well-known cricketer and gentleman thief. It was the fourth and last in his four Raffles books, which had begun with The Amateur Cracksman in 1899. Unlike the three previous works, the book was a full-length novel and featured darker elements than the earlier collections of short stories. In it, a jaded Raffles is growing increasingly cynical about British high society. He encounters Dan Levy, an unscrupulous moneylender who manages to entrap a number of young men, mostly sons of the wealthy, by giving them loans and then charging huge amounts of interest. Raffles takes it upon himself to teach Levy a lesson. At the end of Hornung's second Raffles short story collection, The Black Mask, Raffles and his companion Bunny Manders volunteer for service in the Second Boer War in 1899, where he was killed at the hands of the Boers. Hornung had intended this as a patriotic finale to his hero's story. However, there was great popular demand for the return of the character and a number of generous publishing offers, and Hornung agreed to write another book. In this, he has been compared to Arthur Conan Doyle's decision to resurrect Sherlock Holmes after disposing of the character in The Final Problem; however, unlike Doyle's revelation that Holmes had actually survived the plunge over Reichenbach Falls, Hornung set
