Newafricanleaders Contributions of Africans in Birmingham from 1950 Frederick Ebot Ashu, 2012-09-21 NewAfricanLeaders interprets the heritage and history of the African community in Birmingham United Kingdom exploring both individual and collective achievements and contributions to the recent history of the city Ebot Ashu researches the stories of Africans in Birmingham and provides in this volume a unique record of why they or their parents came to the United Kingdom their experiences when they arrived their subsequent experience of settlement and integration as well as their achievements and contributions within their adopted society It focuses on the entire African Diaspora in Birmingham and beyond The content of this anthology is strongly international in that while it may publish empirical research and scholarship undertaken in specific local contexts it considers issues and themes of interest that transcend any single geographic setting The anthology therefore offers an impressive collection of archival material and learning resources for this and future generations and also serves as a testament to the increasingly diverse heritage that UK society has drawn from many different ethnic and linguistic groups cultures and religions In this regard this volume will be of interest to students at school and university to their teachers and to academics as well as practitioners and policy makers in social science

Routledge Handbook of Contemporary African Women Anna Chitando, Eunice Kamaara, Ezra Chitando, 2024-12-31 The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary African Women highlights the achievements and progress being made by African women across a wide range of sectors in society Without glossing over the very real challenges which women in Africa continue to face this landmark handbook demonstrates how women across the continent are deploying their agency to achieve notable progress in areas as diverse as Pandemics Climate Change Science Technology Entrepreneurship Higher Education Youth Older People Challenging prevailing narratives and stereotypes about African women this handbook provides a more positive perspective into African women s progressive actions for sustainable development It will be an essential read for readers across the fields of gender environment political science history development studies religious studies and African Studies

African Women in Towns Kenneth Little, 1974-02-28 This 1973 book analyses the changing position of women in an urban context in sub Saharan Africa In spite of the fact that women at the time of publication were often important leaders of opinion and in these countries the proportion of women in professional work was at least as large as in Britain few researchers and even fewer television and newspaper reporters paid them sufficient attention As the new role of women in Africa was peculiarly a phenomenon of the city Professor Little s book uses the concept of urbanization in order to analyse the radical changes taking place He shows how certain women s movements were growing out of the African woman's desire for a new relationship with the man. This leads him to consider the part played by women in the political arena and women's position not only in monogamous marriage but also in extra-marital and sexual relationships.

The Modern Girl Around the World Alys Eve The Modern Girl around the World Research Group, Alys Eve Weinbaum, Lynn M. Thomas, Priti Ramamurthy, Uta G. Poiger, Madeleine Yue Dong, Tani Barlow, 2008-12-24 A collection that examines the global phenomenon of the Modern Girl that emerged in the 1920s and 30s.

African Writers C. Brian Cox, 1997 Annotation The Scribner Writers Series has set the standard for literary reference for more than 25 years. In addition to addressing the lives and careers of important writers, the articles discuss the themes and styles of major works and place them in pertinent historical, social, and political contexts for today's readers. Novelists, playwrights, essayists, poets, short story writers, and more recently genre writers in science fiction and mystery are all expertly discussed in the more than 16 sets comprising this series. Two volumes of original essays present 65 African writers from 17 countries writing in English, French, Portuguese, Arabic, and indigenous languages. Subjects span the late 19th century to the present. Included are Najib Mahfuz, Andre Brink, Wole Soyinka, Nadine Gordimer, Alan Paton, and many more.

Equal Rights, 1928

The Politics of Harmony Laurel L. Rose, 1992-01-31 Laurel Rose analyzes how traditional ruling elites in Swaziland, as in other parts of Africa, use harmony ideologies to downplay and resolve land disputes. Such disputes could be used by foreign development agents or indigenous new elites as justification for implementing land tenure changes, including a reduction of traditional elites' power based upon land control. Swazi commoners accept the cultural value and legitimacy of most harmony ideologies but they adopt various strategies when disputing about particular land rights in order to produce more favorable outcomes. This book is unusual in its focus on political rather than economic dimensions of land tenure and disputes. It searches for links between individual concerns with land use rights and national concerns with land policy. It also examines gender and leadership issues associated with land, showing how women and new elites threaten land interests of men and traditional leaders.

The Best Novels of the Nineties Linda Parent Leshner, 2015-11-17 This reader's guide provides uniquely organized and up-to-date information on the most important and enjoyable contemporary English language novels.
