Mud Island ,2002 The Bombing of Dublin's North Strand by German Luftwaffe Kevin C. Kearns,2009-10-16 On the Whit bank holiday weekend of 1941 the neutral Irish capital was suddenly and inexplicably bombed by the German Luftwaffe On a gloriously starry night four bombs fell the last and most devastating at precisely 2 05 a m on 31 May There was a thunderous explosion and the earth quaked Tremors were felt as far away as Enniskerry and Mullingar Panic and pandemonium reigned in a city seized with fear Destruction was astonishing homes and shops in the North Strand were largely demolished 2 250 buildings in the city suffered some bomb damage over forty people were killed about 100 seriously injured many more wounded Hospitals and morgues filled within hours Almost 2 000 people were rendered homeless refugees It would later be determined that in terms of destructive performance a monstrous perfect bomb had done the deed For two thirds of a century no book was written on what the Evening Herald proclaimed a Night of Horror Later called a seismic event in Dublin s history Finally near the end of the century both the Irish Military Archive and Dublin City Archive declassified their documents on the bombing some stamped Secret for sixty years At last the theories and myths long surrounding the mysterious incident would be examined in the light of real evidence But the heart of a book on so human a tragedy is the oral historical testimony of survivors rescuers and observers who provide graphic eyewitness accounts This is a narrative social history of immense human drama Mud Island Elegy Gerry McDonnell,2001 Mud Island Anthology Gerry McDonnell,2009 Journal of the Royal Historical and Archaeological Association of Ireland Royal Society of Antiquaries of Ireland,2004 Index of archaeological papers published in 1891 under the direction of the Congress of Archaeological Societies in union with the Society of Antiquaries A Guide to Irish Military Heritage Brian Hanley,2004 This guide is designed to help those conducting research in all aspects of Irish military history Commissioned by the Military Heritage of Ireland Trust which was established in 2000 to foster knowledge of this heritage it lists the institutions archives public bodies and organizations that specifically hold relevant information on military heritage relating from the earliest times to the present day Also included is a listing of fortifications battle sites and places in Ireland relevant to military events in its broadest sense Where possible email website and telephone details are also included as are museum and archival depositories opening times The guide is completed with an extensive bibliography listing books and articles that have been published on military history particularly those in the last twenty years Irish Economic and Social History ,2002

Journal of the Royal Society of Antiquaries of Ireland Royal Society of Antiquaries of Ireland,2003 Irish Builder and Engineer ,1870 Joyce's Non-Fiction Writings Katherine Ebury,James Alexander Fraser,2018-05-02 This book presents a fundamental shift in the way we approach discuss and evaluate Joyce s non fictional writings Rather than simply proposing or applying new methodologies it historicises and reconceives the critical assumptions that have shaped scholarly approaches to these works for over half a century showing that non fiction as a categorical distinction no matter how sensible

it appears crumbles under closer inspection Bringing into conversation a group of key Joyce scholars this volume acts not only as a vital reimagining of our critical relationship to Joyce's non-fiction but as a contribution to similar debates being carried out across the broad range of modernist studies
