Panzerkampf Im Bild:

Panzerkampf im Bild Will Fey, 1996 From the Realm of a Dying Sun Douglas E. Nash, 2020-10-30 A veritable tour de force of Eastern Front armored combat replete with slashing counterattacks defending to the last man and overcoming odds Mark J Reardon author of Victory at Mortain On Christmas Eve 1944 the men of the IV SS Panzerkorps and its two divisions the 3rd SS Panzer Division Totenkopf and the 5th SS Panzer Division Wiking were eagerly anticipating what the holiday would bring including presents from home and perhaps sharing a bottle of schnapps or wine with their comrades This was not to be for that very evening the corps commander SS Obergruppenführer Herbert Otto Gille received a telephone call notifying him that the 35 000 men of his corps would begin boarding express trains the following day that would take them from the relative quiet of the Vistula Front to the front lines in Hungary hundreds of kilometers away Their mission Relieve Budapest Thus would begin the final round in the saga of the IV SS Panzerkorps In Hungary it would play a key role in the three attempts to raise the siege of that fateful city Threatened as much by their high command as by the forces of the Soviet Union Gille and his troops overcame seemingly insurmountable obstacles in their attempts to rescue the city's garrison only to have their final attack called off at the last minute At that moment they were only a few kilometers away from the objective towards which they had striven for nearly a month After the relief attempt's failure sealed the fate of hundreds of thousands of Hungarians and Germans the only course of action remaining was to dig in and protect the Hungarian oilfields as long as possible
