New Theoretical Dialogues on Migration in China Hong Zhu, Junxi Qian, 2023-02-21 This edited book emerges from the observation that the current literatures on migration in China are constrained by a series of shortfalls including a relative topical homogeneity centred on domestic labour migration relatively narrowly conceived and institutionalist conceptions of migration and migrants without adequate attention paid to the identities agencies and everyday experiences of migrants and finally a lack of engagement with theoretical models and paradigms in the broad discipline of migration studies Assembling eight fine grained research works engaging with a broad variety of migratory trajectories and experiences this book addresses these shortfalls by 1 investigating diverse forms of domestic and transnational migration in and to China 2 problematising rethinking and innovating well established analytical tools and categories to move beyond their epistemological fixity and highlight their socially and dynamically constructed nature and 3 underscoring the centrality of identity subjectivity and everyday experiences rather than mechanical causality between institutions and migration outcomes to theoretical understandings of migration in China It will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of Sociology Politics Human Geography Social Work and Urban Studies This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies Operation and maintenance, [Monday, January 27, 1964 United States.
