edition and to include topics which are important in the study of the Russian past and present The bibliographical headnotes have been enlarged with the result that there are now approximately twice as many entries as in the old edition New citations include not only works which have appeared since 1963 but also older books and articles which have come to the editor's attention From the Editor's Preface a judicious combination of seminal works and more recent commentaries that achieves the editor's purpose of stimulating curiosity and developing a point of view C Bickford O'Brien The Russian Review These three volumes cover quite well the main periods of Russian civilization The choice of the articles and other material is made by a competent and unbiased scholar Ivan A Lopatin Professor of Asian and Slavic Studies University of Southern California
