Russian Archaism Irina Shevelenko,2024-08-15 Russian Archaism considers the aesthetic quest of Russian modernism in relation to the nation building ideas that spread in the late imperial period Irina Shevelenko argues that the cultural milieu in Russia where the modernist movement began as an extension of Western trends at the end of the nineteenth century soon became captivated by nationalist indoctrination Members of artistic groups critics and theorists advanced new interpretations of the goals of aesthetic experimentation that would allow them to embed the nation building agenda within the aesthetic one Shevelenko's book focuses on the period from the formation of the World of Art group 1898 through the Great War and encompasses visual arts literature music and performance As Shevelenko shows it was the rejection of the Russian westernized tradition informed by the revival of populist sensibilities across the educated class that played a formative role in the development of Russian modernist agendas particularly after the 1905 revolution Russian Archaism reveals the modernist artistic enterprise as a crucial source of insight into Russia's political and cultural transformation in the early twentieth century and beyond

Nationalism in a Transnational Age Frank Jacob,Carsten Schapkow,2021-11-22 Nationalism was declared to be dead too early A postnational age was announced and liberalism claimed to have been victorious by the end of the Cold War At the same time postnational order was proclaimed in which transnational alliances like the European Union were supposed to become more important in international relations But we witnessed the rise of a strong nationalism during the early 21st century instead and right wing parties are able to gain more and more votes in elections that are often characterized by nationalist agendas This volume shows how nationalist dreams and fears alike determine politics in an age that was supposed to witness a rather peaceful coexistence by those who consider transnational ideas more valuable than national demands It will deal with different case studies to show why and how nationalism made its way back to the common consciousness and which elements stimulated the re-establishment of the aggressive nation state The volume will therefore look at the continuities of empire actual and imagined the role of foreign and otherness for nationalist narratives and try to explain how globalization stimulated the rise of 21st century nationalisms as well

century positioning amidst neighbouring enemies towards being a competitor in a global consumer oriented trade and entertainment economy By presenting national identities in banal form as feelgood factors world fairs helped the nation to maintain its grassroots appeal across the century of totalitarianism and internationalism Contributors are Joep Leerssen Eric Storm Florian Gro Anthony Swift Cosmin Minea Claire Hendren Taka Oshikiri Robert W Rydell Sven Schuster Miriam Oesterreich Bartosz Dziwanowski Stefa czyk Christina Romlid Jonathan Voges and Anastasia Remes Cultures of Forgery Judith Ryan, Alfred Thomas, 2013-05-13 In Cultures of Forgery leading literary studies and cultural studies scholars examine the double meaning of the word forge to create or to form on the one hand and to make falsely on the other The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress, American Library Association. When Art Makes News Katia Dianina, 2012-11-15 From the time the word kultura entered the Russian language in the early nineteenth century Russian arts and letters have thrived on controversy At any given time several versions of culture have coexisted in the Russian public sphere The question of what makes something or someone distinctly Russian was at the core of cultural debates in nineteenth century Russia and continues to preoccupy Russian society to the present day When Art Makes News examines the development of a public discourse on national self representation in nineteenth century Russia as it was styled by the visual arts and popular journalism Katia Dianina tells the story of the missing link between high art and public culture revealing that art became the talk of the nation in the second half of the nineteenth century in the pages of mass circulation press At the heart of Dianina's study is a paradox how did culture become the national idea in a country where few were educated enough to appreciate it Dianina questions the traditional assumptions that culture in tsarist Russia was built primarily from the top down and classical literature alone was responsible for imagining the national community When Art Makes News will appeal to all those interested in Russian culture as well as scholars and students in museum and exhibition studies
