Thinking Orthodox in Modern Russia Patrick Lally Michelson, Judith Deutsch Kornblatt, 2014-07-31 This collection of essays on Russian religious thought focuses on the extent to which Russian culture and ideology has been informed by the nation s roots in Orthodox Christianity Deification in Russian Religious Thought Ruth Coates, 2019 A study of the reception of the Eastern Christian Orthodox doctrine of deification by Russian religious thinkers of the immediate pre revolutionary period Ultimate Questions ,1965 The Oxford Handbook of Russian Religious Thought Caryl Emerson,George Pattison,Randall A. Poole,2020-09-04 The Oxford Handbook of Russian Religious Thought is an authoritative new reference and interpretive volume detailing the origins development and influence of one of the richest aspects of Russian cultural and intellectual life its religious ideas After setting the historical background and context the Handbook follows the leading figures and movements in modern Russian religious thought through a period of immense historical upheavals including seventy years of officially atheist communist rule and the growth of an exiled diaspora with e g its journal The Way Therefore the shape of Russian religious thought cannot be separated from long running debates with nihilism and atheism Important thinkers such as Losev and Bakhtin had to guard their words in an environment of religious persecution whilst some views were shaped by prison experiences Before the Soviet period Russian national identity was closely linked with religion linkages which again are being forged in the new Russia Relevant in this connection are complex relationships with Judaism In addition to religious thinkers such as Philaret Chaadaev Khomiakov Kireevsky Soloviev Florensky Bulgakov Berdyaev Shestov Frank Karsavin and Alexander Men the Handbook also looks at the role of religion in aesthetics music poetry art film and the novelists Dostoevsky and Tolstoy Ideas institutions and movements discussed include the Church academies Slavophilism and Westernism theosis the name glorifying imiaslavie controversy the God seekers and God builders Russian religious idealism and liberalism and the Neopatristic school Occultism is considered as is the role of tradition and the influence of Russian religious thought in the West Faith and Science in Russian Religious Thought Teresa Obolevitch, The book brings forth a comprehensive analysis of the relationship between science and faith in Russian religious thought Deification in Russian Religious Thought Ruth Coates,2019-09-12 Deification in Russian Religious Thought considers the reception of the Eastern Christian Orthodox doctrine of deification by Russian religious thinkers of the immediate pre revolutionary period Deification is the metaphor that the Greek patristic tradition came to privilege in its articulation of the Christian concept of salvation to be saved is to be deified that is to share in the divine attribute of immortality In the Christian narrative of the Orthodox Church God became human so that humans might become gods Ruth Coates shows that between the revolutions of 1905 and 1917 Russian religious thinkers turned to deification in their search for a commensurate response to the apocalyptic dimension of the universally anticipated destruction of the Russian autocracy and the social and religious order that supported it Focusing on major works by four prominent thinkers of the Russian Religious Renaissance Dmitry Merezhkovsky Nikolai Berdiaev Sergei Bulgakov and Pavel Florensky Coates demonstrates the salience of the deification theme and explores the variety of forms of its expression She argues that the reception of deification in this period is shaped by the discourse of early Russian cultural modernism and informed not only by theology but also by nineteenth century currents in Russian religious culture and German philosophy particularly as these are received by the novelist Fedor Dostoevsky and the philosopher Vladimir Soloviev. In the works that are analysed, deification is taken out of its original theological context and applied respectively to politics, creativity, economics, and asceticism. At the same time, all the thinkers represented in the book view deification as a project, a practice that should deliver the total transformation and immortalisation of human beings, society, culture, and the material universe, and this is what connects them to deification's theological source.

Faith and Science in Russian Religious Thought Teresa Obolovitch, 2019

Faith and Science in Russian Religious Thought provides a comprehensive analysis of the relationship between science and faith in Russian religious thought. Teresa Obolovitch offers a synthetic approach on the development of the problem throughout the whole history of Russian thought, starting from the medieval period and arriving in contemporary times. She considers the relationship between science and religion in the eighteenth century, the so-called academic philosophy of the 19th and 20th century, the thought of Peter Chaadaev, the Slavophiles, and in the most influential literature figures such as Fedor Dostoevsky and Lev Tolstoy. The volume also analyses two channels of the formation of philosophy in the context of the relationship between theology and science in Russia. The first is connected with the attempt to rationalize the truths of faith and is exemplified by Vladimir Soloviev and Nikolai Lossky; the second, with the apophatic tradition, is presented by Pavel Florensky and Semen Frank. The book then describes the relation to scientific knowledge in the thought of Lev Shestov, Nikolai Berdyaev, Sergius Bulgakov, and Alexei Losev, as well as the original project of Russian Cosmism on the examples of Nikolai Fedorov, Konstantin Tsiolkovsky, and Vladimir Vernadsky. Obolovitch presents the current state of the discussion on this topic by paying attention to the Neopatristic synthesis of Fr. Georges Florovsky and his followers, and offers a brief comparative analysis of the relationship between science and religion from the Western and Russian perspectives.

Nineteenth Century Religious Thought in the West Ninian Smart, 1988. Now available in paperback, the successful three volumes of Nineteenth Century Religious Thought in the West provide a fresh appraisal of the most important thinkers of that time. Some essays centre on major figures of the period, others cover topics, trends, and schools of thought between the French Revolution and the First World War. The contributors are among the leading scholars in their field and analyse not only what was said but also why it was said, and explore what is of lasting value in it. Contributions are sufficiently clear to be of use to students in religious studies and cognate disciplines, but have enough depth and detail to appeal to scholars.

Hans Urs von Balthasar and the Critical Appropriation of Russian Religious Thought Jennifer Newsome Martin offers the first systematic treatment and evaluation of the Swiss Catholic theologian's complex relation to modern speculative Russian religious philosophy. Her constructive analysis proceeds through Balthasar's critical reception of Vladimir Soloviev, Nikolai Berdyaev, and Sergei Bulgakov, with respect to theological aesthetics, myth, eschatology, and Trinitarian discourse, and examines how Balthasar adjudicates both the possibilities and the limits of theological appropriation, especially considering the degree to which these Russian thinkers have been influenced by German Idealism and Romanticism Martin argues that Balthasar's creative reception and modulation of the thought of these Russian philosophers is indicative of a broad speculative tendency in his work that deserves further attention In this respect Martin consciously challenges the prevailing view of Balthasar as a fundamentally conservative or nostalgic thinker In her discussion of the relation between tradition and theological speculation Martin also draws upon the understudied relation between Balthasar and F W J Schelling especially as Schelling's form of Idealism was passed down through the Russian thinkers In doing so she persuasively recasts Balthasar as an ecumenical creatively anti nostalgic theologian hospitable to the richness of contributions from extra magisterial and non Catholic sources

Henry Corbin and Russian Religious Thought Hadi Fakhoury,2014 This study addresses the influence of Russian religious thought on the French philosopher and Islamicist Henry Corbin 1903 1978 In the 1930s Corbin came into contact with religious thinkers of the Russian emigration in Paris particularly Nikolai Berdyaev 1874 1948 who had an important role in his critical reception of contemporary German philosophy and theology In 1939 Corbin moved to Istanbul where parallel to his work on the first critical edition of the writings of the Iranian philosopher Shahab al Din al Suhrawardi 1155 1191 he deepened his knowledge of Byzantine theology and translated some of the writings of the Russian theologian Fr Sergius Bulgakov 1871 1944 Corbin's post war writings thus contain important references to Russian thinkers such as Berdyaev Bulgakov Aleksey Khomiakov 1804 1860 Fyodor Dostoevsky 1821 1881 Konstantin Leontiev 1831 1891 and Vasily Rozanov 1856 1919 These thinkers had a unique role in Corbin's ecumenical project He was indeed convinced that Russian Orthodoxy has an important role in mediating between East and West Christianity and Islam Until now there has been no attempt to study the Russian connection in Corbin's thought The present work explores this influence as reflected in the themes of East and West Sophiology Divine humanity eschatology angelology and Orthodox iconography In the process it sheds light on the sources of Corbin's philosophical positions interest in certain themes and choice of terminology

Religious and Anti-religious Thought in Russia George Louis Kline,1968

Holy Russia, Sacred Israel Dominic Rubin,2010 This is a truly exceptional book I have reread chapters time and again In these pages there are so many things of immediate interest mainly I think for Orthodox theologians and Church leaders The presentation and commentary on landmark figures like Soloviev Bulgakov Berdyaev and Florensky will be of great benefit in helping Orthodox Christians in the twenty first century understand in depth the past relationship between Christianity and Judaism in the Orthodox context during a period that was of crucial importance for both faiths Very few people are aware of the details of this relationship and this book is invaluable in assessing how today's Orthodox Christians can learn from this past Fr Vasile Mihoc Professor of New Testament Studies Lucian Blaga University of Sibiu Romania

Quaker Religious Thought ,1992 Eastern Christian Approaches to Philosophy James Siemens,Joshua Matthan Brown,2022-10-05 With few exceptions the field of Eastern Christian studies has primarily been concerned with historical critical analysis hermeneutics and sociology For the most part it has not attempted to bring Eastern Christian philosophy into serious engagement with contemporary thought This volume seeks to redress the matter by bringing the Eastern Christian tradition into a meaningful dialogue with contemporary philosophy It boasts a diverse group of scholars specialists in ancient philosophy analytic philosophy and continental philosophy who engage with a wide range of pressing issues Among other things it addresses such topics as contemporary atheism the metaphysics of action religious epistemology the philosophy of language bioethics the philosophy of race and human rights In so doing it aims to introduce contemporary readers to unique perspectives and novel arguments often overlooked by mainstream anglophone philosophy
