Russian Business Relationships in the Wake of Reform Noreena T. Hertz, 1997      Russian Business Relationships in the Wake of Reform Noreena Hertz, 1997      Changing Workplace Relations in the Chinese Economy M.

Warner, 2000-05-31 Changing Workplace Relations in the Chinese Economy attempts to deal with how China's economic reforms have undermined the iron rice bowl system which since the 1950s has provided both lifetime employment and cradle to the grave welfare for many workers particularly those in state owned enterprises It starts by examining the background of these reforms and how they have changed workplace relations in the Chinese economy it will also look at key themes relating to the role of trade unions and the management of human resources in both state owned and joint venture firms finally a number of illustrative case studies involving industrial relations and human resource management are set out A set of contributors drawn from a wide range of disciplines and nationalities who are expert in these fields have contributed chapters to the volume      University Theses in Russian, Soviet and East European Studies, 1907-2006 Gregory Piers Mountford Walker, John Simon Gabriel Simmons, 2008 The bibliography records doctoral and selected masters theses over 3 300 in all from British and Irish universities in the field of Russian Soviet and East European studies This is broadly interpreted to include all disciplines in the humanities and social sciences as they relate to the area of Russia the former USSR and Eastern Europe Taken as a whole the work probably forms the fullest and longest record of British and Irish postgraduate research in any sector of area studies Besides its primary function as a bibliographic tool it makes it possible to trace the effects of academic developments institutional policies and the changes in direction in this highly diversified field of study over the last hundred years Entries are arranged by subject and area supported by full author and subject indexes to aid searching Dr Gregory Walker is a former Head of Slavonic and East European Collections at the Bodleian Library University of Oxford The late John S G Simmons OBE was Senior Research Fellow and Librarian All Souls College Oxford

Management in Transitional Economies Malcolm Warner, 2005 This is a comparative study examining the past present and future of management in the transitional economies of East and Central Europe Russia the People's Republic of China and Vietnam      Strategy, Structure and Performance in a Transition Economy Tobias Weigl, 2008-08-26 Based on the results of 177 survey responses Tobias Weigl shows that the simple transfer of managerial and organizational skills techniques values and culture from developed countries to Russia is a false assumption among academics and practitioners

Labour Relations in the Global Fast-Food Industry Tony Royle, Brian Towers, 2004-08-02 The fast food industry is one of the few industries that can be described as truly global not least in terms of employment which is estimated at around ten million people worldwide This edited volume is the first of its kind providing an analysis of labour relations in this significant industry focusing on multinational corporations and large national companies in ten countries the USA Canada the UK the Netherlands Germany Australia New Zealand Singapore and Russia The extent to which multinational enterprises impose or adapt their employment practices in differing national industrial relations systems is analysed Results reveal that the global fast food industry is typified by trade union exclusion high labour turnover unskilled work paternalistic management regimes and work organization that allows little scope for developing workers participation in decision making let alone advocating widely accepted concepts of social justice and workers rights

Classical Theories of International Relations

Ian Clark,Iver B. Neumann,2016-07-27 Drawing on a tripartite taxonomy first suggested by the so called English School of International Relations of a Hobbesian tradition of power politics a Grotian tradition of concern with the rules that govern relations between states and a Kantian tradition of thinking which transcends the existence of the states system this book discusses the thinking of central political theorists about the modern states system Thinkers covered are Hobbes Grotius Kant Vitoria Rousseau Smith Burke Hegel Gentz and Vattel

Persistent State Weakness in the Global Age

Vesna Bojicic-Dzelilovic,2016-05-13 Persistent State Weakness in the Global Age addresses the question of why state weakness in the global era persists It debunks a common assumption that state weakness is a stop gap on the path to state failure and state collapse Informed by a globalization perspective the book shows how state weakness is frequently self reproducing and functional The interplay of global actors policies and norms is analyzed from the standpoint of their internalization in a weak state through transnational networks Contributors examine the reproduction of partial and discriminatory rule at the heart of persistent state weakness drawing on a wide geographical range of case studies including the Middle East the Balkans the post Soviet states and sub Saharan Africa The study of state weakening dynamics related to institutional incapacity colonial and war legacies legitimacy gaps economic informality democratization and state building provides an insight into durability and resilience of weak states in the global age

Labour Relations and the New Unionism in Contemporary Brazil M. Barros,1999-03-22 This book examines recent developments in Brazilian labour relations Analysing the current state of labour relations in Brazil the author shows how the proposals advanced by the new unionism have put strong pressure on the corporate system still legally enforced and have successfully developed a new political culture he terms the political culture of active citizenship

Free Radical Tony Benn,2004-01-06 In 2001 Tony Benn one of the most influential socialist politicians in Europe retired from the British House of Commons after almost 50 years in politics to devote more time to politics One of the ways in which he carried out his resolution was to write a series of weekly columns for the Morning Star a British socialist daily newspaper These columns reflect the breadth of Benn's political concerns covering both domestic and international politics and the best of them have been collected here Benn writes with a controlled passion about the Labour party old and new the threats to democracy and the need for a viable protest movement and the events and repercussions of September 11 2001

Mastering the Globalization of Business Roger Cartwright, 2017-03-14 The book is designed to provide a basic understanding of the dynamics of globalization and its relevance for all types and sizes of business Commencing with a brief history that shows that globalization is not just a late 20th and early 21st century phenomenon but has been a factor in world trade since the 1600s the text then considers the two opposing views held about globalization The material goes on to look at the global implications for customer relationships marketing human resources finance and information These are areas in which a narrow national view is becoming increasingly of less value to the student The book includes questions and case studies to aid understanding Spain and the Reconstruction of Western Europe, 1945-57 F. Guirao, 1998-09-14 Based on a wide range of archival sources this book analyses the response of the most peripheral country in Western Europe Franco's Spain to the challenges of increasing economic interdependence from the end of World War II to the establishment of the EEC 1945-57 In so doing the author sheds new light on the fundamental question of the survival of the Franco regime and stimulates further discussion on the external factors responsible for Spain's pattern of economic growth after 1945

Shemlan James Craig, 2016-07-27 Shemlan a small once unknown village in the hills overlooking Beirut became notorious throughout the Middle East when Bertram Thomas chose it as the location for the Middle East Centre for Arab Studies MECAS in 1947 The knowledge that a western government was taking pains to teach its citizens Arabic and inform them of Arab history society and religion made the Arabs suspicious The success of MECAS in producing specialists who were the envy of other governments produced doubt and anxiety The power of MECAS to attract British but also foreign diplomats and businessmen should have made it a profitable enterprise instead there was constant penny pinching and reluctance to invest In retrospect it looks like an excellent idea developed by improvisation through its early troubles which was then allowed to die in its prime Was it yet another example of a British invention unexploited Oil and the Economy of Russia Nat Moser, 2017-10-20 This book examines the development of the Russian economy from tsarist times to the present through the lens of the oil industry It considers the role of the state business state relations foreign participation enterprise performance and technology Besides providing much rich detail on the changing nature of the oil industry the book also puts forward important conclusions including the fact that in the late nineteenth century private enterprise rather than the state was the principal driver of economic development and that after the collapse of the Soviet Union incumbent managers were more effective in running their companies than financier entrants whose main concern was short term gain The Presidency of the European Commission under Jacques Delors K. Endo,1999-01-13 This work is the first systematic study of the presidency of the European Commission Drawing upon cases of attempted leadership by Jacques Delors the Commission President from 1985 95 it examines the leadership capacity of the office holder This points to the inherently shared and contingent nature of Commission President s leadership in a Union where the leadership sources are widely dispersed While this is essentially an empirical study Endo addresses some of the theoretical implications of its findings and resulting issues

Islam, Modernity and Entrepreneurship among the Malays P. Sloane,1998-11-23 The book is based on original research on the entrepreneurial leaders in the Malay community and on the author s own participation in Malay business ventures Sloane draws on her experience of working in Wall Street to analyse the ironies and contradictions in both the prevailing Western Asian and Malay definitions of entrepreneurship and the heroes of competing styles of capitalism
