Russo-Persian Commercial Relations, 1828-1914 Marvin L. Enter, 1965 The Struggle for Asia 1828-1914 David Gillard, 2023-05-03 The Struggle for Asia 1828 1914 1977 studies a classic case of rival imperialisms British leaders tended to believe that Russian expansion threatened India Russian leaders came to believe in a British threat to their empire Each sought security by trying to control the policies of weaker states which lay between their imperial frontiers and on whose alignment depended the balance of power By 1914 when both felt even more threatened by Germany than by one another Russia seemed to have gained the upper hand in a struggle for hegemony in Asia which had been crucial for the course of world politics This book examines the intellectual origins of the Great Game Anglo-Iranian Relations During World War I William J. Olson, 2013-12-19 A study of Anglo Iranian relations during World War I This book analyzes such diplomacy as an example of great power politics in regional affairs examining Britain's concern to maintain stability in Iran and exclude foreign interests from the Persian Gulf and the approaches to India Britain and the Persian Gulf, 1894-1914 Briton Cooper Busch, British Imperialism in Qajar Iran H. Lyman Stebbins, 2016-12-18 In 1888 there were just four British consulates in the country by 1921 there were twenty three H Lyman Stebbins investigates the development and consequences of British imperialism in Iran in a time of international rivalry revolution and world war While previous narratives of Anglo Iranian relations have focused on the highest diplomatic circles in Tehran London Calcutta and St Petersburg this book argues that British consuls and political agents made the vast southern borderlands of Iran the real centre of British power and influence during this period Based on British consular archives from Bushihr Shiraz Sistan and Muhammarah this book reveals that Britain India and Iran were linked together by discourses of colonial knowledge and patterns of political military and economic control It also contextualizes the emergence of Iranian nationalism as well as the failure and collapse of the Qajar state during the Iranian Constitutional Revolution and the First World War Armenians And The Iranian Constitutional Revolution Of 1905-1911 Houri Berberian, 2018-02-19 Drawing upon original sources this study provides the most comprehensive treatment to date of the issue of Armenian politicization and participation in the Iranian Constitutional Revolution 1905 1911 Houri Berberian traces the political economic and social situation of Armenians in the nineteenth century with a special emphasis on the Armenian provinces of the Ottoman Empire which became the focus of the Armenian revolutionary movement in the late nineteenth century and on the Russian ruled Caucasus which became the source of the nationalist and socialist revolutionary movement Discussion of the Iranian Armenian community includes for the first time a look into the roles and activism of Iranian Armenian women Berberian explores the ideological political and pragmatic motivations of Armenians and examines the collaboration of Armenian and Iranian constitutionalists drawing attention to the ideological and military contributions of Armenians to the revolution as well as to the internal and external conflicts among Armenian activists and between Armenian and Iranian constitutionalist elements Berberian concludes with a discussion of the causes and consequences of the retreat of Armenians from Iranian politics Trade and Enterprise Gad Gilbar, 2022-10-31 Until recently the historiography of Middle Eastern economic elites during the first globalization has ignored the significant role played by Muslim tujj r big merchant entrepreneurs Foreign firms and local minorities were considered the prime agents of economic change and the initiators of economic growth The 12 studies in this volume show that the Muslim tujj r played a major economic role in various regions of the Middle East during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Their investments mainly in commercial agriculture resulted in economic growth and changed economic structures and social relations in many Middle Eastern communities They were also involved in political developments some of which had a dramatic effect on the history of their countries as for instance in late Qajar Iran They also played a unique role in the process of cultural change Although they supported the ulam financially they also contributed to the establishment of new educational and cultural institutions The story of the tujj r is unique in the sense that it was the only indigenous elite group in the pre World War I Middle East to bridge between traditional forces and concepts and Western attitudes and practices CS 1108 Studies in the Economic History of the Middle East M. A. Cook, 2015-12-22 First Published in 2004 Did medieval Muslims have the concept of a social class If not can we usefully employ the term in analysing their society Were there such things as guilds in the medieval Middle East Would we understand the economic decline of Mamluk Egypt better if we used paradigms derived from the study of the economic history of England and Italy in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries How much can the enormous fiscal archive of the Ottoman Empire tell us about population history Why was the Middle East so backward if indeed it was compared with the rest of the Afro Asian world in the nineteenth century Have Iran and Iraq better prospects for economic growth than otherwise comparable countries thanks to their oil royalties Or are these paradoxically a hindrance rather than a help The study of the economic history of the Middle East in Islamic times is notoriously underdeveloped This volume contains papers discussed at an international conference held at the School of Oriental and African Studies in 1967 together with three short critical essays which attempt to tie them together Some papers are specific contributions to research others survey wider areas The volume is not a comprehensive history or a systematic inventory but it is hoped that in addition to presenting a set of papers which are interesting in themselves it will give the reader a tolerable idea of the state of studies in the field Political Elite of Iran Marvin Zonis, 2015-03-08 In interviews with 170 politically active Iranians the author reveals that politics in Iran are based on interpersonal relationships marked by insecurity cynicism and mistrust He then assesses the significance of these characteristics for Iran's future development Originally published in 1971 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

The Soviet Union and Revolutionary Iran (RLE Iran D) Aryeh Yodfat, 2012-04-27 Relations between the USSR and Iran during the period from the overthrow of the Shah and the establishment of the Islamic Republic up to early 1983 are reviewed in this book It begins with a brief survey of Russian Persian relations in earlier years with a focus on the developments that served as a background to the current events It examines Soviet attitudes and reactions to Iran's foreign and internal policy and highlights the way in which the Soviets often raise events of which they do not approve in order to draw Iran closer to them In particular the book discusses the Soviet response to the Iran Iraq war and the position of the Tudeh Party and the other leftists within Iran Iran's policy towards the USSR is treated at length and it is shown that it is suspicious of a tacit USA USSR agreement over the fate of Iran Khomeini's attempts to isolate Iran from both East and West are also reviewed This book was one of the first to discuss this crucial dimension in Middle East politics and it makes a significant contribution to our understanding of the forces driving the Iranian Revolution

An Iranian Town in Transition Christoph Werner, 2000 An Iranian Town in Transition deals with the social and economic history of Tabriz a town in north west Iran and the centre of the historical province Azerbaijan The focus of this study is on the notables of the town in an epoch of fundamental change that stretches from the mid eighteenth to the mid nineteenth century Far from narrating a simple history of events the study addresses major questions related to endowments waqf the workings of the Shiite judiciary urban and provincial administration the changing role of the ulama and tenure of landed property in concrete case studies

With its wide perspective on developments in urban society the study interprets the process of social change in the transitional period from the Zands to the Qajars as a crucial starting point for the modern history of Iran Stressing the importance of indigenous sources for this period the author drew heavily on hitherto neglected Persian archival material A large number of documents deeds and court protocols are included in critical edition in the appendix

Kurds and the State in Iran Abbas Vali, 2014-04-11 In early 1946 Kurds declared an independent republic in north west Iran The Mahabad Republic as it became known was the first time that the Kurds experienced self rule in the modern era Although short lived the Republic had a formative influence on the subsequent development of Kurdish nationalist movements in Iran and the wider region Here Abbas Vali disputes the conventional view that the Kurdish Republic was the result of a Soviet conspiracy to dismember Iran a side effect of the Cold War Instead he emphasizes the diversity of the internal Iranian and Kurdish factors that led to the formation of the Republic arguing that the Republic represents the culmination of a new and modern Kurdish national identity This was an identity which emerged in response to the exclusionary effects of the political and discursive processes and practices of the construction of a modern Iranian nation state and national identity since the Constitutional Revolution of 1906 which often excluded and attempted to override a Kurdish one Vali contends that this process largely due to the socio economic and cultural impact of the rule of Pahlavis in reality forced the Kurdish people of Iran to form and reinforce their own ethno linguistic and ethno national community The expressions of this separate identity can be traced through the formation and dissolution of Kurdish national parties such as the Kurdistan Democratic Party of Iran KDPI

Kurds and the State in Iran offers an analysis of the formation and effects of the concepts of the state the nation nationalism and ethnic identity which go beyond current ethnicist and constructivist theories thus making it essential reading for anyone interested in the Kurds or the development of national and state identities in the Middle East

The Political Economy of Iran Under the Qajars Hooshang Amirahmadi, 2012-06-28 The political economy of Iran underwent the fundamental transition from feudalism to modernity from the early 19th to the 20th century a period which was a vital watershed in Iran s historical development This book provides a critical analysis of Iran s economic social and political development and shows how the path to modernity far from smooth was hindered by both internal and international factors These included a powerful monarchy with little interest in administrative and economic reform a large aristocracy frequently holding vital provincial governorships and frustrating effective central government and a failure to create a modern civil service military banking finance or communications the essential infrastructure for economic development Reformers were marginalised and business suffered And the all powerful ulema were a further brake on modernisation On the international front the rivalry of Britain and Russia compounded the problems both acting to control Iran and to further their own interests Hooshang Amirahmadi explores the roots of present day challenges to modernisation and progress and using a wealth of primary sources and original research has produced a work which is invaluable for students of modern Iranian history politics and Iran's political economy A Diplomatic History of the Caspian Sea G. Mirfendereski, 2001-08-10 In a series of short stories that both inform and amuse this book transports the reader across the windswept shores of the Caspian Sea and provides a provocative view of the wars peace intrigues and betrayals that have shaped the political geography of this important and volatile region The demise of the Soviet Union in 1991 and the eclipsing of the old Iranian Soviet regime of the sea have given rise to new challenges for the regional actors and unprecedented opportunities for international players to tap into the area's enormous oil and gas resources third in size only behind Siberia and the Persian Gulf This book explores the historical themes that inform and animate the more immediate and familiar discussions about petroleum pipelines and ethnic conflict in the Caspian region Great Russian Fair Anne L Fitzpatrick, 2016-02-24 The Struggle for the Eurasian Borderlands Alfred J. Rieber, 2014-03-20 A major new account of the Eurasian borderlands as shatter zones which have generated some of the world's most significant conflicts The A to Z of Iran John H. Lorentz, 2010 Alphabetically arranged entries cover key individuals major events important institutions and organizations and significant economic political social religious and cultural issues
