Ruthie's Gift Kimberly Brubaker Bradley,1999 Set in a small Indiana farming community at the start of World War I this is the heartwarming story of an eight year old tomboy who develops a stronger sense of self and selfishness during a particularly dramatic year in her life Brisk pacing affectionate humor and an unforgettable heroine distinguish this first novel Publishers Weekly Ruthie's Gift Kimberly Brubaker Bradley,1998 Just before the beginning of World War I eight year old Ruthie who lives with her parents and six brothers on a farm in Indiana wishes for a sister and tries to behave like the lady her mother wants her to be Indiana: Student text James A. Banks,Richard G. Boehm,Gloria Contreras,A. Lin Goodwin,Mary A. McFarland,Walter C. Parker,2003 Yiddish Yoga Lisa Grunberger,2010-10 Meet Ruthie a recently widowed New York City Jewish grandmother who doesn't necessarily come to yoga with the most open of minds But when her granddaughter Stephanie gives her a year of yoga classes as a gift I think it will help you grieve Bubby she doesn't want to risk offending her At first Ruthie is skeptical of yoga and its promise of renewal healing and transformation You know what's wrong with yoga They haven't mastered the art of kvetching She can't resist poking fun at some of the new words and rituals she encounters translating the exotic language of Yoga into the more familiar idiom of her native Yiddish culture As Ruthie's journey progresses from week to week she forges new paths new postures and unexpected friendships slowly overcoming her grief Yiddish Yoga is a poignant witty and human story of love in its many expressions between grandmother and granddaughter between an older woman and her younger yoga teacher between a widow and her beloved husband of fifty years As Ruthie learns to let go of her past without forgetting she shows us how to embrace the present with new vigor strength and courage and above all makes us laugh Grace & Favor: From Prison to Paid Vol. I Letitia Scott-Jackson,2019-09-29 LISTEN I came into this world on May 14 1970 Born to the late Reverend Norvell Scott and Beatrice Scott My father was an A M E Pastor and my mother was your typical pastor's wife The First Lady as some would have it My daddy was very strict He was a tall fair complected man who always said what he meant and meant what he said My momma was quiet and a petite woman with an humble spirit whom everyone admired yet she didn't play at all she would hit you with whatever she could get her hands on To those of you reading this I just thought about something If I told you all about me right now you wouldn't have to read my book So guess what I am stopping right here READ THE BOOK Taking Back the Trinity Analisa Ridenour,1995 Ask What You Can Do For Your (New) Country Nadejda K Marinova,2017-06-01 Within recent years a new body of literature has emerged within international relations on transnationalism and foreign policy This literature has thus far focused on the strategic relationship between home states and their ethnic lobbies abroad often with regard to remittances to and politics in the home country This book breaks new ground in that it develops a theory about when how and for what reasons host states use diasporas and the ethnic lobbies they generate to advance foreign policy goals Ask What You Can Do for Your New Country focuses on a previously unexamined phenomenon how host governments utilize diasporas to advance their foreign policy agendas in mutually beneficial ways As was demonstrated in the run up to the 2003 invasion of Iraq when Iraqi exiles testified that Saddam Hussein possessed weapons of mass destruction ethnic lobbies have been utilized strategically by the United States and other countries for the promotion of political objectives Host states have even promoted the creation of such ethnic lobbies for this purpose As Nadejda K Marinova shows those who participate in such lobbies are of a particular subset of migrants who are politically active express a sustained vision for homeland politics and who often have existing ties to political institutions within the host state These groups then act as a link between the public and officials in their home state and other generally less politically active members of the diaspora via a coordinated effort by the host state She develops a theoretical model for determining the conditions under which a host state will decide to promote and utilize an ethnic lobby and she tests it against eight cases including the Bush Administration's use of the American Lebanese Cultural Union and the World Council for the Cedars Revolution in developing policy towards Lebanon and Syria the Iraqi National Congress in endorsing the US invasion of Iraq the Cuban American Committee's cooperation with the Carter administration in attempting to normalize relations with Cuba and the International Diaspora Engagement Alliance IDEA launched by Secretary of State Hillary Clinton in 2011 to promote economic development in a number of countries
