Are You Not Entertained? Lindsay Steenberg,2020-10-29 Anglo American culture is marked by a gladiatorial impulse a deep cultural fascination in watching men fight each other The gladiator is an archetypal character embodying this impulse and his brand of violent and eroticised masculinity has become a cultural shorthand that signals a transhistorical version of heroic masculinity Frequently the gladiator or celebrity fighter from the amphitheatres of Rome to the octagon of the Ultimate Fighting Championships is used as a way of insisting that a desire to fight and to watch men fighting is simply a part of our human nature This book traces a cultural interest in stories about gladiators through twentieth and twenty first century film television and videogames Prejudice Endre Begby,2021 Many prejudiced beliefs will be false and many will be harmful But it is widely assumed also that prejudiced belief is defective in the sense that it could only arise from distinctive kinds of epistemic irrationality we could acquire or retain such beliefs only by neglecting evidence and thereby violating our epistemic responsibilities In Prejudice Endre Begby argues that this common conviction is misguided there are many pathways to epistemically justified prejudiced belief He provides a systematic platform for non ideal epistemology which applies to a wide range of other socio epistemic phenomena of current concern fake news conspiracy theories science scepticism and more It is widely assumed that we can be held morally accountable for the harms that prejudiced beliefs cause only if we are epistemically blameworthy for holding the beliefs in the first place Through examples and case studies at individual collective and institutional levels of decision making Begby argues that it is a mistake to lean on the concept of epistemic responsibility to articulate our moral responsibilities in this way There is no barrier to holding us accountable even for blameless wrongs Dissociating these notions also frees victims of prejudice from the unreasonable burden of having to show that their victimizers were in a position to know better Book jacket
