Rwanda, a Country Study ,1982      Rwanda, a Country Study Richard F. Nyrop,1982      Burundi Country Study Guide Volume 1 Strategic Information and Developments IBP USA,2013-08 Burundi Country Study Guide Strategic Information and Developments      RWANDA ,1969      Culture and Customs of Rwanda Julius O. Adekunle,2007-05-30 Rwanda has been in the news for the genocide of 1994 and its aftermath This volume exposes Western readers to the fuller picture of Rwanda Early European travelers attested to Rwanda s beauty describing it variously as the Switzerland of Africa and the Pearl of Africa Rwanda has also been referred to as the Land of a Thousand Hills and the Land of Gorillas The spectacular volcanoes mountains and natural resources are significant assets The nation been dominated by two colonial powers the Germans and Belgians In spite of these political upheavals and acts of ethnic violence Rwanda remains a country with rich culture and customs Readers will learn that living together in harmony has been part of the Rwandan society with its few ethnic groups and traditional values supported a culture of peace The traditionally pastoral and agricultural society is overviewed The chapter on religion includes discussion of polytheism to Christianity Other chapters cover the strong family and women s roles the arts and oral cultures celebrations food and dress      Education in Rwanda ,2004 Ten years after the 1994 genocide in which an estimated 10 percent of the country s population perished Rwanda s devastated education system is now back on its feet Classrooms have been repaired and new ones built teachers who fled the mayhem have been reintegrated into the teaching force arrears in teacher pay have been cleared up a Genocide Fund has been created specifically to assist orphans and in higher education the system has been diversified and new arrangements for student finance have been introduced This success notwithstanding the task of transforming the rapid recovery into sustained progress over time has only just begun A priority will be to ensure that all Rwandan children can complete a full course of primary schooling of reasonable quality and that expansion at the post primary levels occurs at a pace commensurate with the labor market s capacity to absorb highly educated job seekers Achieving this will present tough tradeoffs in financing and service delivery including combining increased funding for primary education with greater reliance on private financing at other levels sharper targeting of public subsidies for education and tighter management of classroom processes to improve student flow and student learning throughout the system Education in Rwanda explores the challenges of sustaining educational progress in a fiscally viable fashion as the country makes the transition from post conflict recovery to long term development      Rwanda Margee M. Ensign,William E. Bertrand,2009-11-02 Imagine a nation with the highest proportion of women legislators in the world Imagine a country where a democratically elected president is committed to gender equality and poverty reduction where urban and rural schools are being wired to the Internet and where the government is committed to becoming a middle income country by 2020 Imagine that this country is located in the heart of sub Saharan Africa and that this progress comes in the wake of one of the 20th century s worst genocides Fifteen years removed from a mass genocide that resulted in the deaths of nearly one million people Rwanda today presents a model for hope justice innovation and human development In fact Rwanda is now a leader in achieving economic political and social progress in this beleaguered continent A new model of governance has emerged in this poor African country This model which draws on century s old Rwandan customs called Ubudehe and IMIHIGO is inclusive transparent empowers the poor and holds leaders accountable for improving the well being of people in their districts Rwanda History and Hope focuses on the innovative path Rwanda has taken in governance and reconciliation gender equity education health and economic growth The authors spent a decade working and researching in the country to prepare this path breaking book

A History of Rwandan Identity and Trauma Randall Fegley,2016-03-18 Few societies have faced the difficulties of identity building experienced by Rwanda This book s introduction reviews literature on the concepts of myth and trauma and then introduces basic information on Rwanda and how it has been viewed by the outside world Chapter One describes early Rwanda s political and cultural development traditional narratives group migrations the effects of German and later Belgian colonialism and the introduction of Christianity It concludes with a look at how this early history has been interpreted and reinterpreted The second chapter discusses the end of Tutsi dominance and the 1959 Hutu Revolution It details Hutu Power ideology Belgian domestic politics early acts of genocide refugee movements and economic and political stagnation The text documents the development of the Rwandan Patriotic Front its 1990 invasion and the Arusha peace process An account of the 1994 genocide follows However as this has been covered in numerous other works descriptions are limited to key events and general patterns The chapter ends with a review of films books and other publications that brought Rwanda s plight to a worldwide audience but that also created new myths Chapter Three examines the country s post genocide reconstruction and attempts to bring justice and reconciliation through the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda in Tanzania and gacaca courts domestically Rwanda s impressive record of economic progress over the last two decades is detailed However prospects for democracy have diminished as its leaders have become increasingly sensitive to criticism and fearful of renewed divisions Descriptions of the process of developing school curriculums to explain past atrocities the new myths it created and their possible consequences comprise most of Chapter Four The final chapter offers conclusions on the effects of past mythologies and the trauma they have wrought It draws comparisons with other divided societies and their approaches to dealing with the past These include Burundi Ethiopia South Africa the United States Taiwan Canada Belgium Switzerland
