Sacred Revolutions Durkheim And The College De Sociologie:

Sacred Revolutions Michèle H. Richman, 2002 Sacred Revolutions Michèle H. Richman, 2002 It seems improbable but the most radical cultural iconoclasts of the interwar years OCo Georges Bataille Roger Caillois and Michel Leiris OCo responded to the rise of fascism by taking refuge in a sacred sociology Michèle H. Richman examines this seemingly paradoxical development in this book which traces the overall implications for French social thought of the ethnographic detour that began with Durkheim OCo his interest in Australian aboriginal religion OCo implications that reach back to the Revolution of 1789 and forward to the student protests of May 1968 The Columbia History of Twentieth-century French Thought Lawrence D. Kritzman, Brian J. Reilly, M. B. DeBevoise, 2006 This valuable reference is an authoritative guide to 20th century French thought It considers the intellectual figures movements and publications that helped define fields as diverse as history psychoanalysis film philosophy and economics The New Blackwell Companion to the Sociology of Religion Bryan S. Turner, 2016-10-03 THE NEW BLACKWELL COMPANION TO THE Sociology of Religion I enjoyed reading this book for its in depth examination of the complexities of the social forces that are shaping and are being shaped by religious groups around the world I certainly see this being of theoretical value for researchers engaging the new religious realities of our world Sociology of Religion A Quarterly Review The new companion is a timely and valuable work validly updating the original companion and a good addition to the reference shelves of any academic or specialist library Reference Reviews Reflecting recent developments in the field this companion provides a comprehensive introduction to the sociology of religion with a clear emphasis on comparative and historical approaches Covering all the areas relevant to undergraduate courses in this area the Companion begins by laying down the anthropological and sociological foundations of the study of religion and their contemporary developments It continues with an analysis of both traditional and contemporary forms of organization such as church sect typologies as well as megachurches and modern forms of spirituality The secularization and post secular society debates are considered in depth along with the globalization process fundamentalism charismatic movements and revivalism It also discusses the sociology of Buddhism Christianity Hinduism Islam Judaism and religions of China as well as the areas of American exceptionalism from de Tocqueville onwards religious nationalism women and piety movements and the spirituality of Native American communities Considering new developments in social theory and religion the collection concludes with a discussion of recent work that attempts to understand the future of religion blending the sociology of modern societies anthropological ethnography and philosophical inquiry Sacred Surrealism, Dissidence and International Avant-Garde Prose Vivienne Brough-Evans, 2016-05-05 Vivienne Brough Evans proposes a compelling new way of reevaluating aspects of international surrealism by means of the category of divin fou and consequently deploys theories of sacred ecstasy as developed by the Collège de Sociologie 1937-39 as a critical tool in shedding new light on the literary oeuvre of non French writers who worked both within and against a surrealist framework The minor surrealist genre of prose literature is considered herein rather than surrealism's mainstay poetry with the intention of fracturing preconceptions regarding the medium of surrealist expression. The aim is to explore whether International surrealism can begin to be more fully explained by an occluded strain of dissident surrealist thought that searches outside the self through the affects of ekstasis. Bretonian surrealism is widely discussed in the field of surrealist studies and there is a need to consider what is left out of surrealist practice when analysed through this Bretonian lens. The Collège de Sociologie and Georges Bataille's theories provide a model of such elements of dissident surrealism which is used to analyse surrealist or surrealist-influenced prose by Alejo Carpentier, Leonora Carrington and Gellu Naum respectively representing postcolonial feminist and Balkan locutions. The Collège and Bataille's dissident surrealism diverges significantly from the concerns and approach towards the subject explored by surrealism. Using the concept of ekstasis to organise Bataille's theoretical ideas of excess and inner experience and the Collège's thoughts on the sacred, it is possible to propose a new way of reading types of International surrealist literature many of which do not come to the forefront of the surrealist literary oeuvre.

Suffering and Evil W. S. F. Pickering, Massimo Rosati, 2012. Until recently the subject of suffering and evil was neglected in the sociological world and was almost absent in Durkheimian studies as well. This book aims to fill the gap with particular reference to the Durkheimian tradition by exploring the different meanings that the concepts of evil and suffering have in Durkheim's works together with the general role they play in his sociology. It also examines the meanings and roles of these concepts in relation to suffering and evil in the work of other authors within the group of the Année sociologique up until the beginning of World War II. Finally, the Durkheimian legacy in its wider aspects is assessed with particular reference to the importance of the Durkheimian categories in understanding and conceptualizing contemporary forms of evil and suffering.

The Sociology of Islam Bryan S. Turner, Kamaludeen Mohamed Nasir, 2016-03-03. Taking a thematic approach, Bryan S. Turner draws together his writings which explore the relationship between Islam and the ideas of Western social thinkers. The Postmodern Mythology of Michel Tournier Melissa Panek, 2012-03-15. Michel Tournier defines the supreme mission of a writer to be the creation of a mythology which allows for interaction with his readers who seem to be losing their critical faculties in our contemporary postmodern world dominated by consumption and dizzying technological advances. Our contemporary society has changed due to the end of the modern era with its reigning ideologies. Collapsing after the atrocities of the Second World War, Modernity and the artistic and literary reactions referred to as modernism have likewise been transformed. Myth continues to represent the collectivity of human existence yet in the short stories and novels of Michel Tournier, myth represents the collapse of the all-encompassing ideologies inherent to the Modern era. The grand narratives of Modernity such as Christianity and Man's reason have been deconstructed in the postmodern era. The mythology of Michel Tournier expresses these trends towards the dissolution of Modernity and creates individual mini narratives which emphasize the particularity of individual existence Tournier takes established mythical models rooted in Christianity fables and legends of Western Civilization and re contextualizes them Through a semiotic reworking of core binary pairs of a myth Tournier creates a third order level of representation which modifies the mythical model The works of le Roi des Aulnes Gilles et Jeanne and Vendredi are illustrious of this third order level of signification According to Ferdinand de Saussure Roland Barthes and Claude L vi Strauss the structural make up of myth transforms established meanings according to the dominant cultural code Barthes semiological study of myth reveals the levels of representation through which myth creates meaning Myth builds upon the denotative first order level of language and through a connotative process creates a second order level This connotative process does not end on this second order for in the writings of Tournier this semiological process is continued to a third order which re contextualizes the myth again Tournier adapts myth to the unique traits of the postmodern era including deconstruction and playfulness by allowing the reader to provide the context of the story As such we the reader take the place as author of our own individual mythology

Weird Mysticism Brad Baumgartner, 2020-11-17 Weird Mysticism identifies and evaluates a new category of theoretical inquiry by showing the influence of speculative writing on three intersecting critical categories horror fiction apophatic mysticism and philosophical pessimism Exploring the work of Thomas Ligotti Georges Bataille and E M Cioran Baumgartner argues that these weird mystics employ an innovative mode of negative writing that seeks to merge new conceptions of reality While exploring perennial questions about the absolute the Outside and other philosophical concepts these authors push the limits of representation experimenting with literary form genre bending and aphoristic discourse As their works reveal the category of weird mysticism both conjoins and obscures the link between traditional mysticism and philosophical horror fiction with weirdness itself being the central magnet that draws the seemingly disparate realms of horror fiction philosophy and mysticism together Highlighting the theoretical stakes of the horror genre Baumgartner s study reveals how the mystical potentially recuperates the limits of philosophical thinking enabling reflection on and possibly challenging the limits of human understanding

Critical Mass Steven Ungar, 2018-08-21 Thirty five years of nonfiction films offer a unique lens on twentieth century French social issues Critical Mass is the first sustained study to trace the origins of social documentary filmmaking in France back to the late 1920s Steven Ungar argues that socially engaged nonfiction cinema produced in France between 1945 and 1963 can be seen as a delayed response to what filmmaker Jean Vigo referred to in 1930 as a social cinema whose documented point of view would open the eyes of spectators to provocative subjects of the moment Ungar identifies Vigo s manifesto his 1930 short propos de Nice and late silent era films by Georges Lacombe Boris Kaufman Andr Sauvage and Marcel Carn as antecedents of postwar documentaries by Eli Lotar Ren Vautier Alain Resnais Chris Marker and Jean Rouch associated with critiques of colonialism and modernization in Fourth and early Fifth Republic France Close readings of individual films alternate with transitions to address transnational practices as well as state and industry wide reforms between 1935 and 1960 Critical Mass is an indispensable complement to studies of nonfiction film in France from Georges Lacombe's La Zone 1928 to Chris Marker's Le Joli Mai 1963

Otherwise Worlds
Tiffany Lethabo King, Jenell Navarro, Andrea Smith, 2020-05-18. The contributors to Otherwise Worlds investigate the complex relationships between settler colonialism and anti-Blackness to explore the political possibilities that emerge from such inquiries. Pointing out that presumptions of solidarity, antagonism, or incommensurability between Black and Native communities are insufficient to understand the relationships between the groups, the volume's scholars, artists, and activists look to articulate new modes of living and organizing in the service of creating new futures. Among other topics, they examine the ontological status of Blackness and Indigeneity, possible forms of relationality between Black and Native communities, perspectives on Black and Indigenous sociality, and freeing the flesh from the constraints of violence and settler colonialism. Throughout the volume's essays, art, and interviews, the contributors carefully attend to alternative kinds of relationships between Black and Native communities that can lead toward liberation. In so doing, they critically point to the importance of Black and Indigenous conversations for formulating otherwise worlds. Contributors: Maile Arvin, Marcus Briggs Cloud, J. Kameron Carter, Ashon Crawley, Denise Ferreira da Silva, Chris Finley, Hotvluke, Harjo, Sandra Harvey, Chad B.
