The Sculptural Heritage of Tibet David Weldon,1999 The Sculptural Heritage of Tibet: Buddhist Art in the Nyingjei Lam Collection (6 October-30 December 1999). Ashmolean Museum,1999 Buddhist Goddesses of India Miranda Shaw,2015-08-25 The Indian Buddhist world abounds with goddesses voluptuous tree spirits maternal nurturers potent healers and protectors transcendent wisdom figures cosmic mothers of liberation and dancing female Buddhas Despite their importance in Buddhist thought and practice these female deities have received relatively little scholarly attention and no comprehensive study of the female pantheon has been available Buddhist Goddesses of India is the essential and definitive guide to divinities that as Miranda Shaw writes operate from transcendent planes of bliss and awareness for as long as their presence may benefit living beings Beautifully illustrated the book chronicles the histories legends and artistic portrayals of nineteen goddesses and several related human figures and texts Drawing on a sweeping range of material from devotional poetry and meditation manuals to rituals and artistic images Shaw reveals the character powers and practice traditions of the female divinities Interpretations of intriguing traits such as body color stance hairstyle clothing jewelry hand gestures and handheld objects lend deep insight into the symbolism and roles of each goddess In addition to being a comprehensive reference this book traces the fascinating history of these goddesses as they evolved through the early Mahayana and Tantric movements in India and found a place in the pantheons of Tibet and Nepal Publisher s website The Evolving House Museum ,2024-08-05 This volume explores twelve house museums created over more than two centuries and founded across the globe What motivates collectors to establish independent house museums instead of donating their collections to preexisting institutions How have collectors original intentions manifested themselves in their museums Have founder mandates aided the survival or caused the demise of their institutions How have house museums collections or buildings evolved over time Must museums reinterpret their collections to remain relevant to contemporary and diverse audiences In seeking to answer these questions the volume s authors share the unique stories behind the creation and evolution of these fascinating institutions and the intriguing stories of the exceptional individuals who founded them Contributors Aist Bimbryt Eliza Butler Chih En Chen Enrico Colle Allegra Davis Marissa Hershon Mia Laufer Ulrike M ller Nadine Nour el Din Inge Reist Anne Nellis Richter and Georgina S Walker The Circle of Bliss John C. Huntington,Dina Bangdel,2003 This publication is issued in conjunction with the exhibition The circle of bliss Buddhist meditational art co organized by the Columbus Museum of Art and the Los Angeles County Museum of Art Los Angeles County Museum of Art October 5 January 11 2003 Columbus Museum of Art February 6 May 9 2004 The Holy Land Reborn Toni Huber,2008-09-15 The Dalai Lama has said that Tibetans consider themselves the child of Indian civilization and that India is the holy land from whose sources the Tibetans have built their own civilization What explains this powerful allegiance to India In The Holy Land Reborn Toni Huber investigates how Tibetans have maintained a ritual relationship to India particularly by way of pilgrimage and what it means for them to consider India as their holy land Focusing on the Tibetan creation and recreation of India as a destination a landscape and a kind of other in both real and idealized terms Huber explores how Tibetans have used the idea of India as a religious territory and a sacred geography in the development of their own religion and society In a timely closing chapter Huber also takes up the meaning of India for the Tibetans who live in exile in their Buddhist holy land A major contribution to the study of Buddhism The Holy Land Reborn describes changes in Tibetan constructs of India over the centuries ultimately challenging largely static views of the sacred geography of Buddhism in India Buddhist Encounters and Identities Across East Asia ,2018-05-07 Encounters networks identities and diversity are at the core of the history of Buddhism They are also the focus of Buddhist Encounters and Identities across East Asia edited by Ann Heirman Carmen Meinert and Christoph Anderl While long distance networks allowed Buddhist ideas to travel to all parts of East Asia it was through local and trans local networks and encounters and a diversity of people and societies that identities were made and negotiated This book undertakes a detailed examination of discrete Buddhist identities rooted in unique cultural practices beliefs and indigenous socio political conditions Moreover it presents a fascinating picture of the intricacies of the regional and cross regional networks that connected South and East Asia Buddhist Art Charles F. Chicarelli,2004 Over 150 color photographs from temples museums historical sites and private collections enhance this attractive survey of the Buddhist art of India Central Asia China Korea Japan Nepal Tibet Sri Lanka Burma Myanmar Indonesia Cambodia Thailand and Vietnam It presents the life story and teachings of Sakyamuni Buddha founder of Buddhism as shown in paintings sculptures and other works of art and explores the major schools of Buddhism Theravada Mahayana Vajrayana Zen and the styles and characteristics of the Buddhas bodhisattvas deities and other images seen in their art Everyone interested in Buddhist art and its enduring significance will find this volume a useful reference for the study and appreciation of the various gestures poses and artistic elements seen in Buddhist art though the ages Warriors of the Himalayas Donald J. LaRocca, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2006 The first in depth examination of the fascinating and virtually unknown of armor and weapons from Tibet dating from the 13th to the 20th century Manuscript Cultures: Mapping the Field Jörg Quenzer, Dmitry Bondarev, Jan-Ulrich Sobisch,2014-12-12 Script and writing were among the most important inventions in human history and until the invention of printing the handwritten book was the primary medium of literary and cultural transmission Although the study of manuscripts is already quite advanced for many regions of the world no unified discipline of manuscript studies has yet evolved which is capable of treating handwritten books from East Asia India and the Islamic world equally alongside the European manuscript tradition This book which aims to begin the interdisciplinary dialogue needed to arrive at a truly systematic and comparative approach to manuscript cultures worldwide brings together papers by leading researchers concerned with material philological and cultural aspects of different manuscript traditions 108 Buddhist Statues in Tibet Ulrich von Schroeder,2008 Mostly unknown to the outside world the temples and storerooms of Tibet s monasteries shelter a great number of ancient Buddhist objects including rare examples originating from India Pakistan Afghanistan Nepal Burma and China Hitherto books on this subject are almost exclusively illustrated with objects scattered worldwide in private or public collections A notable exception is the monumental two volume chronicle Buddhist Sculptures in Tibet published in 2001 by this author This book is a condensed edition introducing the very finest examples that illustrate the development of art in the round in Tibet Effectively acting as a catalogue it also serves to ensure the objects remain where they are The free DVD contains 527 digital images that can be freely used It is the hope of the author that other scholars will take use of this opportunity to publish some of these wonderful Buddhist sculptures      Receptacle of the Sacred Jinah Kim,2013-04-12 In considering medieval illustrated Buddhist manuscripts as sacred objects of cultic innovation Receptacle of the Sacred explores how and why the South Asian Buddhist book cult has survived for almost two millennia to the present A book manuscript should be understood as a form of sacred space a temple in microcosm not only imbued with divine presence but also layered with the memories of many generations of users Jinah Kim argues that illustrating a manuscript with Buddhist imagery not only empowered it as a three dimensional sacred object but also made it a suitable tool for the spiritual transformation of medieval Indian practitioners Through a detailed historical analysis of Sanskrit colophons on patronage production and use of illustrated manuscripts she suggests that while Buddhism's disappearance in eastern India was a slow and gradual process the Buddhist book cult played an important role in sustaining its identity In addition by examining the physical traces left by later Nepalese users and the contemporary ritual use of the book in Nepal Kim shows how human agency was critical in perpetuating and intensifying the potency of a manuscript as a sacred object throughout time
