Paul Getty Museum Christopher Bedford, Penelope

Curtis, John Dixon Hunt, 2008 This catalogue celebrates the recently installed collection of twentieth century sculpture donated to the J Paul Getty Trust by the Fran and Ray Stark Trust in 2005 The book takes the reader on a visual tour of the J Paul Getty Museum's new sculpture gardens and installations which features twenty eight works by artists such as Alexander Calder Alberto Giacometti Ferdinand Leger Roy Lichtenstein Ren Magritte Aristide Maillol Joan Mir Henry Moore and Isamu Noguchi The book offers essays on the curatorial decisions involved in establishing harmonious groupings a history of European and American sculpture within built outdoor environments and gardens and catalogue entries that discuss individual pieces within their broader art historical contexts A World History of Art Hugh Honour, John Fleming, 2005 Over two decades this art historical tour de force has consistently proved the classic introduction to humanity's artistic heritage From our paleolithic past to our digitised present every continent and culture is covered in an articulate and well balanced discussion In this Seventh Edition the text has been revised to embrace developments in archaeology and art historical research while the renowned contemporary art historian Michael Archer has greatly expanded the discussion of the past twenty years providing a new perspective on the latest developments The insight elegance and fluency that the authors bring to their text are complemented by 1458 superb illustrations half of which are now in colour These images together with the numerous maps and architectural plans have been chosen to represent the most significant chronological regional and individual styles of artistic expression Atlas of World Art John Onians, 2004 Combines a survey of world art with maps showing the associations and dissemination of culture across the globe Casas Grandes and the Ceramic Art of the Ancient Southwest Richard F. Townsend, Barbara Moulard L., Ken Kokrda, Barbara L. Moulard, 2005-01-01 A fascinating exploration of the rich artistic heritage and beauty of Casas Grandes ceramics United States Senate Catalogue of Fine Art William Kloss, 2005-08 The U S Capitol abounds in magnificent art that rivals its exterior architectural splendor The fine art held by the U S Senate comprises much of this treasured heritage It spans over 200 years of history contains works by such celebrated artists as Augustus Saint Gaudens Hiram Powers Daniel Chester French Charles Willson Peale Gilbert Stuart Walker Hancock Alexander Calder This volume provides previously unpublished information on the 160 paintings sculptures in the U S Senate Each work of art from portraiture of prominent senators to scenes depicting significant events in U S history is illustrated with a full page color photo accompanied by an essay secondary images that place the work in historical aesthetic context French Master Drawings from the Collection of Muriel Butkin Carter E. Foster, Sylvain Bellenger, Patrick Shaw Cable, Cleveland Museum of Art, 2001 Accompanying an exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Art last fall and now at the Dahesh Museum in New York this catalog focuses upon the French drawings in Muriel Butkin's highly specialized collection which she has promised to the Cleveland Museum To assemble her diverse yet nicely integrated set of drawings Butkin started buying 18th century French drawings when they were affordable In the mid 1970s with the guidance of art historian Gabriel Weisberg she expanded her collection to include 19th century French drawings These drawings were counter to the mainstream impressionist and postimpressionist taste of the time and focused more on academic French subject matter such as life drawings portraits or compositional studies In the preface Butkin herself reinforces her taste by saying that drawings are much more personal and spontaneous than paintings often demonstrating the artistic process Foster curator of drawings at the Cleveland Museum and other scholars present a well researched volume that contributes new information to a very specialized field of art history It is greatly disappointing however that the bulk of the reproductions are in black and white often missing the subtly colored tones in many of the drawings Nonetheless this is recommended for museum and academic libraries that support graduate programs in art history 183 b w illustrations

Art and Merchandise in Keith Haring's Pop Shop Amy Raffel, 2020-12-30 As one of the first academic monographs on Keith Haring this book uses the Pop Shop a previously overlooked enterprise and artist merchandising as tools to reconsider the significance and legacy of Haring's career as a whole Haring developed an alternative approach to both the marketing and the social efficacy of art he controlled the sales and distribution of his merchandise while also promulgating his belief in accessibility and community activism He proved that mass produced objects can be used strategically to form a community and create social change Furthermore looking beyond the 1980s into the 1990s and 2000s Haring and his shop prefigured artists emerging self aware involvement with the mass media and the art world's growing dependence on marketing and commercialism The book will be of interest to scholars or students studying art history consumer culture cultural studies media studies or market studies as well as anyone with a curiosity about Haring and his work the 1980s art scene in New York the East Village street art art activism and art merchandising The Other Side of Color David C. Driskell,2001 This volume presents selections from the highly respected Cosby collection of African American art Their introductions elaborate on their strong belief that African American families should themselves seek to preserve their cultural history and not rely on the mainstream They also provide interesting background about how they began their collection and what owning the art has meant to them The essay by Driskell curator author and scholar places each artist within the context of his or her era from the late 1700s to the present and explores the historical biographical social and political background of each period Also contains biographies of the artists Beautifully illustrated with 91 color plates and several other illustrations Oversize 10 25x13 25 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Machine Art, 1934 Jennifer Jane Marshall,2019-01-23 In 1934 New York s Museum of Modern Art staged a major exhibition of ball bearings airplane propellers pots and pans cocktail tumblers petri dishes protractors and other machine parts and products The exhibition titled Machine Art explored these ordinary objects as works of modern art teaching museumgoers about the nature of beauty and value in the era of mass production Telling the story of this extraordinarily popular but controversial show Jennifer Jane Marshall examines its history and the relationship between the museum s director Alfred H Barr Jr and its curator Philip Johnson who oversaw it She situates the show within the tumultuous climate of the interwar period and the Great Depression considering how these unadorned objects served as a response to timely debates over photography abstract art the end of the American gold standard and John Dewey s insight that how a person experiences things depends on the context in which they are encountered An engaging investigation of interwar American modernism Machine Art 1934 reveals how even simple things can serve as a defense against uncertainty Sol LeWitt Sol LeWitt,Martin Friedman,San Francisco Museum of Modern Art,Whitney Museum of American Art,2000-01-01 Om den amerikanske kunstner Sol LeWitt f dt 1928 American Stories Helene Barbara Weinberg,Carrie Reborra Barratt,2009 They also consider the artists responses to foreign prototypes travel and training changing exhibition venues and audience expectations The persistence of certain themes childhood marriage the family and the community the attainment and reinforcement of citizenship attitudes toward race the frontier as reality and myth and the process and meaning of making art underscores evolving styles and standards of storytelling Divided into four chronological sections the book begins with the years surrounding the American Revolution and the birth of the new republic when painters such as Copley Peale and Samuel F B Morse incorporated stories within the expressive bounds of portraiture During the Jacksonian and pre Civil War decades from about 1830 to 1860 Mount Bingham Lilly Martin Spencer and others painted genre scenes featuring lighthearted narratives that growing audiences for art could easily read and understand Discovering North American Rock Art Lawrence L. Loendorf,Christopher Chippindale,David S. Whitley,2016-05-01 From the high plains of Canada to caves in the southeastern United States images etched into and painted on stone by ancient Native Americans have aroused in observers the desire to understand their origins and meanings Rock paintings and engravings can be found in nearly every state and province and each region has its own distinctive story of discovery and evolving investigation of the rock art record Rock art in the twenty first century enjoys a large and growing popularity fueled by scholarly research and public interest alike This book explores the history of rock art research in North America and is the only volume in the past twenty five years to provide coverage of the subject on a continental scale Written by contributors active in rock art research it examines sites that provide a cross section of regions and topics and complements existing books on rock art by offering new information insights and approaches to research The first part of the volume explores different regional approaches to the study of rock art including a set of varied responses to a single site as well as an overview of broader regional research investigations It tells how Writing on Stone in southern Alberta Canada reflects changing thought about rock art from the 1870s to today it describes the role of avocational archaeologists in the Mississippi Valley where rock art styles differ on each side of the river it explores discoveries in southwestern mountains and southeastern caves and it integrates the investigation of cupules along Georgia s Yellow River into a full study of a site and its context The book also compares the differences between rock art research in the United States and France from the outset rock art was of only marginal interest to most U S archaeologists while French prehistorians considered cave art an integral part of archaeological research The book s second part is concerned with working with the images today and includes coverage of gender interests government sponsorship the role of amateurs in research and chronometric studies Much has changed in our understanding of rock art since Cotton Mather first wrote in 1714 of a strange inscription on a Massachusetts boulder and the cutting edge contributions in this volume tell us much about both the ancient place of these enduring images and their modern meanings Discovering North American Rock Art distills today s most authoritative knowledge of the field and is an essential volume for both specialists and hobbyists
