New Zealand Sculpture Michael Dunn, 2002. This work charts the growth of sculpture in this former British colony from the era of British imports through a period of strong British influence to the more confident art of the 20th century, using a wider set of sources and materials and more personal forms of expression.

Teaching Contemporary Art With Young People Julia Marshall, Connie Stewart, Anne Thulson, 2021. This practical resource will help educators teach about current art and integrate its philosophy and methods into the K-12 classroom. The authors provide a framework that looks at art through the lens of nine themes: everyday life, work, power, earth, space, and place, self and others, change and time, inheritance, and visual culture, highlighting the conceptual aspects of art and connecting disparate forms of expression. They also provide guidelines and examples for how to use contemporary art to change the dynamics of a classroom, apply inventive non-linear lenses to topics, broaden and update the art canon, and spur creative and critical thinking. Young people will find the selected artwork accessible and relevant to their lives diverse and expansive probing serious and funny Challenging conventional notions of what should be considered art and how it should be created this book offers a sampling of what is out there to inspire educators and students to explore the limitless world of new art Book Features Indicators and lenses that make contemporary art more familiar accessible understandable and useable for teachers Easy to reference descriptions and images from a variety of contemporary artists Strategies for integrating art thinking across the curriculum Suggestions to help teachers find contemporary art to fit their curriculum and school settings Concrete examples of art based projects from both art and general classrooms Guidance for developing curriculum including how to create guiding questions to spur student thinking

Birth of Modern Sculpture
Felicity Moreau, AI, 2025-02-26 Birth of Modern Sculpture delves into the revolutionary period when artists redefined sculpture breaking from classical traditions to embrace innovation The book explores this transformation highlighting how sculptors responded to societal shifts and technological advancements leading to the birth of entirely new forms of artistic expression Notably the rise of steel production and welding provided unprecedented possibilities and the decline of traditional patronage challenged established norms The book examines the rejection of academic conventions the embrace of new materials and the exploration of abstraction Beginning with 19th century traditions it progresses through the influence of early modern sculptors like Auguste Rodin and avant garde movements such as Cubism and Futurism Ultimately the book analyzes the rise of constructivism and non representational forms revealing how sculptors moved beyond mere imitation This exploration provides a comprehensive overview of a pivotal period in art history offering new insights into the forces that shaped modern sculpture

Modern/Postmodern
Silvio Gaggi, 2015-08-10 Silvio Gaggi's survey of the vast terrain of twentieth century arts and ideas is unique not only for its scope but also for the clarity and cohesiveness it brings to wide ranging seemingly disparate works By identifying underlying epistemological aesthetic and ethical issues Gaggi draws connections among such modern and postmodern masterpieces as Pirandello's and Brecht's theater Fowles's and Barth's fiction Warhol's paintings Godard's and Bergman's films and Derrida's literary theory Modern Postmodern begins with a discussion of the profound skepticism about traditional beliefs and about our ability to know the self that lies at the heart of both modernism and postmodernism Gaggi identifies the modernist response to this doubt as the rejection of mimesis in favor of a purely formalistic or expressionistic art The postmodern response on the other hand is above all to create art that is self referential concerned with art itself the history of art or its processes Drawing from the work of Piranadello and Brecht paradigms that can be applies to many different art works Gaggi emphasizes how these works from diverse media relate to one another and what their relationships are to the contemporary artistic and philosophical climate He concentrates on the works themselves but examines theory as a parallel manifestation of the same obsessions that inform recent literature and art Gaggi asks finally if self referential art can also be politically and ethically engaged with the reality outside it He concludes that the postmodern obsession with language narrativity and artifice is not necessarily a decadent indulgence but is at its best an honest inquiry into the problems questions and paradoxes of language Modern Postmodern is a lively approach to postmodern art that will interest all students and scholars of contemporary art and literature Lessons from the Middle Sandra Kaplan, Sandra Nina Kaplan, Michael W. Cannon, 2001 From writing mysteries to studying the human genome project these model lessons from the core academic areas will excite your students and save you planning time These standards based lessons and units of study will promote high end learning for gifted students in middle school Grades 6 8
