Sculture Del Complebo EufRASiano Di Parenzo:

The New Palaces of Medieval Venice , Princes of the Church David Rollason,2017-06-14 Princes of the Church brings together the latest research exploring the importance of bishops palaces for social and political history landscape history architectural history and archaeology It is the first book length study of such sites since Michael Thompson s Medieval Bishops Houses 1998 and the first work ever to adopt such a wide ranging approach to them in terms of themes and geographical and chronological range Including contributions from the late Antique period through to the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries it deals with bishops residences in England Scotland Wales the Byzantine Empire France and Italy It is structured in three sections design and function which considers how bishops palaces and houses differed from the palaces and houses of secular magnates in their layout design furnishings and functions landscape and urban context which considers the relationship between bishops palaces and houses and their political and cultural context the landscapes and towns or cities in which they were set and the parks forests and towns that were planned and designed around them and architectural form which considers the extent of shared features between bishops palaces and houses and their relationship to the houses of other Church potentates and to the houses of secular magnates Ravenna and the Traditions of Late Antique and Early Byzantine Craftsmanship Salvatore Cosentino,2020-08-10 In the last twenty years scholarship on late antique and early medieval Ravenna has resulted in a certain number of publications mainly focused on the fields of architecture mosaics and archaeology On the contrary much less attention has been paid on labour both manual and intellectual as well as the structure of production and objects derived from manufacturing activities despite the fact that Ravenna is the place which preserves the highest number of historical evidence among all centres of the late Roman Mediterranean Its cultural heritage is vast and composite ranging from papyri to inscriptions from ivories to marbles as well as luxury objects pottery and coins Starting from concrete typologies of hand manufactured goods existing in the Ravennate milieu the book aims at exploring the multifaceted traditions of late antique and early Byzantine handicraft from the fourth to the eighth century AD Its perspective is to pay attention more on patronage social taste acculturation workers and the economic industry of production which supported the demand circulation and distribution of artefacts than on the artistic evaluation of the objects themselves Housing in Late Antiquity Luke Lavan,Lale èOzgenel,Alexander Constantine Sarantis,2007 This collection of papers arising from the conference series Late Antique Archaeology examines the housing in the late antique period through thematic and regional syntheses complemented by cases studies and two bibliographic essays Byzantine Ornaments in Stone Philipp Niewöhner,2021-07-19 Architectural sculpture and liturgical furniture are key genres of late antique and Byzantine archaeology and art and this book provides the first general overview It offers two alternative ways of access via technical terms and illustrations It can thus serve as dictionary if a term requires explanation and illustration or as a visual gazetteer for the research of artefacts In addition the volume can also serve as an academic textbook Ancient Plaster Abbey L. R. Ellis, Emma Payne, 2025-07-02 Ancient Plaster Casting Light on a Forgotten Sculptural Material offers a fresh exploration of plaster in the sculpture of the ancient Mediterranean and beyond Challenging the traditional focus on marble and bronze this volume reveals the crucial role of plaster both in the sculptor's workshop and as a medium for finished sculpture Combining academic insights with contemporary artists' perspectives the book also delves into the controversial topic of life casting in antiquity and provides groundbreaking new interpretations of well known plaster objects such as those from the Roman city of Baiae near Naples With chapters extending the chronological and geographical scope to early modern Europe and contemporary art school contexts the book illuminates plaster's versatility and the continuity of its use across millennia By rehabilitating this material often overlooked or lost to the archaeological record the volume offers a transformative view of ancient sculpture appealing to both scholars and art enthusiasts alike
