Seal Woman:

The Seal Woman Beverley Farmer, 1993 The Seal Woman Beverley Farmer, 2025-03-01 Portrait of a widow in mourning by one of Australia's most important women writers The Seal Woman was first published to acclaim in 1992 but has been out of print for many years The novel explores the mind of a middle aged Danish woman mourning the recent death of her husband at sea in a cottage lent to her by friends in the seaside village in Victoria where she had spent her honeymoon Farmer's prose is marked by the suppleness of its language and its extraordinary attention to detail Dagmar's observations of the sea and its creatures the light the mist the wind the life of plants are so intense and evocative it is as if she has dissolved into her surroundings On the other hand her passivity leaves her vulnerable to the deceit of others particularly the man she depends on as her lover Her retreat into wonder is undercut by a persistent questioning as to how far it might lead her into a state of submission The Seal Woman was originally published two years after A Body of Water an imaginative montage of journal commonplace book stories and poems which it resembles in its own use of mixed sources from myth and legend and history In bringing these two books back into print alongside Farmer's first work of fiction Alone and her last books The Bone House and This Water Giramondo is building on its commitment not only to this remarkable author but to the republication of contemporary classics by Australian women authors The Seal-Woman, 2015 The Field Day Anthology of Irish Writing Seamus Deane, Andrew Carpenter, Angela Bourke, Jonathan Williams, 1991

Mornings in Mexico D.H. Lawrence, 2020-10-01 From the celebrated English author of Sons and Lovers a collection of essays focused on indigenous life in Mexico and the American Southwest D.H. Lawrence's interest in and real affection for Mexico and the American Southwestern regions and its peoples eclipsed ordinary travel writing These essays hold great significance for those interested in the wider context of these cultures as well as those interested in Lawrence as a writer This is the largest collection of essays about Mexican and Southwestern Indians from Lawrence that has ever been published Including an early version of Pan in America which appears here for the first time previously unpublished passages from other essays extant manuscripts typescripts appendices and extensive publication notes this collection contains Lawrence's fundamental thoughts on Mesoamerican mythology and history The Seven Skins of Esther Wilding Holly Ringland, 2024-02-06 A haunting magical novel about joy grief courage and transformation from the international bestselling author of The Lost Flowers of Alice Hart On the afternoon that Esther Wilding drove homeward along the coast a year after her sister had walked into the sea and disappeared the light was painfully golden The last time Esther Wilding's beloved older sister Aura was seen she was walking along the shore towards the sea In the wake of Aura's disappearance Esther's family struggles to live with their loss To seek the truth about her sister's death Esther reluctantly travels from Lutruwita Tasmania to Copenhagen and then to the Faroe Islands following the trail of the stories Aura left behind seven fairy tales about selkies swans and women alongside cryptic verses Aura wrote and had secretly tattooed on her body The Seven Skins of Esther

Wilding is a sweeping deeply beautiful and profoundly moving novel about the far reaches of sisterly love the power of wearing your heart on your skin and the ways life can transform when we find the courage to feel the fullness of both grief and joy The Magic of the Seal Melanie Godfrey,2024-07-26 This book will take you on a journey to awaken a spiritual relationship with the seal familiarizing you with the seal s anima as well as its history with the Gaelic ancestors of the British Isles The Clan of the Seal on North Uist and the traditional oral storytellers were the transmitters and custodians of folklore who told tales about the kindly selchie and revered seals as sacred akin to their own family The gentle seal will help reclaim what is lost within as we remember our Celtic heritage and identity in this fragile world Seal lore teaches valuable lessons in integrity and kindness and ignites our imagination leading us to the seal s inner landscape of presence and peace inevitably towards our own inner peace This is the magic of the seal not lost but found The Drama Classroom Philip

Taylor,2004-01-14 How can teachers incorporate drama into the curriculum What drama activities are especially successful How do teachers know when students are learning in through and about drama Teachers who are new to drama or those wishing to refresh their knowledge and ideas should find practical answers and guidance in this text The book introduces the work of Cecily O Neill to demonstrate the entry points to drama lessons the pre texts and how educators need to introduce lessons with challenging material He then uses the work of David Booth to highlight one aspect of drama storydrama and how it can be used as an effective learning medium across the curriculum Against the Grain Lyn Jacobs,2001 This is the first comprehensive critical study of Beverley Farmer s poetry prose and criticism in UQP s long running Studies in Australian Literature series Jacobs studies Farmer s work in relation to the dynamic changes in writing and reception that have occurred during Farmer s writing life Iceland Andrew Evans,2014-08-01 A brand new edition of the most in depth guide available to Iceland containing both the remotest offshore islands and the ins and outs of Reykjavik s music scene

Scandinavian Folk Belief and Legend Reimund Kvideland,Henning K. Sehmsdorf,1988 Coastal Works Nicholas Allen,Nick Groom,Jos Smith,2017-07-04 In all the complex cultural history of the islands of Britain and Ireland the idea of the coast as a significant representative space is critical For many important artists coastal space has figured as a site from which to braid ideas of empire nation region and archipelago They have been drawn to the coast as a zone of geographical uncertainty in which the self definitions of the nation founder they have been drawn to it as a peripheral space of vestigial wildness of island retreats and experimental living as a network of diverse localities richly endowed with distinctive forms of cultural heritage and as a dynamically interconnected ecosystem which is at the same time the historic site of significant developments in fieldwork and natural science This collection situates these cultures of the Atlantic edge in a series of essays that create new contexts for coastal study in literary history and criticism The contributors frame their research in response to emerging conversations in archipelagic criticism the blue humanities and island studies the essays challenging the reader to reconsider ideas of margin periphery and exchange These twelve case studies establish the coast as a crucial location in the imaginative history of Britain Ireland and the north Atlantic edge Coastal Works will appeal to readers of literature and history with an interest in the sea the environment and the archipelago from the 18th century to the present Accessible innovative and provocative Coastal Works establishes the important role that the coast plays in our cultural imaginary and suggests a range of methodologies to represent relationships between land sea and cultural work A Year with the Seals Alix Morris, 2025-07-10 For readers of Jennifer Ackerman and Ed Yong environmental journalist Alix Morris recounts the year she spent following seals investigating their fascinating behaviour the effects of their extraordinary return from near extinction and how we can try to bring nature back into balance It might be their large strangely human eyes or their dog like playfulness but seals have long captured people s interest and affection making them the perfect candidate for an environmental cause as well as the subject of decades of study Alix Morris spends a year with these magnetic creatures and brings them to life on the page season by season as she learns about their intelligence their relationships with each other their ecosystems and the changing climate Along with the enigmatic seals themselves Morris gets to know all of the competing interests in the intense debate about the newly recovered seal populations in our coastal waters from local fisherman whose catch is often diminished by savvy seals to tribes who once relied on seal hunting for food clothing and medicine to seal rescue workers and biologists to surfers and swimmers now encountering seal hunting sharks in coastal waters In a world where wildlife populations are disappearing at an alarming rate A Year with the Seals is a rare look at what happens when conservation efforts actually work and how human tampering with ecosystems continues to have unexpected consequences for a wide variety of species humans included Diasporic Women's Writing of the Black Atlantic Emilia María Durán-Almarza, Esther Álvarez López, 2013-10-30 This book brings together a complete set of approaches to works by female authors that articulate the black Atlantic in relation to the interplay of race class and gender The chapters provide the grounds to en gender a more complex understanding of the scattered geographies of the African diaspora in the Atlantic basin The variety of approaches displayed bears witness to the vitality of a field that over the years has become a diasporic formation itself as it incorporates critical insights and theoretical frameworks from multiple disciplines in the social sciences and the humanities thus exposing the manifold character of black diasporic interconnections within and beyond the Atlantic Focusing on a wide array of contemporary literary and performance texts by women writers and performers from diverse locations including the Caribbean Canada Africa the US and the UK chapters visit genres such as performance art the novel science fiction short stories and music For these purposes the volume is organized around two significant dimensions of diasporas on the one hand the material corporeal and spatial locations where those displacements associated with travel and exile occur and on the other the fluid environments and networks that connect distant places cultures and times This collection explores the ways in which women of African descent shape the cultures and histories in the modern colonial and postcolonial Atlantic worlds Woman's Home Companion ,1915 Cormac McCarthy's Borders and Landscapes

Louise Jillett, 2016-10-06 Cormac McCarthy's work is attracting an increasing number of scholars and critics from a range of disciplines within the humanities and beyond from political philosophy to linguistics and from musicology to various branches of the sciences Cormac McCarthy's Borders and Landscapes contributes to this developing field of research investigating the way McCarthy's writings speak to other works within the broader fields of American literature international literature border literature and other forms of comparative literature It also explores McCarthy's literary antecedents and the movements out of which his work has emerged such as modernism romanticism naturalism eco criticism genre based literature western southern gothic folkloric traditions and mythology

Seekers of Wonder Elena Emma Sottilotta, 2025-04-08 Women's cultural and political engagement with oral tales and traditions in European peripheries With Seekers of Wonder Elena Sottilotta offers the first comparative study of women's manifold roles in the collection of Italian and Irish folklore and fairy tales between 1870 and 1920 Sottilotta views the often overlooked work of these women from an interdisciplinary perspective considering both the politics and poetics of seeking wonder In so doing she centers women's influence on the preservation and dissemination of oral traditions bringing work that was once relegated to the margins into dialogue with work long regarded as canonical After mapping sidelined marginalized and forgotten women folklorists Sottilotta narrows the focus onto four writers and collectors who were inspired by Italian and Irish insular contexts Laura Gonzenbach who collected Sicilian wonder tales Grazia Deledda who wrote Sardinian ethnographic sketches legends and fairy tales Jane Wilde who published anthologies of Irish folklore and Augusta Gregory who collected traditional narratives in the west of Ireland Situated within an ongoing process of rediscovery of lesser known collectors tellers and tales in the European tradition Sottilotta relocates these figures within a broader transcultural framework Throughout Sottilotta emphasizes the role of women as crucial intermediaries between different cultural groups in particular between the world of the folk and the world of scholarly folklore studies Unearthing rare archival material and reading these writings from the perspective of gender Sottilotta sheds light on the identity dynamics that animated the cultural phenomenon of collecting folk and fairy tales in this era

Willful Submission Amanda Paxton, 2018-01-02 Victorian England a Jesuit priest writes of wrestling with God at night limbs entangled an Anglican sister begs Jesus her divine lover to end her aching anticipation of their union a clergyman exhorts nuns to study the example of medieval women who suffered on the rack in order to become brides of Christ Alongside the march of nineteenth century progress ran a seemingly paradoxical fascination with a dark erotically suggestive side of religious devotion the figuration of the Christian God as a heavenly bridegroom who doles out punishment to his bride the individual soul Through innovative case studies of Victorian religious poetry Amanda Paxton reveals that while the punitive model proved a convenient rhetorical tool with which to deflate burgeoning nineteenth century campaigns for women's rights and challenges to Church authority in the hands of several writers it also provided a means of resisting patriarchal institutions and interrogating distinctions between science and religion Willful Submission is the first full length volume to examine the interplay of sex suffering and religion as a touchstone in Victorian culture and verse Treasured Islands Peter Naldrett, 2021-06-24 Islands represent adventure mystery wilderness and escapism Surrounded by water they re somewhere to run away to to be marooned on to find a paradise The British Isles includes some 194 inhabited islands out of a
