St Augustine The Search for a Relational Home Chris Jaenicke, 2014-09-25 In The Search for a Relational Home Chris Jaenicke gives the reader an inside view of what actually happens in psychotherapy and how change occurs. He describes how both participants, the patient and the therapist, feel and how they affect each other. The reader is encouraged to vicariously partake in the process from the perspective of his or her own life experiences. The book describes the nature of therapeutic action through a radicalized version of intersubjective systems theory. It demonstrates how psychotherapy is an outcome of a highly personal encounter between two unique human beings and how, while the goal of psychoanalysis is to help the patient, this can only be achieved inasmuch as both participants are willing to undergo transformation. Jaenicke clarifies how both successes and failures, as well as personal strengths and weaknesses, play a constitutive part in the psychotherapeutic process. The Search for a Relational Home also provides theoretical and practical guidelines for supervision. Jaenicke presents here a unique approach to the process of psychotherapy which will be vital reading for psychoanalysts, psychotherapists, and those in training, as well as students in all fields of mental health. Advances in Breast Cancer Research, 1999 Northwestern Lancet, 1901 Search of Excellence, ANTEC 91 Society of Plastic Engineers, 1991-05-01 The Hygienist, 1915 British Medical Journal, 1921 Short Studies in Character Sophie Willock Bryant, 1894 The Disciple, 1977 Commercial West, 1903
