FREEMAN, 1821 Scattered Syllables Linda Lokhee, 2021-02-07 Scattered Syllables is a collection of modern poetry designed to echo the wonder of natural growth Split into three sections Scattered Growing and Love poet Linda Lokhee explores life's challenges and how to light and maintain the flame of hope we all need to navigate our way through them Linda's unique voice speaks to the universal truths we face and guides us on how to nurture love within every facet of our existence connecting to nature family community and self The Unfolding of The Seasons Ralph Cohen, 2021-12-29 First published in 1970 The Unfolding of The Seasons provides an interpretation and evaluation of James Thomson's poem The Seasons Professor Cohen urges its reconsideration as a major Augustan poem arguing that Thomson's unity diction and thought combine with a conception of man nature and God which is poetically tenable and distinctive The case for The Seasons as an important work of art depends upon its effectiveness as a moving vision of human experience and Professor Cohen believes that many critics have not felt this effectiveness because they have misconceived Thomson's vision and misunderstood his idiom His study aims to persuade them to return to the poem and to examine it within the context of an Augustan tradition Professor Cohen shows that Thomson's great achievement is to have fashioned a conception which by bringing nature to the forefront of his poem became a new poetic way of defining human experience Thomson was not the first nature poet in English but he was the first to provide an effective idiom in which science orthodox religion natural description and classical allusions blended to describe the glory baseness and uncertainty of man's earthly environment holding forth the hope of heavenly love and wisdom This study shows that Thomson found a personal idiom by means of which he created an artistic vision It will appeal to those with an interest in English literature and in philosophy Days and Times Paul K. Hooker, 2018-05-02 These poems seek to be playful with faith Their aim is to expose the underlying sacredness of events that form the liturgy of living and to do so with sensitivity toward mystery wonder and occasionally suspicion Some of them seek to tell stories left untold by the narratives of faith others prod the narratives of ordinary life to see where faith may be hiding These poems do not understand faith as an intellectual choice but rather as an involuntary trust in something beyond us something always unclear ill lit and inadequately characterized by the language religious people use to describe ultimate realities They seek not so much to dismantle that language as to subvert its self assuredness to find words that surprise and compel different ways of seeing The Windsor Magazine , 1917 The Academy and Literature , 1913
