America's most desirable cities. But with such wealth came consequences: overdevelopment paralyzing traffic, racial and class divisions, and a street population of teenagers discarded by the new culture whose rage and disaffection fueled the rise of bands such as Nirvana. Striving to reach its ambitions, Seattle seemed to be losing the struggle for its soul. And when it hosted the 1999 World Trade Organization convention, the city's conflicted personalities clashed as violent riots by residents and a coalition of protestors left the downtown decimated and the nation transfixed by the spectacle of globalization gone wrong. In Seattle and the Demons of Ambition, Fred Moody uses his own background as a native son along with wide-ranging encounters with others to trace the growing pains of the city he loves. Profiling Bill Gates and never quite champion football coach Chuck Knox, a pair of ambitious entrepreneurs and a homeless sculptor once profiled in the New Yorker, grunge music superstars and the preyed-upon children of the documentary Streetwise, Moody offers a dramatic, entertaining, and insightful portrait of the city that defined economic and technological change in the America of the 1990s. See Me Jan

Cohen-Cruz, 2024-09-10. Encounters: transformations and reflections from in-prison and post-release theater workshops. See Me is a collection of intimate dialogues about collective experiences in the context of prison theater workshops. Each essay is a collaboration between two or three people who connected profoundly in the temporary community that a workshop can create. Part I is an exchange grounded in the prison theater workshop between the author and one of the incarcerated participants. They alternately tell the story of what they found in the workshop, each other, the future they imagined together, and the social turmoil and utopian aspirations of the times. Part II consists of essays jointly written by eight other people impacted by close relationships spawned in diverse in-prison and re-entry theater workshops. Investigation of the Commodity Credit Corporation. 85-2, 1958 United States. Nelson Christopher Amador had a really great childhood living in Beacon Hill in Seattle, but when he was six years old, his parents, Melissa and Roger Amador, were murdered by an ageless criminal named Arthur Denherd Ghostmen, and as his parents were murdered, Nelson was adopted by a family by the name of the Donavons. As Nelson was adopted by them, his step-sister Krystal causes all kinds of hate on his life, and she often makes fun of him. But despite this, Nelson is able to meet new friends named Sabrina Roberts, Riley Owens, Shelby Ryer. Nelson is also involved in an accident that really changes his life socially and emotionally, as he gets the ability to shoot fire out of his hands and use flames and thorns as his new super powers, and he would face many enemies going into this path of becoming Nelson Fire and facing many enemies from Dr. Lord to Erica Frerker.
