Baum, 2007-11-28 Words can fail even the most articulate when called upon to speak at a loved one's funeral or memorial occasion. The bereaved desires to say something meaningful yet services are often held so quickly that there is little time to find something appropriate at the library or bookstore. This book is a collection of poetry and prose appropriate for reading at a funeral or memorial service. To assist the reader in finding a suitable passage, the book is divided into eleven chapters. There are tributes for mothers, fathers, children, spouses and soulmates, friends, siblings and other close relatives, soldiers and victims of war or violence, pets and general readings appropriate for men, women or any loved one. These selections will also prove helpful for clergy, counselors and hospice, hospital and funeral professionals. Appendices list resources and support organizations and each selection is indexed by author, title and first line. A special additional index references pieces by famous uses such as in a film, novel or celebrity's funeral so readers can locate a passage they remember from its context.

Handbook for Those Who Grieve Martin M. Auz, 2015-02-25 How can I best help someone who has lost a loved one? How do I talk to a child about the death of a family member? What do I need to think about before I plan a funeral? Confusion, bewilderment and a lack of direction commonly surface in the aftermath of a death. It's also the time when dealing with the issues and emotions of the experience can lead to making hasty or unwise decisions. In this revised edition of Handbook for Those Who Grieve, Martin M. Auz and Maureen Lyons Andrews offer concise, practical, topic-based lists and suggestions to help people immediately after a loss. Rather than philosophizing, theologizing or rationalizing, the authors draw on their research and personal experiences to provide short but solid answers to help grieving people successfully deal with the countless issues and varied emotions that a person's death is sure to thrust upon them. Grief and Loss Katherine Walsh, 2021-11-16 Loss is a part of every life and grief related to loss is inescapable.
