

PRAYER for those GRIEVING the LOSS of LOVED ONES

Jehovah Jireh, there is none like You. Every day we want to praise You and worship Your glorious name. Today we weep at the death of our friends, family or loved one, but Blessed Father, we can rest assured knowing You are there for us, knowing we can find comfort and peace within You, in the midst of our tears and our grief. Lord, we shout Your praises, because You have turned our mourning into dancing.

Grieving the Loss of a Loved One Kathe Wunnenberg,2009-12-22 Death is an inevitable and constant part of life yet those who grieve often feel misunderstood and alone in their journey says Kathe Wunnenberg author of Grieving the Loss of a Loved One This compassionate book acts as a daily devotional companion to hurting people Designed for adult readers of all ages and stages in the grieving process it is sensitively written by an author who suffered three miscarriages and the death of an infant son She knows from firsthand experience that there are no easy answers for those who mourn Sixty devotions cover the many stages of grieving including readings for holidays birthdays and special occasions when grief can be particularly painful Readers will walk away from the short thematic devotions and feel validated connected to someone who knows how they truly feel and with renewed hope in God Friends and family members who sincerely want to help the grieving can give this book as a meaningful beneficial expression of their love and concern Moving Past Cindy Cipriani, 2012-11-20 This wonderful book shows you how to develop the internal strength you need to move forward with your life Brian Tracy author of Live a Wonderful Life How do I move past the death of my loved one Whether the loss of a loved one is sudden or the result of a long illness it is difficult to be prepared for the flood of emotions that will surely come to those left behind Throughout her life author Cindy Cipriani has had to cope with losing many special loved ones Each time her grief was different In Moving Past The Death of a Loved One she offers a simple yet effective guide through the grieving process to finding peace and happiness again Moving Past The Death of a Loved One offers insight and many useful tips on self care and healing for those who are making their way through a personal loss Cipriani describes ten steps that each person experiences as they journey through grief Each person takes these ten steps at his or her own pace This helpful guidebook is organized to reflect the various emotional stages chapter by chapter and in several special passages in the book Each passage seeks to ease you through the moment by providing a wise quote a few thoughts to ponder an action step and a place to journal Reading a page each day can assist in formulating a new life strategy by keeping our loved ones close and keeping them with us always Letter to Those Who Have Lost a Loved One Emma Luciani, 2013-03-01 Bereavement hardly ever becomes an illness however it makes us feel intensely overwhelmingly ill The need to find understanding and empathy cannot be easily quelled through gratuitous recommendations and common sense advice which are much more helpful in soothing the anguish of those who provide them rather than in alleviating the mourner's suffering The aim of this text is precisely to provide a space of understanding and identification useful to those who personally suffer the loss of a loved one as well as to those who propose themselves as friends How To Go On Living When Someone You Love Dies Therese A. Rando, 1991-07-18 An inspiring guide to help you through the mourning process including a comprehensive resource listing and a chapter on finding professional help and support groups The most comprehensive insightful and helpful volume on loss and survival Rabbi Dr Earl A Grollman author of Living When a Loved One Has Died Mourning the death of a loved one is a process all of us will go through at one time or another But wherever the death is sudden or anticipated few of us are prepared for it or for the grief it brings There is no right or wrong way to grieve each person's response to loss will be different Now in this compassionate comprehensive guide previously published as Grieving Therese A Rando Ph D bereavement specialist and author of Loss and Anticipatory Grief leads you gently through the painful but necessary process of grieving and helps you find the best way for yourself Whether the death was sudden or expected from accident illness suicide homicide or natural causes Dr Rando will help you learn to Understand and resolve your grief Talk to children about death Resolve unfinished business Take care of yourself Accept the help and support of others Get through holidays and other difficult times of the year Plan funerals and personal bereavement rituals There is no way around the pain of loss but there is a way through it Dr Rando offers the solace comfort and guidance to help you accept your loss and move into your new life without forgetting your treasured past Grieving the Loss of a Loved One Lorene Hanley Duquin,2012-11-08

Grief is like a long valley a winding valley where any bend may reveal a totally new landscape C S Lewis Lorene Duquin an experienced grief counselor was no stranger to understanding and explaining grief and had helped many people work through it But when she lost her mother she found herself living in an entirely new space Grieving the Loss of a Loved One contains 52 powerful one page meditations that will help you work through the various aspects of grieving as they did for Lorene herself The meditations are wide ranging they are deeply personal but yet they address the emotional physical mental spiritual and social aspects of grief Rooted in prayer inspired by the Holy Spirit and conveying important life lessons each meditation features A quote from a well known figure that speaks to the meditation A brief reflection that expands upon the topic at hand A prayer Sidebar with a timely quote or anecdote Walk hand in hand with Lorene and experience the gift of a companion who can walk this painful walk at your side through this unknown territory where each passing day seems to reveal a new dimension of pain loss confusion but eventually transforms to healing and peace From Our Loved Ones in Heaven - We Are Still with You Guy Dussault,2016-08-12 On June 27 2004 we received the heartbreaking news that no parent ever wants to hear Four days before his twenty ninth birthday our son Billy died in an ATV accident Billy s sudden unexpected death caused my family untold pain and anguish the likes of which we d never known But through our grief and sorrow I found a silver lining dedicating myself to assisting others who have lost loved ones as well Helping the bereaved to understand that though death may seem like the end our loved ones are still very much with us They send us signs sometimes subtle to let us know they are still by our side They know how much we miss them and feel our love This book is an inspirational guide to dealing with the loss of a loved one and learning to recognize the many ways they may connect with us Consequences and Aftercare of a Traumatic Loss of a Loved One Lonneke I. The Five Ways We Grieve Susan A. Berger,2011-03-08 In this new approach to understanding the impact of grief Susan A Berger goes beyond the commonly held theories of stages of grief with a new typology for self awareness and personal growth She offers practical advice for healing from a major loss in this presentation of five basic ways or types of grieving These five types describe how different people respond to a major loss The types are Nomads who have not yet resolved their grief and don t often understand how their loss has affected their lives Memorialists who are committed to preserving the memory of their loved ones by creating concrete memorials and rituals to honor them Normalizers who are committed to re creating a sense of family and community Activists who focus on helping other people who are dealing with the same disease or issues that caused their loved one's death Seekers who adopt religious philosophical or spiritual beliefs to create meaning in their lives Drawing on research results and anecdotes from working with the bereaved over the past ten years Berger examines how a person's worldview is affected after a major loss According to her findings people experience significant changes in their sense of mortality their values and priorities their perception of and orientation toward time and the manner in which they fit in society The five types of grieving she finds reflect the choices people make in their efforts to adapt to dramatic life changes By identifying with one of the types readers who have suffered a recent loss or whose lives have been shaped by an early loss find ways of understanding the impact of the loss and of living more fully
