Lost - Liberated - Loved Claudia Mari  le Wulf, 2023 Christian ethics also called moral theology in the tradition is one of the most controversial topics within theology as well as outside it Yet the goal of these ethics is a life in fullness and freedom Without ethical guidelines and personal responsibility a life cannot succeed Norms and laws aim to create space for life and protect it To fill this freedom people are responsible for that And being responsible means owing an answer to someone Ethics therefore always takes place in relation to one's own conscience to the good that can be accomplished and in relation to other living beings and nature Christian ethics moreover places this responsibility in relation to God People are free but also limited they hurt each other and need forgiveness and reconciliation Often people can reconcile with each other but sometimes accounts remain open the evil was too great or the reconciliation failed Christian theology can refer to redemption here It is just not easy to reconcile its content with the everyday reality of modern people This systematic introduction to moral theology offers an explanation in understandable anthropological terms It shows how the Christian message provides a meaningful answer to the open question of how a human life can succeed Anyone who tries to mediate meaningfully between tradition and modernity in the pastoral practice of the church will find this book a guide

Inside Paradise Lost David Quint, 2014-02-02 Inside Paradise Lost opens up new readings and ways of reading Milton's epic poem by mapping out the intricacies of its narrative and symbolic designs and by revealing and exploring the deeply allusive texture of its verse David Quint's comprehensive study demonstrates how systematic patterns of allusion and keywords give structure and coherence both to individual books of Paradise Lost and to the overarching relationship among its books and episodes Looking at poems within the poem Quint provides new interpretations as he takes readers through the major subjects of Paradise Lost its relationship to epic tradition and the Bible its cosmology and politics and its dramas of human choice Quint shows how Milton radically revises the epic tradition and the Genesis story itself by arguing that it is better to create than destroy by telling the reader to make love not war and by appearing to ratify Adam's decision to fall and die with his wife The Milton of this Paradise Lost is a Christian humanist who believes in the power and freedom of human moral agency As this indispensable guide and reference takes us inside the poetry of Milton's masterpiece Paradise Lost reveals itself in new formal configurations and unsuspected levels of meaning and design instinctive desires and profound fears still grasp what it means to be human Or are they forever trapped in their monstrous forms cursed to wander a world that sees them as abominations The Island of Lost Souls Moreau is a haunting exploration of creation and destruction a chilling reminder of the thin line separating man from beast With its vivid visceral descriptions and a contemplative tone this gripping tale will ensnare readers leaving them to ponder the depths of their own humanity long after the final page is turned Prepare for a journey into the heart of darkness where the echoes of lost souls reverberate through the jungle and the true nature of existence hangs in the balance
