The Lost

Thoughts of Soldiers Delia Falconer, 2009-08-10 Georgia 1898 On what may be the last day of his life Captain Frederick Benteen, the man who saved Custer's Seventh Cavalry from almost certain death at Little Bighorn, receives a letter from an ambitious boy offering to restore his reputation. For over 23 years Benteen has silently watched Custer's legend grow. His General has been dead for more than 20 years, killed in action, considered a hero while the public has never forgiven Benteen for surviving. Now at last he begins to put down some account of those two horrific days pinned down on a ridge. What follows is an exquisite eulogy for his fellow soldiers, both alive and dead. Funny, moving, rich in character and incident, this acclaimed novel avoids the bloody battle scenes and maudlin romance that characterize much Civil War based fiction, in favor of an unsparing and poetic story that explores what it means to be a soldier then and now.

Literary Medicine: Brain Disease and Doctors in Novels, Theater, and Film J. Bogousslavsky, S. Dieguez, 2013 An amazing and fascinating look at neurological conditions in fiction and film Classical and modern literature is full of patients with interesting neurological cognitive or psychiatric diseases often including detailed and accurate descriptions which suggests the authors were inspired by observations of real people In many cases these literary portrayals of diseases even predate their formal identification by medical science Fictional literature encompasses nearly all kinds of disorders affecting the nervous system with certain favorites such as memory loss and behavioral syndromes There are even unique observations that cannot be found in scientific and clinical literature because of the lack of appropriate studies Not only does literature offer a creative and humane look at disorders of the brain and mind but just as authors have been inspired by medicine and real disorders clinicians have also gained knowledge from literary depictions of the disorders they encounter in their daily practice This book provides an amazing and fascinating look at neurological conditions patients and doctors in literature and film in a way which is both nostalgic and novel

Modern/Postmodern Peter V. Zima, 2010-08-05 Modern Postmodern Society Philosophy Literature offers new definitions of modernism and postmodernism by presenting an original theoretical system of thought that explains the differences between these two key movements Taking a contrastive approach Peter V Zima identifies three key concepts in the relationship between modernism and postmodernism ambiguity ambivalence and indifference Zima defines modernism and postmodernism as problematics as opposed to aesthetics stylistics or ideologies Unlike modernism which is grounded in an increasing ambivalence towards social norms and values postmodernity is presented as an era of indifference i e of interchangeable norms values and perspectives Taking an historical interdisciplinary and intercultural approach that engages with Anglo American and European debates the book describes the transition from late modernist ambivalence to postmodern indifference in the contexts of philosophy literature and sociology This is the ideal guide to the relationship between modernism and postmodernism for students and scholars throughout the humanities The Mammoth Book of Westerns Jon E. Lewis, 2013-07-04 The Western though a singularly American art form is one of the great genres of world literature with a truly global readership It is also durable despite being often unfairly maligned Ever since James Fenimore Cooper transformed frontier yarns into a distinct literary form the Western has followed two paths one populist what Time magazine famously billed the American Morality Play capable of taking many points of view from red to redneck but always populist with a sentimental attachment to the misfit the other literary eschewing heroism debunking with unsettling candour many of the myths of the West It can sometimes be difficult to draw a sure line between the two forms but both are represented in this outstanding collection which includes stories by Rick Bass Walter Van Tilburg Clark Larry McMurtry Mari Sandoz Christopher Tilghman and Mark Twain among many others Taiping Guangji A Collection of Ancient Novels in China; Theme of Karma (Vol. 102-145) Li Fang, Taiping Guangji is the first collection of ancient classical Chinese documentary novels The book has 500 volumes with 10 catalogues It is a kind of book based on the documentary stories of the Han Dynasty and the Song Dynasty 14 people including Li Fang Hu Mongolian Li Mu Xu Xuan Wangke Zhen Song white Lv Wenzhong worked under Song Taizong Emperor s command for the compilation It began in the second year of Taiping Xingguo 977 A D and was completed in the following year 978 Ad This book is basically a collection of ancient stories compiled by category The book is divided into 92 categories according to the theme and is divided into more than 150 details The story of the gods and spirits in the book accounts for the largest proportion such as the fifty five volumes of the gods the fifteen volumes of the female fairy the twenty five volumes of the gods the forty volumes of the ghosts plus the Taoism the alchemist the aliens the dissidents the interpretation and Spirit vegetation of birds and so on basically belong to the weird story of nature represents the mainstream of Chinese classical story The book is an excerpt from the volume about Karma from Tai Ping Guang Ji Vol 102 145 Novels, Romances and Writings Alphonse Daudet, 1900 Representations of Child Soldiers in Contemporary African Narratives Ademola Adesola, 2024-09-11 In Representations of Child Soldiers in Contemporary African Narratives Ademola Adesola examines the dominant factors that writers privilege in their portrayals of child soldiering in sub Saharan Africa In his textual interpretive analyses of selected novels in the African child soldier genre Adesola contends that critical discussions of African child soldier literature have depended on the interpretive frameworks supplied by Western humanitarian discourses which oversimplify and de historicize experiences of war in Africa The author argues that such reductive decontextualization of war realities serve to champion a narrow vision of war in African contexts centered on a moral and humanitarian urge for Western intervention Regardless of whether the casus belli legitimating those wars are genuine or not those conflicts and children s involvement in them are understood within the same racist colonial and ethnocentric stereotypes about Africa that have been privileged in Western thought and the Western moral political imagination for centuries Thus in studying African child soldier narratives this book provides an alternative reading of novels whose settings feature African ethnopolitical conflicts such as in Sierra Leone Liberia Congo Brazzaville Nigeria notable for their exploitation of children for military ends The author maintains that these works are significant in the varying ways they reify and challenge the Western ideas of child and childhood as well as privilege child soldiers as social actors whose intricate makeups disavow being simply understood as innocent victims or irredeemable perpetrators of atrocities
